Keeper for Lord Linford Margaret SeBastian,1982-02 Poetics of Love in the Middle Ages Moshe Lazar,Norris J. Lacy,1989-05-23 This volume examines the treatment and expression of love in medieval literature and art These nineteen essays contributed by recognized authorities on medieval romantic expression consider a wide variety of texts from the following cultures French Arabic Latin Hispanic Hebrew Provencal and German Teachers and students of medieval literature will find in this well researched book cogent contemporary analyses of written expressions of love in the Middle Ages

Journey through Utopia Marie Louise Berneri,2019-11-21 In this title originally published in 1950 the author has set out to give a description and a critical assessment of the most important not necessarily the most famous Utopian writings since Plato first gave in his Republic a literary form to the dreams of a Golden Age and of ideal societies which had doubtless been haunting man since the beginning of the conscious discussion of social problems It is more than a mere compilation and criticism of Utopias it brings out in a striking way the close and fateful relationship between Utopian thought and social reality and takes its place among the important books which had appeared in the previous few years warning us from various points of view of the doom that awaits those who are foolish enough to put their trust in an ordered and regimented world

Rethinking Chivalry and Courtly Love Jennifer G. Wollock,2011-04-07 This book offers an overview of the origins growth and influence of chivalry and courtly love casting new light on the importance of these medieval ideals for understanding world history and culture to the present day Rethinking Chivalry and Courtly Love shows that these two interlinked medieval era concepts are best understood in light of each other It is the first book to explore the multicultural origins of chivalry and courtly love in tandem tracing their sources back to the ancient world then follow their development separately and together through medieval life and literature In addition to examining the history of chivalry and courtly love this remarkable volume looks at their enduring legacy not just in popular media but in molding our present day concepts of human rights professional ethics military conduct and gender relations Readers will see how understanding the tenets of the chivalrous life helps us understand our own world today The New Werner Twentieth Century Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica

,1906 A Siren Thomas Adolphus Trollope,2021-05-19 In A Siren Thomas Adolphus Trollope intricately blends the social commentary of the Victorian era with rich narrative and complex characters Set against the backdrop of 19th century England the novel explores themes of desire societal expectations and the perils of ambition Trollope s literary style is marked by nuanced character development and sharp dialogue presenting a story that captivates while illuminating the intricate dynamics of love and betrayal Drawing on the literary conventions of his contemporaries Trollope weaves a tale that explores the impact of societal roles on personal relationships all while employing a subtle touch of irony Thomas Adolphus Trollope a notable novelist and travel writer was deeply influenced by his family s literary legacy specifically that of his brother Anthony Trollope Growing up in a turbulent yet intellectually stimulating environment he developed a keen understanding of human psychology and social structures which can be seen in his sophisticated storytelling His travels throughout Europe also enriched his perspective allowing him to juxtapose various cultural influences against the rigid norms of British society Readers seeking a thought provoking narrative that examines the tensions between personal desire and societal expectation will find A Siren particularly rewarding Trollope s masterful storytelling not only entertains but also prompts reflection on the deeper implications of love and ambition in a rapidly changing world Gothic Classics: 60+
