Robertson, 2005-11-11 The first volume in this comprehensive history of Virginia during the Civil War examines the early phases of secession struggle and conflict Several Southern states preceded Virginia in seceding from the Union but until Virginia joined them in April 1861 the Confederacy lacked cohesion Richmond was immediately named the capital of the fledgling nation By the end of spring Virginia had become the primary political and military theater of the Civil War The first in a series of five volumes examining Virginia's years as a Confederate state Virginia at War 1861 vividly portrays the process of secession the early phases of conflict and the struggles of ordinary Virginians to weather the brutal storms of war Essays by eight noted Civil War scholars provide a comprehensive view of Virginians' experiences during the first year of the War Between the States In addition to recounting the military events taking place in Virginia in 1861 this collection examines a civilian population braced for war but divided on crucial questions an economy pressed to cope with the demands of combat and a culture that strained to reconcile its proud heritage with its uncertain future In exacting detail Virginia at War 1861 examines the earliest challenges of the Civil War the changes war wrought and the ways in which Virginians withstood and adapted to this profound irrevocable upheaval      The Huguenot-Anglican Refuge in Virginia , Lonnie H. Lee, 2023-06-21 The Huguenot Anglican Refuge in Virginia is the history of a Huguenot emigrant community established in eight counties along the Rappahannock River of Virginia in 1687 with the arrival of an Anglican ordained Huguenot minister from Cozes France named John Bertrand This Huguenot community effectively hidden to researchers for more than 300 years comes to life through the examination of county court records cross referenced with French Protestant records in England and France The 261 households and fifty three indentured servants documented in this study including a significant group from Bertrand's hometown of Cozes comprise a large Huguenot migration to English America and the only one to fully embrace Anglicanism from its inception In July 1687 a French exile named Durand de Dauphin published a tract at The Hague outlining the pattern and geography of this migration The tract included a short list of inducements Virginia officials were offering to attract Huguenot settlers to Rappahannock County These included access to French preaching by a Huguenot minister who would also serve an established Anglican parish and the availability of inexpensive land John Bertrand was the first of five French exile ministers performing this dual track ministry in the Rappahannock region between 1687 and 1767      Diary of a Southern Refugee During the War Judith Brockenbrough McGuire, 2013-12-19 Newly annotated by a noted historian transforming an important book into a vital foundational document on the inner life of the doomed Confederacy William C Davis author of Lincoln's Men How President
