women still aren't fully accepted as equal citizens in America Tag Teaming the Press James E. Mueller, 2008-06-27 Tag Teaming the Press James Mueller's lively account of the evolution of the press relations of Bill and Hillary Clinton begins with the couple's earliest student political activism in the sixties and continues through Hillary's run for the White House in 2008. Based largely on interviews with the journalists who covered them, the book explains how the most powerful political couple in America learned to handle the media, an indispensable skill for the twenty-first century politician. Mueller shows that the Clintons honed that skill through years of interacting with journalists—as campaign workers, as candidates, and as candidates' spouses. He also makes clear that it is the latter category that makes the Clintons unique among American political couples. At various times in their more than 30 years in politics, Bill and Hillary have fulfilled a number of roles for each other in dealing with reporters, including lightning rod, bad cop, good cop, and schmoozer. Mueller examines each of these roles and discusses how the Clintons played them, sometimes winning, sometimes losing, but always well worth watching. Written in an engaging style but based on thorough research, Tag Teaming the Press is a valuable resource for students of media and politics and an informative read for anyone who cares about American democracy and the role the press plays in it Bill Clinton on Stump, State, and Stage Stephen A. Smith, 1994-01-01 Outstanding scholars of political communication examine President Clinton's campaign, his words, texts, and the dynamics of his ability to inspire the public as the man from Hope The Library Journal, 1993 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept-May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000-0035 called Junior libraries 1954-May 1961 Also issued separately Cooking with Southern Celebrities Travel South USA (Firm), 1992 The best cooking in America comes from family recipes handed down from generation to generation. Here is a superb collection of 100 of those treasures from Southern celebrities such as Burt Reynolds, Chris Evert, Jim Nabors, Walker Percy, B.B.
