Precariousness, Community and Participation Matthew Johnson, 2018-12-07 This book attempts to explore the effects of neoliberalism on particular forms of community Guy Standing 2011 has popularised the notion of precariousness to describe the unpredictable neoliberal conditions faced by radically different people throughout the world Members of Standing's precariat lack occupational identities treat work and other moneymaking activities instrumentally are focused on the short term and have no shadow of the future hanging over their actions leaving little incentive to sustain long term relationships and productive but unpaid social activities This issue presents an interdisciplinary account of the challenges faced by communities at a time in which neoliberalism seems unchecked and uncheckable by the rise of nationalist populism At points responses are presented but it is perhaps reflective of the general sense of helplessness of those committed to tackling neoliberalism that the final article highlights serious deficits in an approach commonly presented as a practicable response basic income In the spirit of participation each article is accompanied by a reply by a non academic as well as an academic This ought not to be seen as tokenism the experience of the project has been that discussions can be advanced much more effectively through engagement with community members and professionals The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Global Discourse section brings together theory and practice and identifies ten Propositions for Practice in developing adult learning for citizenship primarily in community contexts Perceptions of Citizenship Responsibility Amongst Botswana Youth Julia Preece, Dama Mosweunyane, 2004 Botswana is widely regarded as a model African democracy Since independence in 1966 the country has enjoyed unparalleled peace and stability within the African continent It has also experienced unprecedented changes from being one of the ten poorest countries in the world to its current status as a middle income country However in spite of the advances of the last thirty years it still experiences high levels of poverty and inequality Perceived inhibitors to progress are attributed to the younger generation's erosion of traditional values and a collective reluctance to take pride in the nation This book offers an analysis of how the younger generation is reconciling globalisation influences with traditional cultural values and belief systems It argues that this generation does care about their country but has changed priorities It further recommends educational interventions that might nurture the best of Botswana's cultural heritage whilst ensuring an active democratic citizenry that is relevant to modernity The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2001 Learning Communities and Imagined Social Capital Jocey Quinn, 2010-04-01 This volume critically explores themes of belonging learning and community drawing on a range of research studies conducted with adult learners in formal and informal contexts and employing interdisciplinary theory from education feminist theory cultural studies and human geography Dominant but simplistic and regulatory ideas and practices of learning community in higher education and lifelong learning are critiqued Instead Jocey Quinn argues that learners gain most benefit from creating their own symbolic communities and networks which help to produce imagined social capital A rich variety of empirical data is used to explore and demonstrate how such imagined social capital works Boletín Internacional de Bibliografía Sobre Educación, 2002 Aanwinsten van de Centrale Bibliotheek (Queteletfonds) Bibliothèque centrale (Fonds Quetelet), 2001 Social Work, Poverty and Social Exclusion Dave Backwith, 2015-04-16 What do we mean by the terms poverty and social exclusion in 21st century Britain What impact do continuing austerity measures have on low income families How can social workers support and empower service users to escape poverty An understanding of social division social exclusion and poverty is fundamental to the ethos of social work This book relates poverty and social exclusion to social work practice offering a fresh approach to the challenges social workers face in helping clients out of poverty The book begins by examining the challenges posed by growing poverty set against cuts in services and tightening eligibility criteria The book argues that the impact social exclusion and poverty has on service users' lives requires social workers to gain a greater awareness of both concepts and their relationship to social work practice Chapters consider topical issues such as the role poverty plays in child protection issues and the dilemmas social workers face in working with asylum seekers A theme of the book is inequalities in health that most service users suffer more illness disability and premature death because they are poor and excluded Focused on what social workers can do in their practice to address social exclusion the book supports students in developing relationship based and community oriented approaches that can actively alleviate poverty Key features of the book include Numerous quotations and vignettes give insights into social workers and service users real experiences What Do You Think exercises encourage students to actively engage with the issues and think critically about their understanding of poverty Reflective questions are included to spark lively debate around ethics beliefs and values This book is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate social work students at all levels It will also be a key resource for sociology and social policy students seeking an understanding of poverty Dave Backwith s new book should be required reading for every social work student as well as by managers policy makers and experienced practitioners Paul Bywaters Professor of Social Work Coventry University Dave Backwith provides social work with a strong values based argument for politically engaged practice to address poverty and social exclusion The book is informed by ecological and health inequalities perspectives and with chapters on children and families older people and mental health should be essential reading for all social workers Kate Karban Senior Lecturer in Social Work University of Bradford Co convenor Social Work and Health Inequalities Network 2010 2014 This book provides a comprehensive review of theory research and policy on poverty and social exclusion It identifies the forces which have narrowed social work s responses to poor people and how practice could become more generous and imaginative Bill Jordan Professor of Social Work Plymouth University UK Dave Backwith has successfully argued that social workers need to practice with a full appreciation of the impact of poverty and social exclusion on the people who need their assistance This is as he argues essential for all areas of social work His book therefore represents essential reading for all connected to the delivery of social work students practitioners and managers alike Mark Lymbery University of Nottingham UK Social Technologies for Inclusive Development: Multilevel Policy and Practices Kleinsy Bonilla, Susana Arrechea, Luis Guillermo Velásquez Pérez, Efraín Bámaca-López, 2025-05-15 Social technologies fostering inclusion represent a contemporary research paradigm that has resurfaced Broader discussions aim to expand the scope of science technology and innovation beyond purely economic considerations into the social domain Hern n Thomas suggests that innovative solutions encompass a broad spectrum of approaches for conceiving constructing implementing and overseeing technological interventions tailored to address pressing social and environmental challenges These solutions strive to stimulate the emergence of socially inclusive and sustainable economic dynamics in various areas including nutrition housing energy clean water access transportation and communication This multifaceted approach reflects a commitment to harnessing technology s potential for the betterment of society at large This Research Topic focuses on showcasing experiences strategies and policies in science technology and innovation primarily in the context of Latin America Such experiences strategies and policies aim to reduce social disparities and stimulate development This article collection welcomes multifaceted approaches including comparative analysis policy evaluations community case studies and more Additionally it engages with theoretical discussions on the influence of scientific and technological paradigms on public
