The Era of the Martyrs Aaltje Hidding, 2020-08-24 One of the most traumatic experiences of Late Antique Christians was the Great Persecution begun by Emperor Diocletian and his Tetrarchic colleagues in 303 CE Here Aaltje Hidding unites research of traditional memory studies with work done by cognitive scientists to examine how they remembered the Persecution The resulting methodological framework the cognitive ecology systemically studies all what can be covered by this term social surroundings cognitive artefacts and the physical environment and bridges the gap between individual and collective memory The author analyses the remembrance of the Persecution in three different regions along the Nile river In Oxyrhynchus the thousands of papyrus fragments found at the city s rubbish dump give a vivid image of the martyrs in the daily lives of the Oxyrhynchites In Antinoopolis known for the cult of the physician saint Colluthus she zooms in on the rituals and practices at a martyr s sanctuary Finally in Dandara the rich hagiographical dossier of the anchorite Paphnutius shows how old memories of the Persecution became mixed with new monastic experiences The Bohairic and Greek Passion of Paphnutius appear in their first complete English translations

Sacred and Secular Martyrdom in Britain and Ireland since 1914 John Wolffe, 2019-11-28 During and immediately after the First World War there was a merging of Christian and nationalist traditions of martyrdom expressed in the design of war cemeteries and war memorials and the state funeral of the Unknown Warrior in 1920 John Wolffe explores the subsequent development of these traditions of sacred and secular martyrdom analysing the ways in which they operated sometimes in parallel sometimes merged together and sometimes in conflict with each other Particular topics explored include the Protestant commemoration of Marian and missionary martyrs and the Roman Catholic campaign for the canonization of the saints and martyrs of England Secular martyrdom is discussed in relation to military conflicts especially the Second World War and the Falklands In Ireland there was a particularly persistent merging of sacred and secular martyrdom in the wake of the Easter Rising of 1916 although by the time of the Northern Ireland Troubles in the later twentieth century these traditions diverged In covering these themes the book also offers historical and comparative context for understanding present day acts of martyrdom in the form of suicide attacks

The Wisdom of the Saints Jill Haak Adels, 1989 Covering over two thousand years of Church history this unique anthology presents hundreds of aphoristic sayings from the writings and recorded works of both famous and obscure saints Ranging from the polished literary statements of St Francis de Sales patron saint of journalists to the cry of the martyr on the scaffold these quotations treat a wide variety of themes such as joy death faith hope folly and much more The volume includes diary notations lists of personal resolutions naive remarks of saintly children who have foreseen their own destiny and the half legendary utterances of early miracle working saints of Ireland and the misty northern forests It offers the wisdom of European African and Japanese saints as well as an appendix of biographical sketches Despite the diversity of the individuals represented hermits and Popes the urbane and the uncouth the sensible and the passionately foolish this book uncovers a degree of harmony of thought among all of the saints included here By bringing the saints to life this collection reminds us that they were real people not a group of museum figures carved in marble with a range of temperaments and personalities

The Oxford History of British and Irish Catholicism, Volume I James Edward Kelly,John McCafferty,2023 The first volume of The Oxford History of British Irish Catholicism explores the period 1530 1640 from Henry VIII s break with Rome to the outbreak of the civil wars in Britain and Ireland It analyses the efforts to create Catholic communities after the officially implemented change in religion as well as the start of initiatives that would set the course of British and Irish Catholicism including the beginning of the missionary enterprise and the formation of a network of exile religious institutions such as colleges and convents This work explores every aspect of life for Catholics in both islands as they came to grips with the constant changes in religious policies that characterised this 110 year period Accordingly there are chapters on music on literature in the vernaculars on violence and martyrdom and on the specifics of the female experience Anxiety and the challenges of living in religiously mixed societies gave rise to new forms of creativity in religious life which made the Catholic experience much more than either plain continuity or endless endurance Antipopery or the extent to which Catholics became a symbolic antitype for Protestants became in many respects a kind of philosophy about which political life in England Scotland and colonised Ireland began to revolve At the same time the legal frameworks across both Britain and Ireland which sought to restrict fine or exclude Catholics from public life are given close attention throughout as they were the daily exigencies which shaped identity just as much as devotions liturgy and directives emanating from the Catholic Reformation then ongoing in continental Europe The Lives of the Fathers, Martyrs, and Other Principal Saints Alban Butler,1813
