Serving Time Together:

Serving Time Too Rosalind Boone Williams, 2019-05-29 Serving Time Too A Memoir of My Son's Prison Years is the universally accessible story of a mother and son what she knew about him what she will never understand how she helped him and when she needed to let him go But Rosalind Williams memoir is unique because her unconditional love for Marell persisted after his conviction for murder During his sixteen years in prison and for two and a half years after his release every aspect of Rosalind's life was affected by her fidelity to him and by the failures of a penal system tinged with racial and class inequities Rosalind tells a personal story with enormous significance to society She is an unflinchingly fair sometimes self critical narrator who reflects upon the enticements of violence and crime especially for African American young men despite the values they are taught at home Her experiences demonstrate the damage that crime and punishment inflict upon those good people who stand by loved ones during and after incarceration This memoir will comfort anyone related to the 2.3 million people behind bars in the United States Others will hear a call to reform and more importantly they will feel compassion for the offender's family and the offender No other book in print takes Rosalind's perspective on the problems of crime and incarceration

Love in the Time of Incarceration Elizabeth Greenwood, 2021-07-13 This evocative and gripping investigative look into romantic relationships between incarcerated people and their spouses on the outside is impossible to put down The Globe and Mail Toronto What is it like to fall in love with someone in prison Over the course of five years Elizabeth Greenwood followed the ups and downs of five couples who met during incarceration In Love in the Time of Incarceration she pulls back the curtain on the lives of the husbands and wives supporting some of the 2.3 million people in prisons around the United States In the vein of Modern Love this book shines a light on how these relationships reflect the desire and delusion we all experience in our romantic pairings Love in the Time of Incarceration infiltrates spaces many of us have only heard whispers of from conjugal visits to prison weddings to relationships between the incarcerated themselves A tour de force of empathetic nonfiction storytelling Vanessa Grigoriadis author of Blurred Lines Love in the Time of Incarceration changes the way you look at the American prison system and perhaps relationships in general Previously published as Love Lockdown

The Impact of Short-Term Missions on Long-Term Missional Development Brian Bain, 2024-04-25 Lead short term mission trips STMs that catalyze trip participants into mission oriented disciple makers when they return home STMs can be mutually beneficial service opportunities that have positive long term impact on both trip participants and national hosts While this is possible it is not always the outcome of many STMs STMs often prioritize the short term experience of trip participants and miss the longer term discipleship opportunity they offer STMs can be a context of significant mutually beneficial work between both trip participants and national hosts This work can serve as a catalyst for meaningful long term growth for both parties but an appropriate philosophy and trip structure is needed This book studies and reveals best practices for both
