Lucid Dreams Paul Coates, 1999      Film - An International Bibliography Malte Hagener, Michael Töteberg, 2016-12-16 Kommentierte Bibliografie Sie gibt Wissenschaftlern Studierenden und Journalisten zuverlässige Auskunft über rund 6000 internationale Veröffentlichungen zum Thema Film und Medien Die vorgestellten Rubriken reichen von Nachschlagewerk über Filmgeschichte bis hin zu Fernsehen Video Multimedia      The Cinema of Andrzej Wajda John Orr, Elżbieta Ostrowska, 2003 Home to the New York Yankees the Bronx Zoo and the Grand Concourse the Bronx was at one time a haven for upwardly mobile second generation immigrants eager to leave the crowded tenements of Manhattan in pursuit of the American dream Once hailed as a wonder borough of beautiful homes parks and universities the Bronx became during the 1960s and 1970s a national symbol of urban deterioration Thriving neighborhoods that had long been home to generations of families dissolved under waves of arson crime and housing abandonment turning blocks of apartment buildings into gutted graffiti covered shells and empty trash filled lots In this revealing history of the Bronx Evelyn Gonzalez describes how the once infamous New York City borough underwent one of the most successful and inspiring community revivals in American history From its earliest beginnings as a loose cluster of commuter villages to its current status as a densely populated home for New York's growing and increasingly more diverse African American and Hispanic populations this book shows how the Bronx interacted with and was affected by the rest of New York City as it grew from a small colony on the tip of Manhattan into a sprawling metropolis This is the story of the clattering of elevated subways and the cacophony of crowded neighborhoods the heady optimism of industrial progress and the despair of economic recession and the vibrancy of ethnic cultures and the resilience of local grassroots coalitions crucial to the borough's rejuvenation In recounting the varied and extreme transformations this remarkable community has undergone Evelyn Gonzalez argues that it was not racial discrimination rampant crime postwar liberalism or big government that was to blame for the urban crisis that assailed the Bronx during the late 1960s Rather the decline was inextricably connected to the same kinds of social initiatives economic transactions political decisions and simple human choices that had once been central to the development and vitality of the borough Although the history of the Bronx is unquestionably a success story crime poverty and substandard housing still afflict the community today Yet the process of building and rebuilding carries on and the revitalization of neighborhoods and a resurgence of economic growth continue to offer hope for the future      Cinema, Religion and the Romantic Legacy Paul Coates, 2017-07-05 Cinema Religion and the Romantic Legacy surveys the ways in which notions of religion and spirituality have impinged upon the cinema Cinema is conceived as a post Romantic form for which religion and spirituality can be unified only problematically While inspecting many of the well established themes and topoi of writing on religion and film such as films about priests and Christ figures it also seeks to problematize them focusing primarily upon the issues of religious representation foregrounded by such European directors as Kieslowski and Godard Coates draws on theories of theologians philosophers and cultural and literary critics including Otto Kant Schiller and Girard Addressing the relationship between religion and spirituality from a film studies specialist's perspective this book offers all those concerned with film media or religious studies an invaluable examination of artistic interaction with the theological and aesthetic issues of representation and representability Paul Coates is Reader in Film Studies at the University of Aberdeen Scotland and author of many books including The Gorgon's Gaze CUP Film at the Intersection of High and Mass Culture CUP The Story of the Lost Reflection Verso Slavic Review, 2001 American quarterly of Soviet and East European studies varies

Temporality and Film Analysis Matilda Mroz, 2012-08-06 Matilda Mroz argues that cinema provides an ideal opportunity to engage with ideas of temporal flow and change Temporality however remains an underexplored area of film analysis which frequently discusses images as though they were still rather than moving This book traces the operation of duration in cinema and argues that temporality should be a central concern of film scholarship In close readings of Michelangelo Antonioni's L'Avventura Andrei Tarkovsky's Mirror and the ten short films that make up Krzysztof Kieslowski's Decalogue series Mroz highlights how film analysis must consider both particular moments in cinema which are critically significant and the way in which such moments interrelate in temporal flux She explores the concepts of duration and rhythm resonance and uncertainty affect sense and texture to bring a fresh perspective to film analysis and criticism Essential reading for students and scholars in Film Studies this engaging study will also be a valuable resource for critical theorists

Cinema and Nation Mette Hjort, Scott Mackenzie, 2005-08-18 Ideas of national identity nationalism and transnationalism are now a central feature of contemporary film studies as well as primary concerns for film makers themselves Embracing a range of national cinemas including Scotland Poland France Turkey Indonesia India Germany and America Cinema and Nation considers the ways in which film production and reception are shaped by ideas of national belonging and examines the implications of globalisation for the concept of national cinema In the first three Parts contributors explore sociological approaches to nationalism challenge the established definitions of national cinema and consider the ways in which states from the old Soviet Union to contemporary Scotland aim to create a national culture through cinema The final two Parts address the diverse strategies involved in the production of national cinema and consider how images of the nation are used and understood by audiences both at home and abroad

The Red and the White Paul Coates, 2005 The Red and the White The Cinema of People's Poland takes a fascinating look at the history of post war Polish cinema and how it was affected by the political social and cultural upheavals throughout the period 1947-89 This timely study re-evaluates the legacy of Socialist Realism the representation of the war cinematic portrayals of national myth and cultural history literary adaptation and surrealism and discourses of exile and national identity Although paying particular reference to the work of Krzysztof Kieslowski and Andrzej Wajda this book considers the contribution of a wide range of filmmakers including Jerzy Skolimowski Krzysztof Zanussi Agnieszka Holland Andrzej Munk Jerzy Kawalerowicz Wojciech Has and Roman Polanski The
