Devotionals, Volume 7 Charles Erlandson,2024-03-29 Give Us This Day is a unique daily devotional commentary for the entire New Testament based on the ancient method called lectio divina Lectio divina or divine reading is the method used by the early church and countless Christians through the centuries to read the Scriptures to form and transform the soul more than merely to inform the mind Give Us This Day deals in depth with entire passages and their contexts Rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about Fr Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament Fr Charles writes for the whole person he s not afraid to use his sense of humor and he carefully relates the Bible not only to the individual's life but also to the life of the Church. At the end of each day's devotional an appropriate Prayer is offered as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day's lesson. Each devotional concludes with a suggested Resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading meditation and prayer.

The Gospel of Numbers Henry Law, 2025-05-30 The book of Numbers is probably the least read known and studied book of the Scripture in spite of its rich prophetic and typical references to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. When you read this book through the lens of the New Testament and keep in mind the eternal plan of redemption that unfolds progressively through the Scripture you cannot escape the fact that the book of Numbers must play its proper role in this unfolding of that plan. Are you prepared to meet Christ in the book of Numbers? Prepare then yourself to be surprised to find out how much this book speaks of Christ and the Gospel. Henry Law, dean of Gloucester in the 18th century drives us through the Gospel of Numbers to help us see how the Word of God reveals in a prophetic and typical manner the plan of redemption made even before the creation of this Universe. And Christ is at the very epicenter of this. This book was published originally in 1867. This edition has been proofread, typeset for eBook readers and lightly updated for modern readers.

The Loving Heart Assaf Sawaya, 2021-06-11 The Loving Heart is about God's blessing of my natural growth. God was there for me because of my loving heart, but I did not know that until I was arrested and facing a life sentence. God pulled me out of that slimy pit. God is love, and he showed me his love. I recognize that many times when I failed him, he has rescued me from my own mistakes. To return his love for me, I developed a hunger to know him and serve him until I breathe my last breath. As a child, God has blessed me with a lasting smile at all times. I love everybody from every background. I am a seventy-three-year-old man, and I still have that smile and the loving heart that God blessed me with. Glory to God.

"Redeeming Love Proclaim" Ken R. Manley, 2007-01-01 A leading exponent of the new moderate Calvinism that brought new life to many Baptists. John Rippon (1751-1836) helped unite Baptists during his lifetime. Reared in the West Country and trained at Bristol Academy, Rippon served for over sixty years at the London church where John Gill had been minister. Through his A Selection of Hymns from the Best Authors, Rippon exerted a powerful influence on Baptist worship and devotional life. Through his Baptist Annual Register (1790-1802), the denomination's first periodical, Rippon recorded the denomination's growing maturity, encouraged a strong missionary commitment, and promoted links between Baptists in Britain and America. With a keen sense of English Protestant history which he helped preserve and an active leadership in many Baptist organizations, Rippon helped conserve the heritage of Old Dissent and stimulated the evangelicalism of the New Dissent.
