Nikolaeva,2011-12-22 The Historical Dictionary of Yukaghir has two main purposes First it is intended as a relatively complete source of information on the lexicon of Yukaghir Tundra and Kolyma Yukaghir are closely related highly endangered languages spoken in the extreme North East of Siberia No modern comprehensive lexicographic description of these languages is available for the international linguistic community The dictionary presents all known varieties of Yukaghir in comparative format Some of the materials included come from published sources others were obtained by the author through fieldwork and are published for the first time The dictionary also contains examples of now extinct early forms of Yukaghir which began to be recorded in the late 17th century Second the dictionary provides a first reconstruction of the common ancestor of all known Yukaghir varieties The proto Yukaghir stems are established based on internal reconstruction comparison between various Yukaghir idioms and external data Although the dictionary does not attempt to provide etymologies for all Yukaghir words it includes possible cognates of some Yukaghir stems from other languages mainly Uralic and Altaic Since Yukaghir forms are not only cited in their modern shape but are reconstructed the dictionary will provide a foundation for future etymological work and contribute to investigating the genetic affiliation of Yukaghir usually classified as isolated The book will also be useful for linguists interested in the distant genetic relations between language families and the reconstruction of the ethnic and linguistic situation in prehistoric northern Asia     Report of the Commissioners Appointed in 1898 to Inquire and Report what Methods of Treating and Disposing of Sewage (including Any Liquid from Any Factory Or Manufacturing Process) May Properly be Adopted Great Britain.
