Museums The Community In West Africa:

Museums & the Community in West Africa Claude Daniel Ardouin, West African Museums Programme, 1995 This work draws on the practical experience of the West African Museums Programme in encouraging the establishment of museums which are responsive to local needs and which can contribute in vital ways to the growth and development of the community The contributors argue that in the preservation of the cultural heritage of the community the focal responsibility falls rather on the local museums than on the centrally controlled national museums They suggest that the running of local museums must harmonize with the national museums Published in association with The West African Museums Programme and the International African Institute North America Smithsonian Institution Press Museums & the community in West Africa Claude Daniel Ardouin, E. N. Arinze, West African Museums Programme, 1995 MUSEUMS & COMMUNITY W AFRICA PB E. N. Arinze, West African Museums Programme, International African Institute, 1995-06-17 This book draws on the practical experience of the West African Museums Programme in encouraging the establishment of museums which are responsive to local needs Museums as institutions of cultural importance should be responsive to the needs of the community They can contribute in vital ways to its growth and development The contributors show that in the preservation of the cultural heritage of the community the focal responsibility falls more on the local museums than on the centrally controlled national museums The running of local museums must harmonise with the national museum The contributors have wide experience in countries right across West Africa and provide examples of imaginative ways to respond to local needs They also give practical advice on such basic matters as staff training security and the legal framework without which little can be achieved BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Museums & the Community in West Africa West African Museums Programme, 1995 This work draws on the practical experience of the West African Museums Project in encouraging the establishment of museums which are responsive to local needs and which can contribute in vital ways to the growth and development of the community MUSEUMS & COMMUNITY W AFRICA PB ARDOUIN C, 1995-06-17 Museums & Urban Culture in West Africa Alexis Adandé, E. N. Arinze, 2002 National Museums in Africa Raymond Silverman, George Abungu, Peter Probst, 2021-08-30 National Museums in Africa brings the voices of African museum professionals into dialogue with scholars and by so doing is able to consider the state of African national museums from fresh perspectives Covering all regions of the continent the volume s thirteen chapters allow for a deep and nuanced understanding of the intricate interplay between past and present in contemporary Africa Taking stock of the shifting museum landscape in Africa with new players like China and South Korea challenging the conditions of cultural exchange the book demonstrates that national museums are being rediscovered as important sites of political engagement and cultural negotiation This is the first book to critically examine the roles national museums in Africa have played in the societies in which they are situated but it is also the first to consider the roles that national museums might play in current debates concerning the restitution and repatriation of cultural patrimony taken from Africa during the colonial era Informed by a comparative and interdisciplinary perspective this ground breaking book will appeal to anyone interested in museums in Africa It will be particularly useful to scholars and students working in the areas of museum and heritage studies African studies anthropology archaeology history art history and cultural studies Ecomuseums Peter Davis,2011-03-31 This updated second edition reference work looks at recent developments in the field internationally and in terms of new theories and practices Museums and Communities Ivan Karp,Christine Mullen Kreamer,Steven Levine,2013-09-03 Contributors to this volume examine and illustrate struggles and collaborations among museums festivals tourism and historic preservation projects and the communities they represent and serve Essays include the role of museums in civil society the history of African American collections and experiments with museum community dialogue about the design of a multicultural society Community Archaeology and Heritage in Africa Peter R. Schmidt,Innocent Pikirayi,2016-06-17 This volume provides new insights into the distinctive contributions that community archaeology and heritage make to the decolonization of archaeological practice Using innovative approaches the contributors explore important initiatives which have protected and revitalized local heritage initiatives that involved archaeologists as co producers rather than leaders These case studies underline the need completely reshape archaeological practice engaging local and indigenous communities in regular dialogue and recognizing their distinctive needs in order to break away from the top down power relationships that have previously characterized archaeology in Africa Community Archaeology and Heritage in Africa reflects a determined effort to change how archaeology is taught to future generations Through community based participatory approaches archaeologists and heritage professionals can benefit from shared resources and local knowledge and by sharing decision making with members of local communities archaeological inquiry can enhance their way of life ameliorate their human rights concerns and meet their daily needs to build better futures Exchanging traditional power structures for research design and implementation the examples outlined in this volume demonstrate the discipline s exciting capacity to move forward to achieve its potential as a broader more accessible and more inclusive field Museums e the Community in West Africa Emmanuel Arinze,1995 African Museums in the Making Munyaradzi Mawere,Henry Chiwaura,2015-04-03 One of the central theoretical and practical issues in post colonial Africa is the relevance nature and politics at play in the management of museum institutions on the continent Most African museums were established during the 19th and 20th centuries as European imperialists were spreading their colonial tentacles across the continent The attainment of political independence has done little to undo or correct the obnoxious situation Most African countries continue to practice colonial museology despite surging scholarship and calls by some Afro centric and critical scholars the world over to address the quandaries on the continents museum institutions There is thus an unresolved struggle between the past and the present in the management of museums in Africa In countries such as Zimbabwe the struggle in museum management has been precipitated by the sharp economic downturn that has gripped the country since the turn of the millennium In view of all these glitches this book tackles the issue of the management of heritage in Zimbabwe The book draws on the findings by scholars and researchers from different academic orientations and backgrounds to advance the thesis that museums and museology in Zimbabwe face problems of epic proportions that require urgent attention It makes insightful suggestions on possible solutions to the tapestry of the inexorably enigmatic amalgam of complex problems haunting museum institutions in Zimbabwe calling for a radical transformation of museology as a discipline in the process This book should appeal to policy makers scholars researchers and students from disciplines such as museology archaeology social cultural anthropology and culture and heritage studies Ecomuseums 2nd Edition Peter Davis,2011-06-02

Museums, Refugees and Communities Domenico Sergi,2021-04-21 Museums Refugees and Communities explores the ways in which museums in Germany The Netherlands and the UK have responded to the complexities and ethical dilemmas involved in discussing the reasons for and issues surrounding contemporary refugee displacements Building upon an ethnographic study carried out in the UK with refugees from the Democratic Republic of Congo the book explores how object led approaches can inspire new ways of thinking about and analysing refugees experiences and European museums work with their communities Enlarging the developing body of research on museums increasing engagement with human rights and focusing in particular on the social cultural and practical dimensions of community engagement practices with refugees the book also aims to inform growing debates on museums as sites of activism Museums Refugees and Communities offers an innovative and interdisciplinary examination of museum work with and about refugees As such it should appeal to researchers academics and students engaged in the study of museums heritage migration ethics community engagement culture sociology and anthropology Archaeology, Heritage and Tourism in West Africa Samuel Oluwale

Ogundele,2024-10-11 West Africa is a rich storehouse of heritage resources belonging to different time periods Archaeologists attempt to exhume analyse and interpret aspects of human history found in artifacts and their contexts The longstanding assumption that archaeology is simply a science of the past with little thought for the present must be rejected This book makes a striking argument for a curricular revolution which taps into the strengths of such allied fields as heritage tourism and museum management which come together to constitute Cultural Resource Management CRM This account reveals in an inspiringly clear fashion that the era of conceptualising archaeology as a near complete academic exercise is over Trans disciplinary knowledge application such as that which is found in CRM has the capacity to create employment opportunities for archaeologists and other cultural resource management graduates in West Africa and beyond It is time to take a first step in constructing the pathways of progress in the competitive world of modern education Museums and Their Communities Sheila E. R. Watson,2007 Using case studies drawn from all areas of museum studies Museums and their Communities explores the museums as a site of representation identity and memory and considers how it can influence its community Focusing on the museum as an institution and its social and cultural setting Sheila Watson examines how museums use their roles as informers and educators to empower or to ignore communities Looking at the current debates about the role of the museum she considers contested values in museum functions and examines provision power ownership responsibility and institutional issues This book is of great relevance for all disciplines as it explores and questions the role of the museum in modern society Museum Revolutions Simon Knell,Suzanne MacLeod,Sheila Watson,2007-09-12 Capturing the richness of the museum studies discipline Museum Revolutions is the ideal text for museum studies courses providing a wide range of interlinked themes and the latest thought and research from experts in the field Liberating Culture Christina Kreps,2013-04-15 Using examples of indigenous models from Indonesia the Pacific Africa and native North America Christina Kreps illustrates how the growing recognition of indigenous curation and concepts of cultural heritage preservation is transforming conventional museum practice Liberating Culture explores the similarities and differences between Western and non Western approaches to objects museums and curation revealing how what is culturally appropriate in one context may not be in another For those studying museum culture across the world this book is essential reading Museums as Agents for Social Change Njabulo Chipangura,Jesmael Mataga,2021-04-11 Museums as Agents for Social Change is the first comprehensive text to examine museum practice in a decolonised moment moving beyond known roles of object collection and presentation Drawing on studies of Mutare museum a regional museum in Eastern Zimbabwe this book considers how museums with inherited colonial legacies are dealing with their new environments The book provides an examination of Mutare museum s activism in engaging with topical issues affecting its surrounding community and Chipangura and Mataga demonstrate how new forms of engagement are being deployed to attract new audiences whilst dealing with issues such as economic livelihoods poverty displacement climate change and education Illustrating how recent programmes have helped to reposition Mutare museum as a decolonial agent of social change and an important community anchor institution the book also demonstrates how other museums can move beyond the colonial preoccupation with the gathering of collections conservation and presentation of cultural heritage to the public Museums as Agents for Social Change will primarily be of interest to academics and students working in the fields of museum and heritage studies history archaeology and anthropology It should also be appealing to museum professionals around the world who are interested in learning more about how to decolonise their museum Museums & History in West Africa West African Museums Programme,International African Institute,2000 Representing museums throughout western Africa including those in Benin Ghana Nigeria and Senegal twenty four contributors argue that their institutions must become active research related centres capable of developing historical knowledge and communicating it locally They urge museums throughout the sub region to focus their collection building strategies to use indigenous material culture to research recent social and cultural changes and to harness family histories in their efforts to convey their findings more fully and root their activities more firmly
