Unspeakable Secrets and the Psychoanalysis of Culture Esther Rashkin, 2008-08-07 Winner of the 2009 Gradiva Award Theoretical Category presented by the National Association for the Advancement of Psychoanalysis Esther Rashkin argues that psychoanalysis galvanizes as no other discipline can an understanding of texts in their social historical and political contexts Demonstrating that close reading can be a radical political practice she exposes heretofore unseen ideologies concealed in works of film and literature from Last Tango in Paris to The Picture of Dorian Gray from Barthes's Mythologies and Balzac's Sarrasine to Babette's Feast Psychoanalytic concepts such as identification with the aggressor the cryptonymy illness of mourning and the phantom allow Rashkin to reveal how shameful and unspeakable secrets propel the narratives she examines In the process she convincingly makes the case for a new practice of psychoanalytic cultural studies a practice that fully engages with the politicized discourses anti-Semitism racism colonialism censorship that mark a text's location in history Concentrationary Memories Griselda Pollock, Max

Silverman, 2015-08-25 Concentrationary Memories has as its premise the idea at the heart of Alain Resnais's film Night and Fog 1955 that the concentrationary plague unleashed on the world by the Nazis in the 1930s and 1940s is not simply confined to one place and one time but is now a permanent presence shadowing modern life It further suggests that memory and indeed art in general must be invoked to show this haunting of the present by this menacing past so that we can read for the signs of terror and counter its deformation of the human Through working with political and cultural theory on readings of film art photographic and literary practices Concentrationary Memories analyses different cultural responses to concentrationary terror in different sites in the post-war period ranging from Auschwitz to Argentina These readings show how those involved in the cultural production of memories of the horror of totalitarianism sought to find forms languages and image systems which could make sense of and resist the post-war condition in which as Hannah Arendt famously stated everything is possible and human beings as human beings become superfluous Authors include Nicholas Chare Isabelle de le Court Thomas Elsaesser Benjamin Hannavy Cousen Matthew John Claire Launchbury Sylvie Lindeperg Laura Malosetti Costa Griselda Pollock Max Silverman Glenn Sujo Annette Wieviorka and John Wolfe Ackerman Mining the Home Movie

Karen L. Ishizuka, Patricia Rodden Zimmermann, 2008 Features essays that combine research critical analyses and theoretical approaches regarding the meaning and value of amateur and archival films This book identifies home movies as methods of visually preserving history It defines a genre of film studies and establishes the home movie as a tool for extracting historical and social insights Making Waves, Revised and Expanded Geoffrey Nowell-Smith, 2013-06-20 The 1960s was famously the decade of sex drugs and rock n roll It was also a decade of revolution and counter revolution of the Cuban missile crisis of the American intervention in Vietnam of economic booms and the beginning of consumerism and the rebellion against it In Hollywood the genres which had held audiences captive in the 1940s and 50s musicals Westerns melodramas were losing their appeal and their great practitioners were approaching retirement The scene was therefore set for new cinemas to emerge to attract the young the discriminating the politically conscious and the sexually emancipated Making Waves Revised and Expanded is a sharp focused and brilliant survey of the innovative filmmaking of the 1960s placing it in its political economic cultural and aesthetic context capturing the distinctiveness of a decade which was great for the cinema and for the world at large Geoffrey Nowell Smith pays particular attention to a handful of the most remarkable talents Godard Antonioni Oshima that emerged during the period and helped to make it so special Nowell Smith updates his classic text with a focus on 1960s Japan and the burgeoning New York scene A History of the French New Wave Cinema Richard

Neupert,2007-04-20 The French New Wave cinema is arguably the most fascinating of all film movements famous for its exuberance daring and avant garde techniques A History of the French New Wave Cinema offers a fresh look at the social economic and aesthetic mechanisms that shaped French film in the 1950s as well as detailed studies of the most important New Wave movies of the late 1950s and early 1960s Richard Neupert first tracks the precursors to New Wave cinema showing how they provided blueprints for those who would follow He then demonstrates that it was a core group of critics turned directors from the magazine Cahiers du Cin ma especially Fran ois Truffaut Claude Chabrol and Jean Luc Godard who really revealed that filmmaking was changing forever Later their cohorts Eric Rohmer Jacques Rivette Jacques Doniol Valcroze and Pierre Kast continued in their own unique ways to expand the range and depth of the New Wave In an exciting new chapter Neupert explores the subgroup of French film practice known as the Left Bank Group which included directors such as Alain Resnais and Agn s Varda With the addition of this new material and an updated conclusion Neupert presents a comprehensive review of the stunning variety of movies to come out of this important era in filmmaking Warning

Beyond the Subtitle Mark Betz, 2009 Examining European art films of the 1950s and 1960s Mark Betz argues that it is time for film analysis to move beyond prevailing New Wave historiography mired in outdated notions of nationalism and dragged down by decades of auteurist criticism Focusing on the cinemas of France and Italy Betz reveals how the flowering of European art films in the postwar era is inseparable from the complex historical and political frameworks of the time

The Franco-Algerian War through a Twenty-First Century Lens Nicole Beth Wallenbrock, 2020-02-20 The Franco Algerian War 1954-62 remains a powerful international symbol of Third Worldism and the finality of Empire Through its nuanced analysis of the war's depiction in film The Franco Algerian War through a Twenty First Century Lens locates an international reckoning with history that both condemns and exonerates past generations Algerian and French production partnerships such as Hors la loi Outside the Law Rachid Bouchareb 2010 and Loubia Hamra Bloody Beans Narimane Mari 2013 are one of several ways citizens collaborate to unearth a shared history and its legacy Nicole Beth Wallenbrock probes cinematic discourse to shed new light on topics including the media revelation of torture and atomic bomb tests immigration's role in the evolution of the war's meaning and the complex relationship of the intertwined film cultures The first chapter summarizes the Franco Algerian War in 20th century film thus grounding subsequent queries with Algeria's moudjahid or freedom fighter films and the French new wave's perceived disinterest in the conflict This book is an invaluable resource for scholars seeking to understand cinema's role in re-evaluating war and reconstructing international memory

The Films in My Life François Truffaut, 2014-08-24 From a cinematic grand master one of the most readable books of movie criticism and one of the most instructive American Film Institute An icon A rebel A legend The films of François Truffaut defined an exhilarating new form of cinema for moviegoers the world over But before Truffaut became a great director he was a critic who stood at the vanguard pioneering an innovative way to view movies and to write about the cinematic arts Now for the first time in eBook the legendary director shares his own words as one of the most influential filmmakers of all time examines the art of movie making through engaging and deeply personal reviews about the movies he loves Truffaut writes extensively about his heroes from Hitchcock to Welles Chaplin to Renoir Bu uel to Bergman Clouzot to Cocteau Capra to Hawks Guitry to Fellini sharing analysis and insight as to what made them film legends and how their work led Truffaut and his fellow directors into classics like The 400 Blows Jules and Jim and the French New Wave movement Articulate and candid The Films in My Life is for everyone who has sat in a dark movie theater and dreamed Truffaut brings the same intelligence and grace to the printed page that he projects onto the screen The Films in My Life provides a rare knowledgeable look at movies and moviemaking Newsday The Foreign Film Renaissance on American Screens, 1946-1973 Tino Balio, 2010-11-05 Largely shut out of American theaters since the 1920s foreign films such as Open City Bicycle Thief Rashomon The Seventh Seal Breathless La Dolce Vita and L'Avventura played after World War II in a growing number of art houses around the country and created a small but influential art film market devoted to the acquisition distribution and exhibition of foreign language and English language films produced abroad Nurtured by successive waves of imports from Italy Great Britain France Sweden Japan and the Soviet Bloc the renaissance was kick started by independent distributors working out of New York by the 1960s however the market had been subsumed by Hollywood From Roberto Rossellini's Open City in 1946 to Bernardo Bertolucci's Last Tango in Paris in 1973 Tino Balio tracks the critical reception in the press of such filmmakers as Francois Truffaut Jean Luc Godard Federico Fellini Michelangelo Antonioni Tony Richardson Ingmar Bergman Akira Kurosawa Luis Bu uel Satyajit Ray and Milos Forman Their releases paled in comparison to Hollywood fare at the box office but their impact on American film culture was enormous The reception accorded to art house cinema attacked motion picture censorship promoted the director as auteur and celebrated film as an international art Championing the cause was the new cinephile generation which was mostly made up of college students under thirty The fashion for foreign films depended in part on their frankness about sex When Hollywood abolished the Production Code in the late 1960s American made films began to treat adult themes with maturity and candor In this new environment foreign films lost their cachet and the art film market went into decline Louis Althusser Warren Montag, 2002-12-17 The publication of Louis Althusser's autobiography The Future Lasts Forever shattered the myth of Althusser as austere structural Marxist It not only illuminated the private life of this public thinker but suggested that his previously published works could be read very differently Louis Althusser is the first major overview of Althusser's work since the publication in French of thousands of pages of essays books and letters unknown before 1990 and makes a strong case for a radical reconsideration of his work in the light of this new material Focusing particularly on Althusser's writings on art theatre and literature as well as those of Althusser's collaborator Pierre Macherey Warren Montag traces the contradictory development of Althusser's thought from the early sixties to his autobiography Additional material includes an annotated bibliography of texts by and on Althusser and the book also features a previously untranslated essay by the theorist on Brecht and Marx Hybrid Anxieties C. L. Quinan, 2020-12 Situated at the crossroads of queer theory and postcolonial studies Hybrid Anxieties analyzes the intertwined and composite aspects of identities and textual forms in the wake of the French Algerian War 1954-1962 C. L. Quinan argues that the war precipitated a dynamic in which a contestation of hegemonic masculinity occurred alongside a production of queer modes of subjectivity embodiment and memory that subvert norms Innovations in literature and cinema were also directly impacted by the long and difficult process of decolonization as the war provoked a rethinking of politics and aesthetics The novels films and poetry analyzed in Hybrid Anxieties trace this imbrication of content and form demonstrating how a postwar fracturing had both salutary and injurious effects not only on bodies and psyches but also on artistic forms Adopting a queer postcolonial perspective Hybrid Anxieties adds a new impulse to the question of how to rethink hegemonic notions of gender sexuality and nationality thereby opening up new spaces for considering the redemptive and productive possibilities of negotiating life in a postcolonial context Without losing sight of the trauma of this particularly violent chapter in history Hybrid Anxieties proposes a new kind of hybridity that however anxious and anticipatory emphasizes the productive forces of a queer desire to deconstruct teleological relationships between past present and future
