Love Trash:

High-Tech Trash Carolyn L. Kane, 2019-12-17 A free ebook version of this title will be available through Luminos University of California Press Open Access publishing program for monographs Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more High Tech Trash analyzes creative strategies in glitch noise and error to chart the development of an aesthetic paradigm rooted in failure Carolyn L Kane explores how technologically influenced creative practices primarily from the second half of the twentieth and first quarter of the twenty first centuries critically offset a broader culture of pervasive risk and discontent In so doing she questions how we continue onward striving to do better and acquire more despite inevitable disappointment High Tech Trash speaks to a paradox in contemporary society in which failure is disavowed yet necessary for technological innovation

Freaks Talk Back Joshua Gamson, 2009-02-13 Using extensive interviews hundreds of transcripts focus group discussions with viewers and his own experiences as an audience member Joshua Gamson argues that talk shows give much needed high impact public visibility to sexual nonconformists while also exacerbating all sorts of political tensions among those becoming visible With wit and passion Freaks Talk Back illuminates the joys dilemmas and practicalities of media visibility This entertaining accessible sobering discussion should make every viewer sit up and ponder the effects and possibilities of America's daily talk fest with newly sharpened eyes Publishers Weekly Bold witty There's a lot of empirical work behind this deceptively easy read then and it allows for the most sophisticated and complex analysis of talk shows yet Elayne Rapping Women's Review of Books Funny well researched fully theorized Engaged and humane scholarship A pretty inspiring example of what talking back to the mass media can be Jesse Berrett Village Voice An extraordinarily well researched volume one of the most comprehensive studies of popular media to appear in this decade James Ledbetter Newsday

From Here John Faithful Hamer, 2020-04-19 In 1881 Mark Twain described Montreal as a city where you couldn't throw a brick without breaking a church window Today we might describe Montreal as a city where you can't throw a brick without hitting something beautiful Seriously you can't even walk to the pharmacy on a warm June night to pick up some garbage bags without being left speechless again and again and again The beauty of this great city isn't the natural and thus accidental beauty of BC or Banff it's deliberate Vanity's a virtue here in Montreal and the city's beautiful because it wants to be Something wonderful is happening in this city Despite corruption scandals that would make a Latin American dictator blush Despite crumbling municipal infrastructure that's made much of downtown look like the perfect place to shoot a post-apocalyptic disaster movie Despite all of these things and against all odds there's a buzz of creativity here right now unlike anything I've seen before in my lifetime Get Real with Storytime Julie

Dietzel-Glair, Marianne Crandall Follis Ph.D., 2015-11-10 This is a complete year-long programming guide that shows librarians how to integrate nonfiction and poetry into storytime for preschool children in order to build literacy skills and overall knowledge The right nonfiction titles ones with colorful photographs and facts that are interesting to young imaginations give librarians an opportunity to connect with children who are yearning for true stuff Presenting poetry in storytime encourages a love of language and the chance to play with words Written by authors with a combined 25 years of experience working with children and books in a library setting Get Real With Storytime 52 Weeks of Early Literacy Programming goes far beyond the typical storytime resource book by providing books and great ideas for using nonfiction and poetry with preschool children This book provides a complete year-long programming guide for librarians who work with preschool children in public libraries and school librarians who run special programs for preschoolers as well as parents childcare providers and camp counselors Each of the 52 broad storytime topics one for each week of the year includes a sample storytime featuring an opening poem a nonfiction title picture books songs rhymes or fingerplays and a follow-up activity Early literacy tips that are based on the authors' extensive experience and the principles of Every Child Ready to Read ECRR are presented throughout the book You're Going to Panic and That's Ok Armand Fischione, 2020-03-30 Images portrayed through words poetry disguised as primal scream therapy You're Going To Panic and That's Ok is a psychedelic exercise in catharsis You're Going To Panic and That's Ok is many things It's a Scottsdale love story It's an identity crisis It's Frank Ocean worship But most importantly it's digestible Through storytelling and vignettes experience a new unique voice in bridging the gap between the voice in your head and common sense This Heart of Mine C. C. Hunter, 2018-02-27 A new heart saved her life but will it help her find out what really happened to its donor C. C. Hunter's This Heart of Mine is a haunting poignant tale about living and dying surviving grief guilt and heartache while discovering love and hope in the midst of sadness Seventeen-year-old Leah MacKenzie is heartless An artificial heart in a backpack is keeping her alive However this route only offers her a few years And with her rare blood type a transplant isn't likely Living like you are dying isn't all it's cracked up to be But when a heart becomes available she's given a second chance at life Except Leah discovers who the donor was a boy from her school and they're saying he killed himself Plagued with dreams since the transplant she realizes she may hold the clues to what really happened Matt refuses to believe his twin killed himself When Leah seeks him out he learns they are both having similar dreams and he is certain it means something While unraveling the secrets of his brother's final moments Leah and Matt find each other and a love they are terrified to lose But life and even new hearts don't come with guarantees Who knew living took more courage than dying Examined Life Astra Taylor,2009-07-14

Philosophy reconnects with daily life in these conversations with eight renowned thinkers the uncut interviews from the documentary film Examined Life Astra Taylor's documentary film Examined Life took philosophy out of the academy and into the streets reminding us that great ideas are born through profound engagement with the hustle and bustle of everyday life not in isolation from it This companion volume features the complete and uncut interviews with eight influential philosophers all conducted while on the move through public spaces that resonate with their ideas Slavoj Žižek ponders the purpose of ecology inside a London garbage dump Peter Singer's thoughts on the ethics of consumption are amplified against the backdrop of Fifth Avenue's posh boutiques Michael Hardt ponders the nature of revolution while surrounded by symbols of wealth and leisure Judith Butler and a friend stroll through San Francisco's Mission District questioning our culture's fixation on individualism And while driving through Manhattan Cornel West perhaps America's best known public intellectual compares philosophy to jazz and blues reminding us how intense and invigorating the life of the mind can be Offering exclusive moments with great thinkers in fields ranging from moral philosophy to cultural theory to gender studies Examined Life reveals philosophy's power to transform the way we see the world around us and to imagine our place within it The
