Setting Of Sermon On The Mount:

The Setting of the Sermon on the Mount Davies, Glyn, W. D. Davies, The Sermon on the Mount in the Light of the Temple Professor John W Welch, 2013-05-28 No religious text has influenced the world more than has the New Testament's Sermon on the Mount and yet this crucial text still begs to be more clearly understood Why was it written What unifying theme or purpose holds it all together Should it be called a sermon Or is it some other kind of composition How would its earliest listeners have heard its encoded allusions and systematic program This book offers new insights into the Sermon on the Mount by seeing it in the shadow of the all pervasive Temple in Jerusalem which dominated the religious landscape of the world of Jesus and his earliest disciples Analyzing Matthew 5-7 in light of biblical and Jewish backgrounds ritual studies and oral performances in early Christian worship this reading coherently integrates every line in the Sermon It positions the Sermon as the premier Christian mystery The Content and the Setting of the Gospel Tradition Mark Harding, Alanna Nobbs, 2010-10-22 Editors Mark Harding and Alanna Nobbs have here brought together the internationally recognized scholarly excellence of Macquarie University faculty and associates to provide a major contribution to the study of the content and environment of the New Testament Gospels Few books in current New Testament scholarship seriously tackle its social setting and textual tradition beyond a chapter or two The Content and Setting of the Gospel Tradition integrates the texts with the literary social and historical context in which they were written The Setting of the Sermon of the Mount William David Davies, 1966 The People's New Testament Commentary M. Eugene Boring, Fred B. Craddock, 2010-01-01 M Eugene Boring and Fred B Craddock present this new one volume commentary on the New Testament Writing from the fundamental conviction that the New Testament is the people's book Boring and Craddock examine the theological themes and messages of Scripture that speak to the life of discipleship Their work clarifies matters of history culture geography literature and translation enabling people to listen more carefully to the text This unique commentary is the perfect resource for clergy and church school teachers who seek a reference tool midway between a study Bible and a multivolume commentary on the Bible The Sermon on the Mount and Its Jewish Setting Hans-Jürgen Becker, Serge Ruzer, 2005 The Sermon on the Mount Frank J. Matera, 2013 Taking his cue from Saint Augustine who once described the Sermon on the Mount as the perfect measure of the Christian life Frank Matera provides an exposition of the sermon that draws out its implications for daily life Written for readers who want to know how they ought to live out their discipleship today this volume shows how the sermon summons all believers to single minded devotion and wholehearted service to God This lively and engaging commentary is an ideal resource for adult education and Bible study groups as well as for individuals looking to deepen their discipleship The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church, Volume 1 Hughes Oliphant Old, 1998 In this volume Hughes Oliphant Old begins his survey of the history of preaching by discussing the roots of the Christian ministry of the Word in the worship of Israel He then examines the preaching of Christ the Apostles and early church leaders 1

Harrington, SJ, 2023-06-13 Matthew wrote his Gospel from his perspective as a Jew It is with sensitivity to this perspective that Father Harrington undertakes this commentary on the Gospel of Matthew After an introduction he provides a literal translation of each section in Matthew's Gospel and explains the textual problems philological difficulties and other matters in the notes He then presents a literary analysis of each text content form use of sources structure examines the text against its Jewish background situates it in the context of Matthew's debate with other first century Jews and reflects on its significance for Christian theology and Christian Jewish relations Bibliographies direct the reader to other important modern studies

Matthew, Paul, and the Anthropology of Law David A. Kaden, 2016-09-30 Drawing from Michel Foucault's understanding of power David A Kaden explores how relations of power are instrumental in forming law as an object of discourse in the Gospel of Matthew and in the Letters of Paul This is a comparative project in that the author examines the role that power relations play in generating discussions of law in the first century context and in several ethnographies from the field of the anthropology of law from Indonesia Mexico the Philippines and colonial era Hawaii Discussions of law proliferate in situations where the relations of power within social groups come into contact with social forces outside the group David A Kaden's interdisciplinary approach reframes how law is studied in Christian Origins scholarship especially Pauline and Matthean scholarship by focusing on what makes discourses on law possible For this he relies heavily on cross cultural ethnographic materials from legal anthropology

Jesus on the Mountain: A Study in Matthew Terence Donaldson, 1987-03-01 Donaldson's book on Jesus on the Mountain assesses the use of the mountain motif in the Gospel of Matthew and argues for its significance in a myriad of ways both as a literary device and a theological symbol He argues that the order of the book may even have been subverted in order that the literary device of the book ending of the mount of temptation and commission may be prominent and bear impact Donaldson's argument is a fascinating and insightful comment on the narrative of Matthew and the use of literary device to complement theological symbol by the author

The Horizontal Line Synopsis of the Gospels Reuben J. Swanson, 1984 A Mountain of Evidence Pastor Randy French, 2020-09-01 Wouldn't you like to know today the standard by which you will be judged in eternity tomorrow That is exactly what Jesus does in the greatest sermon ever told The Sermon on the Mount Jesus said For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven Mt 5 20 This opener provides the basis for His sermon which spans three chapters in Matthew In it Jesus provides for us a comparison between two kingdoms the kingdom of heaven and the kingdom of self In His sermon Jesus gives us all insight into what a true Christian looks like acts like sounds like and even thinks like The Pharisees were known for their strict adherence to the law and their traditions Jesus makes it clear to them and to us in this sermon that adherence to the law will not count for eternity Only by clothing oneself in Christ's righteousness can one hope for eternal life The world and even the Church at times attempts to redefine a Christian in a way that cheapens Christianity to make it more palatable and pleasing to the unbeliever Pastor and Martyr Dietrich Bonhoeffer called this cheap grace But the true Christian will not be measured by the world's or even the church's standards Each and every person will stand before a righteous Judge and be made to give an account for his or her life according to God's Word This book is a line by line explanation of Christ's expectations for every person who professes to be saved by the blood of Jesus Christ In essence it is a manual to help us all to understand what it means to be a Christian

The Gospel of Matthew John Nolland, 2005-11-01 Having devoted the past ten years of his life to research for this major new work John Nolland gives us a commentary on the Gospel of Matthew that engages with a notable range of Matthean scholarship and offers fresh interpretations of the dominant Gospel in the history of the church Without neglecting the Gospel's sources or historical background Nolland places his central focus on the content and method of Matthew's story His work explores Matthew's narrative technique and the inner logic of the unfolding text giving full weight to the Jewish character of the book and its differences from Mark's presentation of parallel material While finding it unlikely that the apostle Matthew himself composed the book Nolland does argue that Matthew's Gospel reflects the historical ministry of Jesus with considerable accuracy and he brings to the table new evidence for an early date of composition Including accurate translations based on the latest Greek text detailed verse by verse comments thorough bibliographies for each section and an array of insightful critical approaches Nolland's Gospel of Matthew will stimulate students preachers and scholars seeking to understand more fully Matthew's presentation of the gospel narrative
