Life is Messy: A Memoir Susie Munson Weinacht, Forgotten Hero: A Memoir Kathleen Cortese, 2012-04-30 This family saga takes place in New York City's Greenwich Village. It begins in 1906 when nine year old Eddie is sent out by his mother to panhandle. Her husband is dying of tuberculosis and she is pregnant for the eleventh time. She can barely pay the rent and her two youngest children have no shoes. There is no money for food and to keep the family warm over the winter she burns every stick of furniture in their one bedroom basement apartment. As the Paul family's story unfolds it is at the same time told through the eyes of Eddie as he grows up on the tough streets of Greenwich Village. Us, After: A Memoir of Love and Suicide Rachel Zimmerman, 2024-06-30 This poignant soul baring memoir is truly one of the most moving accounts of grief, loss and resilience that I've read. Tara Parker Pope, The Washington Post. Masterfully written and compelling. Zimmerman's book is a marvelous feat. I stayed up all night reading it. Deesha Philyaw, author The Secret Lives of Church Ladies. Us After is one of the best memoirs I have read in a very long time. It is poetic and lyrical, unflinching and a testament to the strength of the human soul. We bleed for Zimmerman and her two daughters. We laugh and cry with them. And ultimately we marvel at their strength and resilience. Buzz Bissinger, author Friday Night Lights. When a state trooper appeared at Rachel Zimmerman's door to report that her husband had jumped to his death off a nearby bridge, she fell to her knees unable to fully absorb the news. How could the man she married, a devoted father and robotics professor at MIT, have committed such a violent act? How would she explain this to her young daughters? And could she have stopped him? A longtime journalist, she probed obsessively, believing answers would help her survive. She interviewed doctors, suicide researchers, and a man who jumped off the same bridge and lived. Us After examines domestic devastation and resurgence, digging into the struggle between public and private selves, life's shifting perspectives, the work of motherhood, and the secrets we keep. In this memoir, Zimmerman confronts the unimaginable and discovers the good in what remains. Life Happens: A Memoir E. D. Clapham, 2015-07-14 Life Happens: A Memoir is an honest account of a girl growing up in a small seaside town in Yorkshire where everyone made a point of knowing everyone's business but nevertheless a town which afforded the kind of freedom and simple delights which are not too available today in spite of so much change and progress. It recounts a more innocent time but one when young people had to face the reality of and adjust to the 2nd World War years and during which our girl learnt how to cope and appreciate the value of love. It's also about growing up in a 34 bedroom seasonal hotel in the town, the impact of its being requisitioned by the army at the onset of war, falling in love and falling out of it, hopes, dreams and disappointments, and eventually finding love with Mr Very Right About the Author. Eleanor Clapham returned to live in Whitby in 2004 after more than 30 years working as a specialist Chemical Dependency Therapist. She now lives near family in Devon and is writing further memoirs of her life. Sounds Like Titanic: A Memoir Jessica Chiccehitto Hindman, 2019-02-12 A Finalist for the 2019 National Book Critics Circle Award in Autobiography. Deliciously bizarre and utterly American A Coen brothers movie come to life I couldn't put it down Caitlin Doughty best selling author of Smoke Gets in Your Eyes and Will My Cat Eat My Eyeballs Sounds Like Titanic tells the unforgettable story of how Jessica Chiccehitto Hindman became a fake violinist Struggling to pay her college tuition Hindman accepts a dream position in an award winning ensemble that brings ready money But the ensemble is a sham When the group performs the microphones are off while the music which sounds suspiciously like the soundtrack to the movie Titanic blares from a hidden CD player Hindman who toured with the ensemble and its peculiar Composer for four years writes with unflinching candor and humor about her surreal and quietly devastating odyssey Sounds Like Titanic is at once a singular coming of age memoir about the lengths to which one woman goes to make ends meet and an incisive articulation of modern anxieties about gender class and ambition

Unforgivable? Stephen Cherry,2024-03-28 Forgiveness is a lovely idea wrote C S Lewis and in recent decades it has been seen and admired in situations ranging from therapy to politics and proposed as a constructive pathway in the aftermath of abuse and atrocity Not everyone is impressed however and in parallel with praise and promotion of forgiveness cries of unforgivable are uttered with increased shrillness and frequency In this hugely compelling wide ranging and thought provoking book Stephen Cherry argues that while forgiveness can be transformative in the aftermath of harm it can also if not handled with care become an additional pressure and anxiety for those who have been harmed He teases out the way in which Christian understandings often lie behind pressure to forgive identifying a number of typical mistakes with the Christian approach to forgiveness Reflecting on many examples from real life as well as literature and on the insights of psychologists and philosophers Cherry uses the tension between the desire to forgive and the protest that a person is unforgivable to push towards understandings of forgiveness that avoid the harshness of binary models Forgiveness is not he insists the only good way forward after harm A positive understanding of non vengeful unforgiveness is vital if the harmed are to be given the care and support they need and deserve and if forgiveness itself is to be authentic and liberating Cherry s challenging book brims with energy and blends human insight with intellectual vision It argues that if forgiveness is to play a part in the aftermath of harm without inflicting further harm it must be presented in a non idealized way and only following acknowledgement of the depth of the human impact of the harm done
