Beyond Lines of Control Ravina Aggarwal, 2004-11-30 The Kashmir conflict the ongoing border dispute between India and Pakistan has sparked four wars and cost thousands of lives In this innovative ethnography Ravina Aggarwal moves beyond conventional understandings of the conflict which tend to emphasize geopolitical security concerns and religious essentialisms to consider how it is experienced by those living in the border zones along the Line of Control the 435 mile boundary separating India from Pakistan She focuses on Ladakh the largest region in northern India s State of Jammu and Kashmir Located high in the Himalayan and Korakoram ranges Ladakh borders Pakistan to the west and Tibet to the east Revealing how the shadow of war affects the lives of Buddhist and Muslim communities in Ladakh Beyond Lines of Control is an impassioned call for the inclusion of the region s cultural history and politics in discussions about the status of Kashmir Aggarwal brings the insights of performance studies and the growing field of the anthropology of international borders to bear on her extensive fieldwork in Ladakh She examines how social and religious boundaries are created on the Ladakhi frontier how they are influenced by directives of the nation state and how they are shaped into political struggles for regional control that are legitimized through discourses of religious purity patriotism and development She demonstrates in lively detail the ways that these struggles are enacted in particular cultural performances such as national holidays festivals rites of passage ceremonies films and archery games By placing cultural performances and political movements in Ladakh center stage Aggarwal rewrites the standard plot of nation and border along the Line of Control

Healing at the Periphery Laurent Pordié, Stephan Kloos, 2021-10-18 India has long occupied an important place in Tibetan medicine's history and development. However, Indian Himalayan practitioners of Tibetan medicine or amchi have largely remained overlooked at the Tibetan medical periphery despite playing a central social and medical role in their communities. Power and legitimacy, religion and economic development, biomedical encounters and Indian geopolitics all intersect in the work and identities of contemporary Himalayan amchi. This volume examines the crucial moment of crisis and transformation that occurred in the early 2000s to offer insights into the beginnings of Tibetan medicine's professionalization, industrialization and official recognition in India and elsewhere. Based on fine-grained ethnographic studies in Ladakh, Zangskar, Sikkim and the Darjeeling Hills, Healing at the Periphery asks how the dynamics of capitalism, social change and the encounter with biomedicine affect small communities on the fringes of modern India and conversely what local transformations of Tibetan medicine tell us about contemporary society and health care in the Himalayas and the Tibetan world. Contributors: Florian Besch, Calum Blaikie, Sienna R. Craig, Barbara Gerke, Isabelle Gu rin, Kim Gutsche, Pascale Hancart, Petit, Stephan Kloos, Fernanda Pirie, Laurent Pordi. The Mongolia-Tibet Interface, International Association for Tibetan Studies, Seminar, 2007. This volume focuses on the interface between Mongolian and Tibetan cultures to encourage the development of new forms of scholarship across geographical and disciplinary boundaries.

Fire and Ice: Soot, Solidarity, and Survival on the Roof of the World, Jonathan Mingle, 2015-03-24. A thousand years ago in a Himalayan valley the village of Kumik was founded. For generations Kumik villagers survived by learning to cultivate their mountain terrain drawing from the waters of the glacier and snows above the village. But now the glacier is almost gone and Kumik is dying. Why? As Fire and Ice reveals the culprit is black carbon, the most dangerous pollutant in the world and the least understood. Black carbon absorbs more heat per unit of mass in the atmosphere than greenhouse gases and contributes as much to melting the glaciers of the Himalaya as carbon dioxide. It's also a major component of the household air pollution that causes 4.3 million deaths each year from respiratory and cardiovascular illnesses and 3 million more from outdoor pollutants such as industrial exhaust. Black carbon threatens to overwhelm Kumik unless the village can change the way it cooks, heats, farms and lives. In Fire and Ice, Jonathan Mingle weaves a dramatic narrative of one village's inspiring efforts to adapt to a rapidly changing environment and a scientific detective tale about the impact of fire on every nation. Ranging from the Tibetan Plateau to New York and Washington D.C. from Delhi and Kathmandu and China to northern California, Fire and Ice is a heroic exploration of our race to change the fate of our planet.

Climate-Adaptive Design in High Mountain Villages, Carey Clouse, 2020-10-15. Drawing from the unique context and climate of the Himalaya, this book highlights several innovative design interventions shaped by a myriad of social, cultural, environmental and political factors that have been employed in villages to combat climate change. Climate Adaptive Design in High Mountain Villages focuses on Ladakh, an outpost on the front lines of climate change and the region's creative responses to the pressing issues of food security, water management, energy efficiency, design aid and material resources in the Anthropocene. These strategies from artificial glaciers to tree armor showcase the breadth of creative solutions already underway In doing so the research addresses the broader concept of climate adaptive design and how it informs the disciplines of architecture landscape architecture and urban planning An ideal read for academics researchers and students in these fields this book presents a focused investigation into climate adaptive strategies that could provide transferable solutions for the rest of the world Being a Buddhist Nun Kim Gutschow,2009-07-01 This book is the first ethnography of Tibetan Buddhist society from the perspective of its nuns Gutschow lived for over three years among them collecting their stories observing them and studying their lives This picture of the little known culture provides valuable insight into the relationship between women and religion in South Asia today Himalayan Research Bulletin ,1998 Indigeneity In India Bengt T.
