

I don't have to try too hard to please you or impress you.

You have accepted my flaws with open arms and still think I am imperfectly perfect.

I skip a heart beat every time I look at you.

Even a simple 'I Love You' sounds so good coming out of your mouth.

You are always quick to make up after fights, and genuinely put in efforts.

You always know how to make me laugh even in the most serious of situations.

We both tend to act super crazy and weird at times without judging each other.

You fill me up with positivity when I am feeling down.

You have great respect and patience for people around you.

The way you talk about me to your friends.

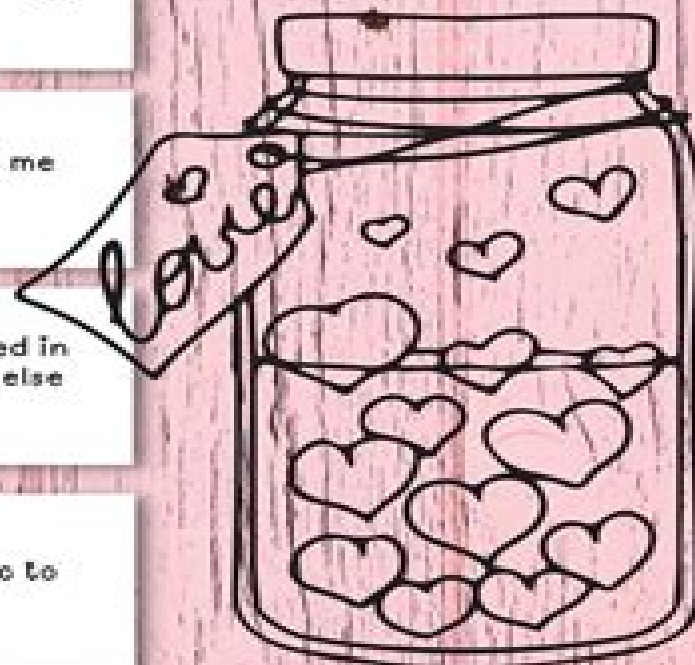

You just don't make me, but also my heart smile.

You have always believed in me, even when nobody else did.

You are the first person I want to share good news with and turn to when times are bad.

Your voice is like music to my ears.

God Saw That It Was Good, Not Perfect Hulisani Ramantswana,2024-12-20 The reversal of creation to a non functional state is understood to be symbolic of God s judgement whereas its restoration symbolizes hope A firm understanding of the crucial theological topic of creation is essential for comprehending the canonical story and redemptive history present in Genesis 1 3 Yet how has the traditional progressive reading of these chapters formed our understanding of the goodness of creation in relation to perfection and functionality Considering the broader canonical context Dr Hulisani Ramantswana challenges the standard interpretation of these chapters and argues that the goodness of creation does not imply perfection but instead infers its functionality Proposing an alternative reading he contends the hope in a new heaven and new earth suggests a radical transformation of the good creation instead of merely a restoration Through analyzing the formula of approval in Genesis 1 3 he considers the impact this reframing of goodness might have on the doctrine of creation and how it aids in comprehending our position in a creation that is flawed by evil Stimulating and thought provoking those interested in cultivating a deeper
