Anchimbe, Stephen A. Mforteh, 2011-10-27 This volume investigates sociolinguistic discourses identity choices and their representations in postcolonial national and social life and traces them to the impact of colonial contact The chapters stitch together current voices and identities emerging within both ex colonized and ex colonizer communities as each copes with the social lingual cultural and religious mixes triggered by colonialism These mixes reflected in the five thematic parts of the book postcolonial identities nationhood discourses translating the postcolonial living the postcolonial and colonizing the colonizer call for deeper investigations of postcolonial communities using emic approaches Bibliographie Linguistique de L'annee 1999 Mark Janse, Hella Olbertz, Sijmen Tol, 2003-11-30 Setting out the historical national and religious characteristics of the Italians as they impact on the integration within the European Union this study makes note of the two characteristics that have an adverse effect on Italian national identity cleavages between north and south and the dominant role of family It discusses how for Italians family loyalty is stronger than any other allegiance including feelings towards their country their nation or the EU Due to such subnational allegiances and values this book notes that Italian civic society is weaker and engagement at the grass roots is less robust than one finds in other democracies leaving politics in Italy largely in the hands of political parties The work concludes by noting that EU membership however provides no magic bullet for Italy it cannot change internal cleavages the Italian worldview and family values or the country s mafia dominated power matrix and as a result the underlying absence of fidelity to a shared polity Italian or European leave the country as ungovernable as ever

Germanic Standardizations Ana Deumert, Wim Vandenbussche, 2003-10-27 This volume presents a comparative socio-historical study of the Germanic standard languages Afrikaans Danish Dutch English Faroese Frisian German Icelandic Low German Luxemburgish Norwegian Scots Swedish Yiddish as well as the Caribbean and Pacific Creole languages Each of the 16 original chapters systematically discusses central aspects of the standardization process including dialect selection codification elaboration and diffusion of the standard norm across the speech community as well as incipient processes of de-standardization and re-standardization The strongly comparative orientation of the contributions allow for the identification of broad similarities as well as intriguing differences across a wide range of historically and socially diverse language histories Two chapters by the editors provide an overview of the theoretical background and rationale of comparative standardization research and outline directions for further research in the area The volume will be of interest to language historians as well as sociolinguists in general
