Salvation To The Ends Of The Earth A Biblical Theology Of Mission:

Salvation to the Ends of the Earth Andreas J. Köstenberger, 2020-09-15 The saving mission of Jesus constitutes the foundation for Christian mission and the Christian gospel is its message This second edition of a classic NSBT volume emphasizes how the Bible presents a continuing narrative of God's mission providing a robust historical and chronological backbone to the unfolding of the early Christian mission

Salvation to the Ends of the Earth Andreas J. Köstenberger, Peter T. O'Brien, 2001-03-20 Few biblical topics are as important as mission Mission is linked inextricably to humanity's sinfulness and need for redemption and to God's provision of salvation in the person and work of Jesus Christ This good news of salvation must be made known The saving mission of Jesus constitutes the foundation for Christian mission and the Christian gospel is its message According to Andreas Köstenberger and Peter O'Brien this significant theme has rarely been given its due attention in biblical theology Motivated by their passion to see God's mission carried out in today's world they offer a comprehensive study of the theme of mission In Salvation to the Ends of the Earth they explore the entire sweep of biblical history including the Old Testament the second temple period each New Testament Gospel Paul and his writings and the General Epistles and Revelation Among other questions Köstenberger and O'Brien examine whether or not Old Testament Israel was called to mission whether second temple Judaism should be characterized as a missionary religion whether Jesus limited his earthly mission to Israel or also embarked on a Gentile mission and whether or not there is continuity between the missions of Israel and the missions of Jesus and the early church They write It is our sincere hope that our Christian mission which is first of all God's will be founded on a biblical theology that takes its cue from the scriptural revelation as a whole To that end they offer this New Studies in Biblical Theology volume as a service to the worldwide church Addressing key issues in biblical theology the works comprising New Studies in Biblical Theology are creative attempts to help Christians better understand their Bibles The NSBT series is edited by D. A. Carson aiming to simultaneously instruct and to edify to interact with current scholarship and to point the way ahead

Extending Mercy to the Gentiles John P. Harrigan, 2023-10-13 Paul's discipleship agenda was defined by his native Jewish apocalyptic worldview The novelties of his thought namely the death of Israel's Messiah the unique gift of God's Spirit and the intentional mission to the gentiles seem to be framed within the common Jewish eschatological parameters of the day of the Lord the judgment the resurrection of the dead and the messianic kingdom Moreover for Paul this eschatology was the primary driver of discipleship comforting in the midst of tribulation anchoring the gifts of the Spirit and informing divine mission Paul thus disciplined the gentiles into the hope of Israel

Leadership Mosaic Daniel Montgomery, Jared Kennedy, 2016-10-13 There's a leadership crisis in the church Every leadership model claims to have all the answers to the challenges of leadership Each perspective emphasizes certain qualities and we search desperately for answers in the absence of clear direction But there's no simple leadership formula that meets every need we have in life and ministry Challenging the conventional wisdom about what makes for a good leader Daniel Montgomery calls us to a countercultural perspective on leadership rooted in our Creator He presents a new framework for leadership not just a beckoning to further pragmatism relentless productivity or a reactionary cultural fad He helps us see leadership as a mosaic of five characteristics conviction creativity courage collaboration and contemplation reflective of the very image of the triune God Armed with this perspective we will be able to see strive after and celebrate the great and complex vision of leadership God has called us to for the flourishing of our homes churches and workplaces
