Asian American Literature Keith Lawrence, 2021-08-25 Asian American Literature: An Encyclopedia for Students is an invaluable resource for students curious to know more about Asian North American writers, texts, and the issues and drives that motivate their writing. This volume collects in one place a breadth of information about Asian American literary and cultural history, as well as the authors and texts that best define it. A dozen contextual essays introduce fundamental elements or subcategories of Asian American literature, expanding on social and literary concerns or tensions that are familiar and relevant. Essays include the origins and development of the term Asian American, overviews of Asian American and Asian Canadian social and literary histories, essays on Asian American identity, gender issues, and sexuality, and discussions of Asian American rhetoric and children's literature. More than 120 alphabetical entries round out the volume and cover important Asian North American authors. Historical information is presented in clear and engaging ways, and author entries emphasize biographical or textual details that are significant to contemporary young adults. Special attention has been given to pioneering authors from the late 19th century through the early 1970s and to influential or well-known contemporary authors, especially those likely to be studied in high school or university classrooms. An Asian Story of Pity and Embarrassment Leslie M. Arimas, 2011-04-01 Upon meeting the chancellor's son, Thomas Wao Isabella Tocador, a Filipina freshman at the prestigious university Zappalinal, decides to join an all-Asian business fraternity. As a challenge to the fraternity, Thomas offers a full scholarship to the graduate school of his choice to any man with whom Isabella falls in love. In a private e-mail to the male fraternity members, Thomas writes: "Who knew I could become a sap for you guys? Maybe I might be in love with this girl. Maybe I want to ruin her. Maybe I'm interested in seeing what becomes of her. I want to dare one man from this fraternity to make her fall in love with him. As son of the chancellor, as you all know, I would like one of you saps to fall in love with this girl, and then maybe I can pull some strings with my father to see if you may go to the graduate school of your choice, full ride. No joke. The result is a sexy comedy about young college students who combine love and competition until it becomes a farce. And what happens to the sweet and idealistic Isabella, who must deal not only with the challenges of academics but with a number of lusty young men who refuse to take no for an answer? Is there a happy ending in store for her?" An Asian Story About the Author Leslie M. Arimas is from Salinas, California. She attended UC Berkeley and graduated from California State University, Monterey Bay, with a degree in Liberal Studies. She received her preliminary teaching credential and has worked as a
