Settling Down and Settling Up Andrea Katherine Medovarski, 2019-04-08 Comparing second generation children of immigrants in black Canadian and black British women's writing Settling Down and Settling Up extends discourses of diaspora and postcolonialism by expanding recent theory on movement and border crossing While these concepts have recently gained theoretical currency this book argues that they are not always adequate frameworks through which to understand second generation children who wish to reside in place in the nations of their birth Considering migration and settlement as complex interrelated processes that inform each other across multiple generations and geographies Andrea Katherine Medovarski challenges the gendered constructions of nationhood and diaspora with a particular focus on Canadian and British black women writers including Dionne Brand Esi Edugyan and Zadie Smith Re evaluating gender and spatial relations Settling Down and Settling Up argues that local experiences often conceptualized through the language of the feminine and the domestic in black women's writings are no less important than travel and border crossings Settling

Modern Romance Aziz Ansari, Eric Klinenberg, 2016-06-14 The 1 New York Times Bestseller An engaging look at the often head scratching frequently infuriating mating behaviors that shape our love lives Refinery 29 A hilarious thoughtful and in depth exploration of the pleasures and perils of modern romance from Aziz Ansari the star of Master of None and one of this generation's sharpest comedic voices At some point every one of us embarks on a journey to find love We meet people date get into and out of relationships all with the hope of finding someone with whom we share a deep connection This seems standard now but it's wildly different from what people did even just decades ago Single people today have more romantic options than at any point in human history With technology our abilities to connect with and sort through these options are staggering So why are so many people frustrated Some of our problems are unique to our time Why did this guy just text me an emoji of a pizza Should I go out with this girl even though she listed Combos as one of her favorite snack foods Combos My girlfriend just got a message from some dude named Nathan Who's Nathan Did he just send her a photo of his penis Should I check just to be sure But the transformation of our romantic lives can't be explained by technology alone In a short period of time the whole culture of finding love has changed dramatically A few decades ago people would find a decent person who lived in their neighborhood Their families would meet and after deciding neither party seemed like a murderer they would get married and soon have a kid all by the time they were twenty four Today people marry later than ever and spend years of their lives on a quest to find the perfect person a soul mate For years Aziz Ansari has been aiming his comic insight at modern romance but for Modern Romance the book he decided he needed to take things to another level He teamed up with NYU sociologist Eric Klinenberg and designed a massive research project including hundreds of interviews and focus groups conducted everywhere from Tokyo to Buenos Aires to Wichita They analyzed behavioral data and surveys and created their own online research forum on Reddit which drew thousands of messages They enlisted the world's leading social scientists including Andrew Cherlin Eli Finkel Helen Fisher Sheena Iyengar Barry Schwartz Sherry Turkle and Robb Willer The result is unlike any social science or humor book we've seen before In Modern Romance Ansari combines his irreverent humor with cutting edge social science to give us an unforgettable tour of our new romantic world Social Attitudes in Contemporary China Chen Yu, Fang Wei, Liqing Li, Paul Morrissey, Nie Chen, 2016-02-12 Unlike many studies of social attitudes which are based on large scale quantitative surveys or which focus on the attitude of elites this book considers the views of ordinary people and is based on in depth qualitative interviews This approach results in rich nuanced data and is especially helpful for highlighting ambivalent attitudes where respondents may hold positive and negative views on a particular topic views which are liable to change The book examines attitudes on a range of subjects of current importance including views on nationalism and internationalism housing preferences and educational ambitions Throughout the book explores how far attitudes are influenced by traditional Chinese values or by the neo liberal outlook fostered by recent reforms and concludes that materialism and individualism have increased Low Life - Irreverent Reflections
