Among Women Nancy Sorkin Rabinowitz, Lisa Auanger, 2009-06-03 Women's and men's worlds were largely separate in ancient Mediterranean societies and in consequence many women's deepest personal relationships were with other women Yet relatively little scholarly or popular attention has focused on women's relationships in antiquity in contrast to recent interest in the relationships between men in ancient Greece and Rome The essays in this book seek to close this gap by exploring a wide variety of textual and archaeological evidence for women's homosocial and homoerotic relationships from prehistoric Greece to fifth century CE Egypt Drawing on developments in feminist theory gay and lesbian studies and queer theory as well as traditional textual and art historical methods the contributors to this volume examine representations of women's lives with other women their friendships and sexual subjectivity They present new interpretations of the evidence offered by the literary works of Sappho Ovid and Lucian Bronze Age frescoes and Greek vase painting funerary reliefs and other artistic representations and Egyptian legal documents

Eye for Eternity Mark McKenna,2020-11-03 Manning Clark was a complex demanding and brilliant man Mark McKenna s compelling biography of this giant of Australia s cultural landscape is informed by his reading of Clark s extensive private letters journals and diaries many that have never been read before An Eye for Eternity paints a sweeping portrait of the man who gave Australians the signature account of their own history It tells of his friendships with Patrick White and Sidney Nolan It details an urgent and dynamic marriage ripped apart at times by Clark s constant need for extramarital romantic love A son who wrote letters to his dead parents A historian who placed narrative ahead of facts A doubter who flirted with Catholicism A controversial public figure who marked slights and criticisms with deeply held grudges To understand Clark's life is to understand twentieth century Australia And it raises fundamental questions about the craft of biography When are letters too personal comments too hurtful and insights too private to publish Clark incessantly documented his life leaving notes to the biographers he knew would pursue his story He had a deep need to be remembered and this book means he will now be understood in an unforgettable way The Reference Catalogue of Current Literature, 1913 The Desert Magazine Tom Budlong, Joan Brooks, 1997 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
