The Beckoning Hand and Other Stories Grant Allen, 2018-05-14 I first met C sarine Vivian in the stalls at the Ambiguities Theatre I had promised to take Mrs Latham and Irene to see the French plays which were then being acted by Marie Leroux's celebrated Palais Royal company I wasn't at the time exactly engaged to poor Irene it has always been a comfort to me that I wasn't engaged to her though I knew Irene herself considered it practically equivalent to an understood engagement We had known one another intimately from childhood upward for the Lathams were a sort of second cousins of ours three times removed and we had always called one another by our Christian names and been very fond of one another in a simple girlish and boyish fashion as long as we could either of us remember Still I maintain there was no definite understanding between us and if Mrs Latham thought I had been paying Irene attentions she must have known that a young man of two and twenty with a decent fortune and a nice estate down in Devonshire was likely to look about him for a while before he thought of settling down and marrying quietly
