

REASSESSING THE SIXTIES

Debating the Political and Cultural Legacy

IN THE PAST TWO DECADES, HISTORICAL perspectives on the 1960s have changed dramatically. As the 1960s approach their fortieth anniversary, historians, novelists, filmmakers, and others are reassessing the decade. In this book, contributors to a 1999 conference at the University of California, Berkeley, explore the political and cultural legacy of the 1960s. The book is divided into three parts: the first part, "The 1960s in Context," discusses the decade's place in American history; the second part, "The 1960s in Culture," discusses the decade's impact on the arts and literature; and the third part, "The 1960s in Politics," discusses the decade's impact on the political system.
