Sacred Scents in Early Christianity and Islam Mary Thurlkill, 2016-07-26 Medieval scholars and cultural historians have recently turned their attention to the question of smells and what olfactory sensations reveal about society in general and holiness in particular Sacred Scents in Early Christianity and Islam contributes to that conversation explaining how early Christians and Muslims linked the sweet smell of sanctity with ideals of the body and sexuality created boundaries and sacred space and imagined their emerging communal identity Most importantly scent itself transgressive and difficult to control signaled transition and transformation between categories of meaning Christian and Islamic authors distinguished their own fragrant ethical and theological ideals against the stench of oppositional heresy and moral depravity Orthodox Christians ridiculed their stinking Arian neighbors and Muslims denounced the reeking corruption of Umayyad and Abbasid decadence Through the mouths of saints and prophets patriarchal authors labeled perfumed women as existential threats to vulnerable men and consigned them to enclosed private space for their protection as well as society's At the same time theologians praised both men and women who purified and transformed their bodies into aromatic offerings to God Both Christian and Muslim pilgrims venerated sainted men and women with perfumed offerings at tombstones indeed Christians and Muslims often worshipped together honoring common heroes such as Abraham Moses and Jonah Sacred Scents begins by surveying aroma's quotidian functions in Roman and pre Islamic cultural milieus within homes temples poetry kitchens and medicines Existing scholarship tends to frame scent as something available only to the wealthy or elite however perfumes spices and incense wafted through the lives of most early Christians and Muslims It ends by examining both traditions views of Paradise identified as the archetypal Garden and source of all perfumes and sweet smells Both Christian and Islamic texts explain Adam and Eve's profound grief at losing access to these heavenly aromas and celebrate God's mercy in allowing earthly remembrances Sacred scent thus prompts humanity's grief for what was lost and the yearning for paradisiacal transformation still to come Pacifist Invasions Yasser Elhariry, 2017 Pacifist Invasions is about what happens to the contemporary French lyric in the translingual Arabic context Drawing on lyric theory comparative poetics and linguistics it reveals three generic modes of translating Arabic poetics into French in works by Habib Tengour Algeria Edmond Jab's Egypt Salah St ti Lebanon Abdelwahab Meddeb Tunisia and Ryoko Sekiguchi Japan Asian Classics on the Victorian Bookshelf Alexander Bubb, 2023 The interest among Victorian readers in classical literature from Asia has been greatly underestimated and Asian Classics on the Victorian Bookshelf explains the process whereby popular translations were written published distributed to bookshops and libraries and ultimately consumed by readers     Reconfiguring and Appropriating Arabic, Persian, and Indic Literary Traditions in Seventeenth- and Eighteenth-Century Britain Claire Gallien,2025-03-20 Reconfiguring and Appropriating Arabic Persian and Indic Literary Traditions in Seventeenth and Eighteenth Century Britain investigates the reconfigurations of literary traditions coming from Islamicate regions of the world by British orientalists Claire Gallien explores the logics of orientalist selection reconfiguration and appropriation of Islamicate literary canons and focuses on the period going from the endowment of the first chairs in Arabic at Cambridge and Oxford in 1632 and 1636 respectively to the establishment of the Asiatic Society in Calcutta in 1784 presided by Sir William Jones until 1794 Contrary to the Saidian premise of an invention of the East by the West Gallien argues that orientalists did not invent a canon but they transferred and translated texts and authors which who were already recognised as canonical across Islamicate literary cultures Given the above the question that preoccupies this book is what happens to the canon when partially re created and re purposed for European readers Organised in three main parts this book analyses first the constitution of collections of Arabic Persian and Indic manuscripts and their cataloguing in England in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries The second part investigates the variety of linguistic and literary partitioning and assemblage proposed by orientalists and discusses how their classical literary formation underpinned theories and practices of imitation translation and writing The third part examines the editing and translating of Arabic Persian and Indic literatures in seventeenth and eighteenth century England as well as in British colonial India and in particular the function of specimens and anthologies in the constitution of a corpus of Eastern literatures in English     Numberpedia Herb W. When the Grey Beetles Took Over Baghdad Mona Yahia, 2011-10-10 In Baghdad Lina is trying to lead a normal life but politics keep intruding Violent government coups are almost annual events and it s difficult for a child to understand what s going on or who to believe The need for secrecy means Lina cannot tell her best friend that they are just waiting for the right moment to flee It is the 1960s and Lina is part of the dwindling Jewish community Mona Yahia was born in Baghdad in 1954 and escaped with her family to Israel in 1970 In 1985 she moved to Germany to study fine arts and has remained there ever since Winner of the Jewish Quarterly Wingate Prize for Fiction 2001 Yahia rolls Baghdad around her tongue savouring its suks smells and sweetmeats reading her makes one hungry This is a truly exotic novel but it s also a coming of age work in which the almost imperceptible transformation from childhood to adolescence is saltily observed and never sentimentalised Yahia s prose courses with insight and wit Her deftness of touch means that despite its subject matter this novel never becomes a bleak tale of religious persecution but remains a fresh story about adolescent experience in adversity with parallels in the most unlikely places Anne Karpf The Guardian The novel powerfully conveys the author s outrage as well as her nostalgia for her native land The Times Yahia s writing evokes both the sensuality of domestic intimacy alongside the horror of public hangings When the Grey Beetles Took Over Baghdad is most politically sophisticated and also most poignant when it explores questions of language and identity Alev Adil Times Literary Supplement The Hanged Poems Charles F. Horne, Arabic Materials in English Translation Margaret Anderson, 1980 This bibliography of over 1600 items represents for the most part English language translations of original Arabic works A few of the translations listed here most notably of those of writings by Hippocrates Aristotle and Galen are not originally Arabic but are translations made of Arabic editions The aim of the compilation is two fold first to provide both students and the general public with an interest in the Arab world but with little or no facility in the Arabic language as full a listing of translated Arabic materials as possible and also to provide for those doing research in such fields as history and history of science political science comparative religion comparative literature and law and touching on the Arab world only occasionally with a partial substitute for the original materials whose language they have had no previous need to master
