Theological Perspectives on Reimagining Friendship and Disability Martina Vuk, 2023-07-14 This book rethinks the anthropology of friendship from the perspective of theology and disability and suggests the respect for human dignity and the person's vulnerability as the criterion in reconsidering such an anthropology. The reality of disability is not only the reality of being in the world but also concerns the concept of the meaning of otherness and being created as an image of God. The constructive critique that the emergence of disability as a human condition posits to theological and ethical concepts is the quest of the renewal of theological and ethical knowledge on the meaning of disability, otherness and friendship. The theological and anthropological entities such as disability and friendship are interconnected in a sense that the meaning of the one needs to be explained in the light of the other and vice versa. The renewal of certain anthropological categories in such regard is a search for a deeper understanding of humanity not apart from but in light of the presence of disability. The book examines the anthropological and theological systems regarding the theme of friendship and disability.
