Loving In The War Years Lo Que Nunca Paso Por Sus Labios:

Loving in the War Years Cherríe Moraga, 1983 Weaving together poetry and prose Spanish and English family history and political theory Loving in the War Years has been a classic in the feminist and Chicano canon since its 1983 release It remains a testament of Moraga's coming of age as a Chicana and a lesbian at a time when the political merging of those two identities was severely censured Loving in the War Years Cherríe Moraga, 2023-08-15 An updated edition combining two classic works of Chicana and queer literature with a new introduction by renowned writer and luminary Cherríe Moraga In celebration of the 40th anniversary of its original publication this updated edition of Loving in the War Years combines Moraga's classic memoir with The Last Generation Poetry and Prose resulting in a challenging inspiring and insightful touchstone for artists and activists and for anyone striving to foster care and community Cherríe Moraga's powerful memoir remains as urgent as ever She explores the intersections of her Chicana and lesbian identities moving gracefully between poetry and prose Spanish and English personal narratives and political theory Moraga recounts navigating the world largely as an outsider circling the interconnected societies around her from a distant yet observant perspective Ultimately however her writing serves as a bridge between her cultures languages family and herself enabling her to look inward to forge connections from otherwise inaccessible parts of her interior world to show how deep self awareness and compassionate engagement with one's surroundings are key to building global solidarity among people and political movements

Encyclopedia of Hispanic-American Literature Luz Elena Ramirez, 2015-04-22 Presents a reference on Hispanic American literature providing profiles of Hispanic American writers and their works English Literature and the Other Languages, 2022-06-08 The thirty essays in English Literature and the Other Languages trace how the tangentiality of English and other modes of language affects the production of English literature and investigate how questions of linguistic code can be made accessible to literary analysis This collection studies multilingualism from the Reformation onwards when Latin was an alternative to the emerging vernacular of the Anglican nation the eighteenth century confrontation between English and the languages of the colonies the process whereby the standard British English of the colonizer has lost ground to independent Englishes American Canadian Indian Caribbean Nigerian or New Zealand English that now consider the original standard British English as the other languages the interaction between English and a range of British language varieties including Welsh Irish and Scots the Lancashire and Dorset dialects as well as working class idiom Chicano literature translation and self translation Ezra Pound's revitalization of English in the Cantos and the psychogrammar and comic dialogics in Joyce's Ulysses As Norman Blake puts it in his Afterword to English Literature and the Other Languages There has been no volume such as this which tries to take stock of the whole area and to put multilingualism in literature on the map It is a subject which has been neglected for too long and this volume is to be welcomed for its brave attempt to fill this lacuna

Entiendes? Emilie L. Bergmann, 1995 Entiendes is literally translated as Do you understand Do you get it But those who do get it will also hear within this question a subtler meaning Are you queer Are you one of us The issues of gay and lesbian identity represented by this question are explored for the first time in the context of Spanish and Hispanic literature in this groundbreaking anthology Combining intimate knowledge of Spanish speaking cultures with contemporary queer theory these essays address texts that share both a common language and a concern with lesbian gay and bisexual identities Using a variety of approaches the contributors tease the homoerotic messages out of a wide range of works from chronicles of colonization in the Caribbean to recent Puerto Rican writing from the work of Cervantes to that of the most outrageous contemporary Latina performance artists This volume offers a methodology for examining work by authors and artists whose sexuality is not so much open as an open secret respecting for example the biographical privacy of writers like Gabriela Mistral while responding to the voices that speak in their writing Contributing to an archeology of queer discourses Entiendes also includes important studies of terminology and encoded homosexuality in Argentine literature and Caribbean journalism of the late nineteenth century Whether considering homosexual panic in the stories of Borges performances by Latino AIDS activists in Los Angeles queer lives in turn of the century Havana and Buenos Aires or the mapping of homosexual geographies of 1930s New York in Lorca's Ode to Walt Whitman Entiendes is certain to stir interest at the crossroads of sexual and national identities while proving to be an invaluable resource

Across Genres, Generations and Borders Susanna Scarparo, Rita Wilson, 2004 This book examines the processes involved in writing the lives of women both as autobiographies and as biographies Some essays are theoretical discussions about the constructions of self articulation in women's life writing Others are more autobiographical emphasizing the importance of self articulation for creating possibilities for self direction Adopting different theoretical approaches chapters in this collection highlight the connections between subjectivity and history feminist concerns about mothering and the mother daughter relationships autobiography discourse and its framing of the relationship between text and life and the ethics of constructing biographies The book is divided into three parts the first part focuses on the process of writing lives as expressed but also contested in epistolary narratives autobiography and historical fiction The second part considers notions of female genealogy and the relationship with the maternal both biological and symbolic The third part comprises articles which deal with writing outside geographical and metaphorical borders
