Forest,Jim Forest,2014 Not everything Jesus taught must be regarded as a commandment Counsels on voluntary poverty or celibacy for instance have been seen as an option for a small minority of Christ s followers The same cannot be said about the love of enemies This does not fall in the if you would be perfect category It is instead basic Christianity which Jesus taught through direct instruction through parables and by the example given with his own life And yet it is undoubtedly the hardest commandment of all one that runs counter to our natural inclinations It is as Jim Forest shows a commandment that calls for prayer discernment and constant practice Along with reflections drawn from scripture the lives of the saints and modern history Forest offers nine disciplines of active love including praying for enemies turning the other cheek forgiveness and recognizing Jesus in others that make the love of enemies if not an easier task then a goal worth striving toward in our daily lives

Mystical Love in the German Baroque Isabella van Elferen, 2009 Mystical Love in the German Baroque Theology Poetry Music identifies the cultural and devotional conventions underlying expressions of mystical love in poetry and music of the German baroque. It sheds new light on the seemingly erotic overtones in settings of the Song of Songs and dialogues between Christ and the faithful soul in late 17th and early 18th century cantatas by Heinrich Schütz, Dieterich Buxtehude and Johann Sebastian Bach. While these compositions have been interpreted solely as a secularizing tendency within devotional music of the baroque period, Isabella van Elferen demonstrates that they need to be viewed instead as intensifications of the sacred. Based on a wide selection of previously unedited or translated 17th and 18th century sources, van Elferen describes the history and development of baroque poetic and musical love discourses from Schütz's early works through Buxtehude's cantatas and Bach's cantatas and Passions. This long and multilayered discursive history of these compositions considers the love poetry of Petrarch, European reception of petrarchan imagery and traditions, its effect on the madrigal in Germany, and the role of Catholic medieval mystics in baroque Lutheranism. Van Elferen shows that Bach's compositional technique, based on the emotional characteristics of text and music rather than on the depiction of single words, allows the musical expression of mystical love to correspond closely to contemporary literary and theological conceptions of this affect.
