Rebels With A Cause Independents In Australian Politics:

Rebels with a Cause Brian J. Costar, Jennifer Curtin, 2004 Looks at why independents are gaining support how they relate to the major parties and how they exercise power in state and federal parliaments cover Australian Politics in the Twenty-First Century Glenn Kefford, Hannah Murphy-Gregory, Ian Ward, Stewart Jackson, Lloyd Cox, Andrea Carson, 2018-09-20 Australian Politics in the Twenty First Century presents the many moving parts of Australia's political system from an institutional perspective It equips students with the requisite foundational knowledge and encourages them to critically examine the complex interplay between a centuries old system and a diverse modern Australian society The Australian Study of Politics R. Rhodes, 2009-11-11 The Australian Study of Politics provides the first comprehensive reference book on the history of the study of politics in Australia whether described as political studies or political science It focuses on Australia and on developments since WWII also exploring the historical roots of each major subfield Mending Democracy Carolyn M. Hendriks, Selen A. Ercan, John Boswell, 2020 The fabric of contemporary democracy in many liberal Western societies is in tatters Citizens are disconnected from their elected representatives they are fractured and polarised in the public sphere and alienated from increasingly complex systems of public policy These disconnects in the representative relationship in the public sphere and in the policy making process are weakening the very fabric of our democracies This book develops the idea of democratic mending as a way of advancing a more connective and systemic approach to democratic repair It is informed by three rich empirical cases of connectivity in practice as well as cutting edge debates in deliberative democracy The empirical cases uncover empowering and transformative modes of citizen participation and civic engagement that are vital for democratic renewal The actors in this book are not withdrawing resisting or seeking autonomy from conventional institutions of representative democracy but actively experimenting with ways to improve and engage with them Through their everyday practices of democratic mending they undertake crucial systemic repair work and strengthen the integrity of our democratic fabric in ways that are yet to be fully acknowledged by scholars and practitioners of democratic reform The Victorian Premiers, 1856-2006 Paul Strangio, Brian J. Costar, 2006 In the century and a half since Victoria was granted responsible government in 1856 44 premiers have presided over the state and colony from Honest William Haines to Steve Bracks Here is their story For the first time this book brings together a comprehensive collection of biographical and political portraits of the Victorian premiers written by leading Australian historians and political scientists The result is a compelling journey through a turbulent occasionally anarchic political landscape A cast of fascinating characters is brought to life the mercurial Graham Berry who in the 1870s threatened broken heads and flaming houses in his heroic struggle to tame the colony's intractably conservative upper house the roguish Tommy Bent the turn of the century can do premier whose development enthusiasms were unhindered by probities of office the bohemian Tom Hollway who conducted Victoria's affairs from his suite in the Windsor Hotel the accidental leader Henry Bolte who became Victoria's longest serving premier and the larrikin metropolitan Jeff Kennett who turned the state into a neo liberal laboratory in the 1990s A tale of premiers the book is also a narrative of politics in a state that has vied with New South Wales as Australia's most prosperous and powerful It recounts many extraordinary episodes the precocious development of democracy in a fledgling colony turned upside down by gold immigrants the titanic bicameral struggles of the 1860s and 1870s that brought Victoria to the brink of insurrection the bank crashes of the 1890s the police strike of 1923 the great Labor split of the 1950s the hanging of Ronald Ryan in 1967 the social democratic adventurism of the Labor decade of the 1980s brought to a shuddering halt by another era of financial collapses and the neo liberal experimentalism of the Kennett government This carefully researched and engagingly written book will leave the reader in no doubt that politics in the Garden State has seldom been sedate and its premiers rarely predictable

Advocates and Persuaders Mark J. Sheehan, 2019-03-29 The authors of Advocates and Persuaders aim to demystify the political practice of lobbying They believe that lobbying has a significant role to play in a healthy democracy and they examine it closely in the contexts of federal state and local government They also shine a spotlight on the involvement of the media regulators and pollsters in lobbying and include as case studies analyses of lobbying by a diversity of organisations ranging widely from large corporations to grass roots activists

Rural protest groups and populist political parties Dirk Strijker, Gerrit Voerman, Ida Terluin, 2023-08-07 Some agricultural or rural protest groups in the Western world evolved into political parties often of a populist nature whereas others did not This book is the first to explore under which conditions this happens and to what extent current populist parties have agricultural or rural ties and related agendas Well known authors with a background in rural studies or in political sciences describe and analyse the situation in a number of Western countries the United Kingdom France Poland Austria the Netherlands Australia Finland The contributions in this book show that the accessibility and responsiveness of the political system and the institutionalized agrarian interest groups as well as the existing political landscape are influencing the decisions of rural protest groups to found a political party However nowadays the chances of these parties being successful are small due to the declining share of the agricultural sector within European societies Although there will always be grounds for agrarian protest it seems safe to say that the heyday of agrarian populism is over

New Parties in Government Kris Deschouwer, 2008-02-08 Party literature is largely focused on the rise and success of new parties and their effects on party systems and older parties This book on the other hand provides a valuable and original addition to such literature by analyzing what happens to a party when it enters government for the first time Leading contributors assess how these parties whether old or new change when entering government by answering a set of questions How and why has their role changed What are the consequences of change What explains the evolution from principled opposition to loyal opposition and eventually to participation in the executive Which characteristics of the parties can be held responsible Which characteristics of the parties context should be brought into the picture What have been the effects of the status change on party organization party ideology and electoral results Covering a wide range of European parties such as the Finish Greens right wing parties FN Lega Nord and Alleanza Nazionale and new parties in Italy The Netherlands and Sweden to name a few this book will be of particular interest to scholars and students concerned with party systems political parties and comparative politics     Two Futures Clare O'Neil,Tim Watts,2015-08-07 Beset by spin and the battle to win each news cycle contemporary politics is mired in short term thinking Too little time is given to considering creative ways in which we could tackle key issues a lagging education system the destruction of our coastlines Asia s economic ascendancy in the decades ahead In this agenda setting book new federal parliamentarians Clare O Neil and Tim Watts present a vision for six vital areas of public policy that will determine what life in Australia is like in 2040 They provide fresh insights into the role of government and individuals alike in shaping the future Optimistic and impassioned analytical and ideas driven Two Futures starts the conversation that at this critical juncture the nation needs to have Clare O Neil is the federal Labor member for the seat of Hotham in Melbourne s south east She was Australia s youngest female mayor and has been a management consultant with McKinsey Company She studied public policy as a Fulbright Scholar at Harvard s Kennedy School Tim Watts is the federal Labor member for the seat of Gellibrand in Melbourne s west Prior to entering parliament he was a senior manager at Telstra He has been a lawyer at Mallesons Stephen Jaques and studied at the London School of Economics A must read publication from two talented federal members concerned about a better and fairer future for Australia Steve Bracks A refreshing look at the big issues in the decades ahead Laura Tingle Political Editor Australian Financial Review An insightful contribution to the policy debate about the future of our country Catherine Livingstone President Business Council of Australia Provocative clear sighted and jargon free Age Sydney Morning Herald This book is a must read for thinking Australians ANZ LitLovers A welcome often ambitious and sobering book Daily Review     Crossroads of Rural Crime Alistair Harkness,Rob White,2021-05-19 Using the notion of crossroads to provide a unique lens through which to examine the realities of rural crime Crossroads of Rural Crime provides an understanding of the nature of rural life and ways in which transgression manifests itself in the context of a presumed rural urban divide     The Politics of Women's Interests Louise Chappell,Lisa Hill,2006-09-27 This new study reveals how institutional practices and discourses shape the way men and women are conceived of and how through this process gender stereotypes and expectations are created Informed by the latest research and trends these expert authors examine the way in which domestic and global institutions shape and reflect gender interests and the extent to which feminists can challenge gender norms through political institutions They examine regional national and international institutions including the EU ICC and UN and take a broad view of political institutions to include bureaucracy federalism legal structures parliaments voting and electoral institutions and media coverage of women s involvement in such institutions Drawing on experiences in the US UK Australia Canada and New Zealand this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of gender studies political science and comparative politics     Yes, Premier John

Wanna, Paul D. Williams, 2005 Since 2002 and for the first time since Federation all state and territory governments in Australia have been held by the Australian Labor Party Yes Premier features a chapter on each state or territory and in each case focuses on the leader who has led their party to power and so created this unprecedented and historical situation It examines each Labor premier and in Tasmania s case two and territory chief minister s individual rise to power and their political and personal style The chapters are written by experts in the politics and political culture of their home state Part personal and part political biographies the chapters also assess the instruments of leadership any modern state or territory leader must master in order to remain in the top job BOOK JACKET Women and Legislative Representation M.

Tremblay, 2016-04-30 This book seeks to identify the factors that influence the percentage of female parliamentarians paying particular attention to the electoral system The author seeks to understand the third wave of democratization of political systems through the particular perspective of female representation in parliaments Rural Governance Lynda

Cheshire, Vaughan Higgins, Geoffrey Lawrence, 2006-12-05 This book critically explores the social causes and consequences of emerging governance arrangements In particular the book moves beyond questions of empowerment in governance debates to consider how new kinds of power relations arise between the various actors involved Australia Marian Sawyer, Norman

Abjorensen, Philip Larkin, 2009 On many criteria Australia has been a pioneering democracy As one of the oldest continuing democracies however a health check has long been overdue Since 2002 the Democratic Audit of Australia a major democracy assessment project has been applying an internationally tested set of indicators to Australian political institutions and practices The indicators derive from four basic principles political equality popular control of government civil liberties and human rights and the quality of public deliberation Comparative data are taken from Australia s nine jurisdictions as well as from three comparator democracies Canada New Zealand and the United Kingdom to identify strengths weaknesses and opportunities for reform Some of the findings are disturbing For example Australia has fallen well behind in the regulation of private money in elections and in controlling the use of government or parliamentary resources for partisan benefit

Transparency and accountability have suffered from relatively weak FOI regimes and from executive dominance of parliaments For those studying democracy or wanting to reform Australian politics The State of Democracy provides a wealth of evidence in a well illustrated and highly accessible format Internationally it is an important contribution to the democracy assessment literature and pushes into new areas such as the intergovernmental decision making of federalism Julia

2010 Marian Simms, John Wanna, 2012-02-01 This book provides a comprehensive coverage of one of Australia s most historic elections which produced a hung parliament and a carefully crafted minority government that remains a heartbeat away from collapse as well as Australia s first elected woman Prime Minister and the Australian Greens first lower house Member of Parliament The volume considers the key contextual and possibly determining factors such as the role of leadership and ideology in the campaign the importance of state and regional factors was there evidence of the two or three speed economy at work and the role of policy areas and issues including the environment immigration religion gender and industrial relations Contributors utilise a wide range of sources and approaches to provide comprehensive insights into the campaign This volume notably includes the perspectives of the major political groupings the ALP the Coalition and the Greens and the data from the Australian Election Survey Finally we conclude with a detailed analysis of those 17 days that it took to construct a minority party government

Public Leadership Paul 't Hart, John Uhr, 2008-11-01 Leadership is routinely admired vilified ridiculed invoked trivialised explained and speculated about in the media and in everyday conversation Despite all this talk there is surprisingly little consensus about how to answer basic questions about the nature place role and impact of leadership in contemporary society This book brings together academics from a broad array of social science disciplines who are interested in contemporary understandings of leadership in the public domain Their work on political administrative and civil society leadership represents a stock take of what we need to know and offers original examples of what we do know about public leadership Although this volume connects scholars living in and mostly working on public leadership in Australia and New Zealand their contributions have a much broader scope and relevance

Double Disillusion Anika Gauja, Peter Chen, Jennifer Curtin, Juliet Pietsch, 2018-04-11 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the 2016 Australian federal election Won by the Liberal National Coalition by the slimmest of margins the result created a climate of political uncertainty that threatened the government's lower house majority While the campaign might have lacked the theatre of previous elections it provides significant insights into the contemporary political and policy challenges facing Australian democracy and society today In this the 16th edited collection of Australian election studies 41 contributors from a range of disciplines bring an unprecedented depth of expertise to the 2016 contest The book covers the context key battles and issues in the campaign and reports and analyses the results in detail It provides an evaluation of the role of political actors such as the parties independents the media interest groups and GetUp and examines election debate in the online space Experts from a range of policy fields provide an analysis of election issues ranging from the economy and industrial relations to social policy the environment and gender and sexuality Each of the chapters is written on the basis of in depth and original research providing new insights into this important political event

Representing Women in Parliament Marian Sawer, Manon Tremblay, Linda Trimble, 2006-09-27 The first book length treatment of the political representation of women in countries with parliamentary systems based on the Westminster model Written by a major international team of authors this new study features twelve chapters on both new and established parliaments including Australia Canada New Zealand and the United Kingdom It tests the latest theories about women's political representation within Westminster style assemblies and is organized into three key sections that examine the extent to which the descriptive representation of women in the old Westminster parliaments has progressed in recent years and the factors which have enhanced or impeded development explore the relationship between the numbers of women elected and the substantive representation of women or the extent that women act for women review the recent experiences of four new Westminster parliaments Northern Ireland Scotland Wales and Nunavut and evaluate the political opportunities for women provided by the creation of new institutions This new comparative study will be of great interest to students and researchers of legislative studies and of gender politics and gender studies

Blackburns Carolyn Rasmussen, 2019-03-05 When socialist barrister and aspiring member of parliament Maurice Blackburn met Doris Hordern ardent feminist and campaign secretary to Vida Goldstein neither had marriage in their imagined futures But they fell in love with each other as much as with their individual aspirations to change the world for the better Theirs would be an exacting partnership as they held one another to the highest ideals They worked as elected members of parliaments and community activists influencing conscription laws benefits for working men and women atomic bomb tests civil rights and Indigenous recognition Together they shook Australia
