Peace Research Abstracts Journal ,2003      Race for Justice Richard Reddie,2022-02-18 In 2020 Britain marks the 25th anniversary of Racial Justice Sunday This movement was established at a time when the UK was having to face up to both overt and subversive forms of racism characterised by the tragic killing of black teenager Stephen Lawrence in Eltham in 1993 This murder and other racist attacks gave mainstream visibility to the struggle of many Black Asian and Minority Ethnic people to obtain equality and justice Race for Justice brings together a collection of voices on this vital issue from across the Christian denominations Each contributor to this volume serves as their particular denomination s racial justice equalities diversity or inclusion officers Equipped with frontline experience in the fight against racism they each give their perspective on the successes and failures of race relations over the last quarter of a century as well as addressing contemporary challenges and their hopes for the future

Peace, Decolonization, and the Practice of Solidarity Rob Skinner,2023-10-05 This book shows that the connected histories of decolonization and globalization concern the practices of individuals and movements as much as they do the ideologies of states institutions and organizations Viewing decolonization through non state activist practices and setting anti colonial solidarity in the context of the methods of contemporary global peace movements it argues that seemingly marginal histories can illuminate aspects of the end of empire that are not readily apparent in studies centred on state diplomacy and nationalist movements Focusing on a group of British and American activists including the pacifist campaigner A J Muste the anti apartheid priest Michael Scott and the civil rights organiser Bayard Rustin Skinner explores connected global histories of anti nuclear peace campaigns anti colonialism and decolonization to illuminate new perspectives on the end of empire and the Cold War Studying a failed attempt to infiltrate the French atom bomb test site in southern Algeria and a mass march across the border between Tanganyika and Northern Rhodesia that never took place these stories provide valuable insights into the interactions between local and global scales of historical experience In presenting these histories this book demonstrates how global and transnational histories can challenge and disrupt rather than reinforce hierarchies of power and privileges In doing so it also contributes to ongoing debates surrounding the nature of decolonization as a historical phenomenon by focusing on the practices of activism that shaped and were shaped by the political and intellectual structures of decolonization

The Transforming Fire of Divine

Love John H. Armstrong, 2025-03-01 Most Bible readers know God is love 1 John 4 8 16 And most have heard the words of John 3 16 God so loved the world perhaps the best known verse in the entire Bible But few readers realize that these are perhaps the most daring verses in all the Scripture Why They tell us who God is and why we can trust him Yet very few Christians realize how much of what they believe about the nature of God is rooted in ideas foreign to divine love How did this happen What can be done to change how we can relate to the God who is perfect and inexhaustible love John Armstrong shares a deeply personal story of his long slow journey to know and experience God as a compassionate and loving Father As a pastor trained in evangelical theology he came to know and experience the teaching of the whole church about God thus the story he tells will inform how you can know the God who is amazing love This readable primer will help you develop a doctrine that can free you from guilt fear and many misconceptions we have about God You will see that what you believe about God will truly affect everything else you believe
