Compiled in the fifteenth century Mind Training The Great Collection is the earliest anthology of a special genre of Tibetan literature known as mind training or lojong in Tibetan. The principal focus of these texts is the systematic cultivation of such altruistic thoughts and emotions as compassion, love, forbearance and perseverance. The mind training teachings are highly revered by the Tibetan people for their pragmatism and down to earth advice on coping with the various challenges and hardships that unavoidably characterize everyday human existence. The volume contains forty four individual texts including the most important works of the mind training cycle such as Serlingpa's well known Leveling Out All Preconceptions, Atisha's Bodhisattva's Jewel Garland, Langri Thangpa's Eight Verses on Training the Mind and Chekawa's Seven Point Mind Training together with the earliest commentaries on these seminal texts. An accurate and lyrical translation of these texts, many of which are in metered verse, marks an important contribution to the world's literary heritage, enriching its spiritual resources.

Dzongka-ba's The Essence of Eloquence is still considered so important to Tibetan Buddhists that the Dalai Lama keeps a copy with him wherever he goes. This book examines many fascinating points raised in six centuries of Tibetan and Mongolian commentary concerning the first two sections of this text the Prologue and the section on the Mind Only School By providing vivid detail Jeffrey Hopkins reveals the liveliness of Tibetan scholastic controversies showing the dynamism of thoughtful commentary and stimulating the reader's metaphysical imagination In the process of examining 170 issues this volume treats many engaging points on Great Vehicle presentations of the three natures and the three non natures including how to apply these to all phenomena the selflessness of persons and the emptiness of emptiness It concludes with a delineation of the approaches through which the Mind Only School interprets scriptures This stand alone book is the final volume of a trilogy on Mind Only that Hopkins composed over a period of twenty two years His heavily annotated translation of the first two sections of Dzong ka ba's text is contained in the first volume Emptiness in the Mind Only School of Buddhism along with a historical and doctrinal introduction a detailed synopsis of the text and a critical edition The second volume Reflections on Reality The Three Natures and Non Natures in the Mind Only School provides historical and social context a basic presentation of the three natures the two types of emptiness in the Mind Only School and the contrasting views of Dol po ba Shay rap gyel tsen of the Jo nang ba order of Tibetan Buddhism

The Two Truths in Indian Buddhism Sonam Thakchoe, 2023-04-18 An insightful and illuminating survey of key insights into one of the most foundational and profound topics in Buddhist thought In this clear and exemplary approach to one of the core philosophical subjects of the Buddhist tradition Sonam Thakchoe guides readers through the range of Indian Buddhist philosophical schools and how each approaches the two truths ultimate truth and conventional truth In this presentation of philosophical systems the detailed argumentations and analyses of each school's approach to the two truths are presented to weave together the unique contributions each school brings to supporting and strengthening a Buddhist practitioner's understanding of reality The insights of the great scholars of Indian Buddhist history such as Vasubandhu Bhavaviveka Kamalashila Dharmakirti Nagarjuna and Chandrakirti are illuminated in this volume with profound implications for the practice and views of modern practitioners and scholars The Vaibhashika Sautrantika Yogachara and Madhyamaka schools provide a framework for a continuum of philosophical debate that is far more interrelated and internally complex than one may presume Yet we see how the schools build upon the findings of one another leading from a belief in the realism of external phenomena to the relinquishment of any commitment to realism of either external or internal realities This fascinating movement through philosophical approaches leads us to see how the conventional and ultimate dependent arising and emptiness are twin aspects of a single reality

The Essence of Other-Emptiness Taranatha, 2007-02-09 Jeffrey Hopkins continues his groundbreaking exploration of the Jo nang ba sect of Tibetan Buddhism with this revelatory translation of one of the seminal texts from that tradition Whereas Dol po ba's massive Mountain Doctrine authenticates the doctrine of other emptiness through extensive scriptural citations and elaborate philosophical arguments Taranatha's more concise work translated here situates the doctrine of other emptiness within the context of schools of tenets primarily the famed four schools of Tibetan

Buddhism through comparing the various schools opinions on the status of the noumenon and phenomena Also included is a supplementary text by Taranatha which presents the opinions of a prominent fifteenth century Sakya scholar Shakya Chok den and contrasts them with those of the leading Jo nang ba scholar Dol bo ba

Bhartrhari, Philosopher and Grammarian Saroja Bhate, Johannes Bronkhorst, 1994-01-01 Bhartrhari lived in the tenth century c e Being both a grammarian and philosopher his influence on subsequent grammatical and philosophical thought in India has been enormous in spite of this modern scholarship has not yet given him the attention he deserves no doubt because his extant writings are difficult and were not until recently available in satisfactory editions Interest among scholars for Bhartrhari is now however growing This is the reason why an international conference on Bhartrhari was organized in January 1992 in Pune under the joint auspices of the University of Poona and the University of Lausanne Switzerland The present volume contains some of the papers read at this conference as well as an up to date bibliography on Bhartrhari

The Refutation of the Self in Indian Buddhism James Duerlinger, 2013 Since the Buddha did not fully explain the theory of persons that underlies his teaching in later centuries a number of different interpretations were developed This book presents the interpretation by the celebrated Indian Buddhist philosopher Candrakirti ca 570-650 C E Candrakirti's fullest statement of the theory is included in his Autocommentary on the Introduction to the Middle Way Madhyamakavatīrabhasya which is along with his Introduction to the Middle Way Madhyamakavatīra among the central treatises that present the Prasangika account of the Madhyamaka Middle Way philosophy In this book Candrakirti's most complete statement of his theory of persons is translated and provided with an introduction and commentary that present a careful philosophical analysis of Candrakirti's account of the selflessness of persons This analysis is both philologically precise and analytically sophisticated The book is of interest to scholars of Buddhism generally and especially to scholars of Indian Buddhist philosophy

Indian Buddhist Philosophy Amber Carpenter, 2014-09-03 Organised in broadly chronological terms this book presents the philosophical arguments of the great Indian Buddhist philosophers of the fifth century BCE to the eighth century CE Each chapter examines their core ethical metaphysical and epistemological views as well as the distinctive area of Buddhist ethics that we call today moral psychology Throughout this book follows three key themes that both tie the tradition together and are the focus for most critical dialogue the idea of anatman or no self the appearance reality distinction and the moral aim or ideal Indian Buddhist philosophy is shown to be a remarkably rich tradition that deserves much wider engagement from European philosophy Carpenter shows that while we should recognise the differences and distances between Indian and European philosophy its driving questions and key conceptions we must resist the temptation to find in Indian Buddhist philosophy some Other something foreign self contained and quite detached from anything familiar Indian Buddhism is shown to be a way of looking at the world that shares many of the features of European philosophy and considers themes central to philosophy understood in the European tradition Kadam: Stages of the

An Introduction to Buddhism Peter Harvey, 2013 Extensively revised and updated this book provides a comprehensive overview of the development of Buddhism in Asia and the West Buddhism, Knowledge and Liberation David Burton, 2017-03-02 Buddhism is essentially a teaching about liberation from suffering ignorance selfishness and continued rebirth Knowledge of the way things really are is thought by many Buddhists to be vital in bringing about this emancipation This book is a philosophical study of the notion of liberating knowledge as it occurs in a range of Buddhist sources Buddhism

Knowledge and Liberation assesses the common Buddhist idea that knowledge of the three characteristics of existence impermanence not self and suffering is the key to liberation It argues that this claim must be seen in the context of the Buddhist path and training as a whole Detailed attention is also given to anti realist sceptical and mystical strands within the Buddhist tradition all of which make distinctive claims about liberating knowledge and the nature of reality David Burton seeks to uncover various problematic assumptions which underpin the Buddhist worldview Sensitive to the wide diversity of philosophical perspectives and interpretations that Buddhism has engendered this book makes a serious contribution to critical and philosophically aware engagement with Buddhist thought Written in an accessible style it will be of value to those interested in Buddhist Studies and broader issues in comparative philosophy and religion

Between Certainty and Finitude Aucke Forsten, 2006 This book confronts two ways of approaching an Indo Buddhist text with one another The first is the historico philological method which takes the Cartesian ideal of certainty as its starting point The second approach follows the lead of the philosophy of Hans Georg Gadamer This approach assumes that all human understanding is finite In this light it raises questions such as what are the preliminary assumptions with which a buddhologist addresses a buddhist text In analogy with these two ways of looking at a text the book is divided into two parts Part One is a historico philological study of the Sanskrit compound sva citta dr sya matra as it is represented in the second chapter of the Indo Buddhist text Lankavatara sutra fifth century Part Two then examines the unquestioned acceptances of this buddhological research from a philosophical point of view The book opens up an entirely new perspective on methodological problems concerning any study of an alien culture
