forced migration drug trafficking corruption and the struggle to establish fully democratic societies Writers adopt various narrative strategies to account for this in fictional form most typically the crime novel cum critical realism and the political thriller but also a kind of impressionist realism as well as auto fiction and fictional testimony Thematic unity is provided by displacement in all its guises and the inability to leave behind a problematic past that bleeds into the present scars that wont heal This fiction speaks of existential crisis in a context of social precarity and lack of opportunity a legacy of civil war and neoliberal adjustment as Central Americans seek fulfillment through migration and nomadism Whether external or internal self imposed or forced migration brings in train mal adaptation to new worlds and a poetics of loss and solitude An atmosphere of survival exhaustion dissipation and decay in both a physical and a moral sense dominates but also rays of hope a sober reckoning the morning after Cicatrices is a mix of young and older male and female authors of novels and short stories spread across five Central American countries Guatemala Nicaragua El Salvador Costa Rica and Honduras Cicatrices is an essential collection for any reader wishing to get a sense of the direction and quality of current Central American fiction as it engages with the problems of the region

Guatemala has undergone an unprecedented conversion to Protestantism since the 1970s so that thirty percent of its people now belong to Protestant churches more than in any other Latin American nation To illuminate some of the causes of this phenomenon Virginia Garrard Burnett here offers the first history of Protestantism in a Latin American country focusing specifically on the rise of Protestantism within the ethnic and political history of Guatemala Garrard Burnett finds that while Protestant missionaries were early valued for their medical clinics schools translation projects and especially for the counterbalance they provided against Roman Catholicism Protestantism itself attracted few converts in Guatemala until the 1960s Since then however the militarization of the state increasing public violence and the globalization of Guatemalan national politics have undermined the traditional ties of kinship custom and belief that gave Guatemalans a sense of identity and many are turning to Protestantism to recreate a sense of order identity and belonging
