Crossfire Roberta Johnson, 2021-10-21 The marriage of philosophy and fiction in the first third of Spain s twentieth century was a fertile one It produced some truly notable offspring novels that cross genre boundaries to find innovative forms and treatises that fuse literature and philosophy in new ways In her illuminating interdisciplinary study of Spanish fiction of the Silver Age Roberta Johnson places this important body of Spanish literature in context through a synthesis of social literary and philosophical history Her examination of the work of Miguel de Unamuno Pio Baroja Azorin Ramon Perez de Ayala Juan Ramon Jimenez Gabriel Miro Pedro Salinas Rosa Chacel and Benjamin Jarnes brings to light philosophical frictions and debates and opens new interpersonal and intertextual perspectives on many of the period s most canonical novels Johnson reformulates the traditional discussion of generations and isms by viewing the period as an intergenerational complex in which writers with similar philosophical and personal interests constituted dynamic groupings that interacted and constantly defined and redefined one another Current narratological theories including those of Todorov Genette Bakhtin and Martinez Bonati assist in teasing out the intertextual maneuvers and philosophical conflicts embedded in the novels of the period while the sociological and biographical material bridges the philosophical and literary analyses The result solidly grounded in original archival research is a convincingly complete picture of Spain s intellectual world in the first thirty years of this century Crossfire should revolutionize thinking about the Generation of 98 and the Generation of 14 by identifying the heterogeneous philosophical sources of each and the writers reactions to them in fiction
