Brian A. Hatcher, 2014-08-07 This book offers a new interpretation of the life and legacy of the Indian reformer and intellectual Ishvarchandra Vidyasagar 1820-91 Drawing upon autobiography biography secondary criticism and a range of Vidyasagar's original writings in Bengali the book interrogates the role of history memory and controversy and emphasises the key challenge of pinning down the identity of an enigmatic and multi faceted figure By examining lesser known works of Vidyasagar including several pseudonymous and posthumous works alongside the evidence of his public career the author calls attention to the colonial transformation of intellectual and social life the nature of life writing the limits of standard biographies and the problem of modern Indian identity as such Based on decades of research and an original perspective this book will be especially useful to scholars of modern Indian history biographical studies comparative literature and those interested in Bengal

Love's Martyrdom John Saunders,1882 Irving Vignettes Washington Irving,1858 Consuming Russia Adele Marie Barker,1999 A timely study of the new Russia at the end of the twentieth century Vignette from Finland Annie Margaret Clive Bayley,1895 Ambiguous Pleasures Rachel Spronk,2012 Among both male and female young urban professionals in Nairobi sexuality is a key to achieving a modern identity These young men and women see themselves as the avant garde of a new Africa while they also express the recurring worry of how to combine an African identity with the new lifestyles with which they are experimenting By focusing on public debates and their preoccupations with issues of African heritage gerontocratic power relations and conventional morality on the one hand and personal sexual relationships intimacy and self perceptions on the other this study works out the complexities of sexuality and culture in the context of modernity in an African society It moves beyond an investigation of a health or development perspective of sexuality and instead examines desire pleasure and eroticism revealing new insights into the methodology and theory of the study of sexuality within the social sciences Sexuality serves as a prism for analysing how social developments generate new notions of self in postcolonial Kenya and is a crucial component towards understanding the way people recognize and deal with modern changes in their personal lives Teaching in a Globally-Connected World Ervin F. Sparapani,Pamela L. Ross McClain,2016-07-29 This book examines the current social political economic and religious climate of the world makes projections for the future and then makes suggestions for what the contributors believe educators need to think about in order to adequately prepare young people to successfully navigate that future We live in a globally connected world and young people as they move into the future need to be prepared to live in that future Schools and teachers tend to focus on the present which is okay however schools and teachers must decide what is important to know in the present in order for young people to be successful in the future The responsibility of education today must be to prepare learners to live in an unknown future that is global and not be so focused on an uncertain present Outlines of Modern English Literature, 1890-1914 Sir Harold Herbert Williams,1920 Modern English Writers Sir Harold Herbert Williams,1925 Auction Catalogues Scott and O'Shaughnessy,1918 DAYS V Sarita Sharma,2021-07-26 Debut poetry collection DAYS V is a retelling of human lives in verse The poems echo love loss living ageing connections betrayal the trauma of an abusive childhood and everything humane through myriad imagery and varied voices From an old person rocking his chair to a woman desperately looking for a place to call her own in a crowded city the poems cover them all There is a breath of fresh air in the poems which are at times narrative at times soliloquy and at times nostalgic The poet crafts them in a master weave creating patterns which reveal the mysteries of lives in subtle nuances Vignettes Zny,2016-10-13 Vignettes By Zny 2016 Paperback 130 pages
