NASA/NSTA Space Science Student Involvement Program ,1996      A Tyranny for the Good of its Victims Andrew F. Puzder,2025-01-14 Former CEO of CKE Restaurants Inc Andrew F Puzder exposes how the secretive consolidation of financial power under the guise of ESG represents a new collectivist threat to the free market Over the last thirty five years asset manager mega giants BlackRock State Street and Vanguard have accumulated unprecedented levels of stock ownership in virtually every major US company Voting the shares they hold for clients allows these companies to force their own environmental social and governance or ESG agenda on the American corporate sector and by extension on all of us An asset manager s traditional duty is to maximize returns for its investors but these financial elites expand their duties through stakeholder capitalism the idea that a company is responsible not only for its actual shareholders but for everyone who is affected by the company which translates to everyone in the community Thus they can impose their preferred ESG goals under the guise of benefitting an amorphous group of non investors a group that has no say over whether ESG goals actually benefit them This elite dominated economic system is nothing more than socialism in sheep s clothing ESG defines the champagne socialist agenda that would devastate the working and middle classes globally Now in the face of rising opposition these financial elites are suddenly rebranding shifting their terminology to conceal their intent A Tyranny for the Good of its Victims exposes how although they may abandon the acronym ESG these elites have pursued and will continue to pursue their ESG goals to transform our consumer driven free market economy into one that is subject to their elitist

Making Sense of Affirmative Action Kasper Lippert-Rasmussen,2020-03-30 Kasper Lippert Rasmussen here poses the question Is affirmative action morally unjustifiable As a phrase that frequently surfaces in major headlines affirmative action is a highly controversial and far reaching issue yet most of the recent scholarly literature surrounding the topic tends to focus on defending one side or another in a particular case of affirmative action Lippert Rasmussen instead takes a wide angle view addressing each of the prevailing contemporary arguments for and against affirmative action In his introduction he proposes an amended definition of affirmative action and considers what forms from quotas to outreach strategies may fall under this revised definition He then analyzes the strengths and weaknesses of each position relative to each other and applies recent discussions in political philosophy to assess if and how each argument might justify different conclusions given different cases or philosophical frameworks Each chapter investigates an argument for or against affirmative action The six arguments for it consist of compensation anti discrimination equality of opportunity role model diversity and integration The five arguments against it are reverse discrimination stigma mismatch publicity and merit Lippert Rasmussen also expands the discussion to include affirmative action for groups beyond the prototypical examples of African Americans and women and to consider health and minority languages as possible criteria for inclusion in affirmative action initiatives Based on the comparative strength of anti discrimination and equality of opportunity arguments Making Sense of Affirmative Action ultimately makes a case in favor of affirmative action however its originality lies in Lippert Rasmussen s careful exploration of moral justifiability as a contextual evaluative measure and his insistence that complexity and a comparative focus are inherent to this important issue
