Psychotherapy Process Research Vol 143 Paradigmatic And Narrative Approaches:

Research for the Psychotherapist Jay L. Lebow, Paul H. Jenkins, 2018-05-04 While empirical scientific research has much to offer to the practice oriented therapist in training it is often difficult to effectively engage the trainee beginning practitioner or graduate student in the subject of research This fully revised and expanded edition of Research for the Psychotherapist is an engaging accessible guide that bridges the gap between gathering analyzing presenting and discussing research and incorporating that research into practice The authors present concise chapters that distill research findings and clearly apply them to practical issues while also helping readers progress as consumers of relevant research New Frontiers in Offender Treatment Elizabeth L. Jeglic, Cynthia Calkins, 2018-11-16 This book reviews how new and promising evidence based interventions are being used with those involved in the criminal justice system While there has been an increased emphasis on evidence based practice within forensic treatment there remains a disjoint between what we know works and adapting these interventions to those involved in the criminal justice system This book seeks to bridge that gap by providing an overview of what we know works and how that information has been translated into offender treatment In addition it highlights avenues where additional research is needed This book is comprised of three parts In the first part current models of correctional treatment including the Risk Needs Responsivity Model The Good Lives Model and Cognitive Behavioral Models are presented In the second part the chapters address clinical issues such as the therapeutic alliance clinician factors and diversity related issues that impact treatment outcome In the third and final part of the book adaptations of innovative and cutting edge evidence based treatments such as Dialectical Behavior Therapy Trauma Informed Care Mindfulness Motivational Interviewing Assertive Community Treatment Multisystemic Treatment New frontiers in Intimate Partner Violence treatment and the current research on the treatment of those with psychopathy are presented Research supporting these treatment approaches targeting areas such as self management psychological well being treatment engagement and retention and their relationship to recidivism will be reviewed while their adaptation for use with forensic populations is discussed The book concludes with the editors summary of the findings and a discussion of the future of evidence based interventions within the field of forensic psychology The Psychology of Secrets Anita E. Kelly, 2002-01-31 The public revelation of what were once considered extremely private matters is becoming a new social norm Has this movement toward openness gone too far Are there negative consequences to revealing secrets When and why is it helpful to reveal secrets What can be done to alleviate the burden of secrecy Will the anguish of keeping a secret pass in time What factors should enter into deciding to reveal a secret This book addresses these questions Handbook of Qualitative Health Research for Evidence-Based Practice Karin Olson, Richard A. Young, Izabela Z. Schultz, 2015-10-12 This progressive reference redefines qualitative research as a crucial component of evidence based practice and assesses its current and future impact on healthcare Its introductory section explains the value of sociocultural context in case conceptualization and ways this evidence can be integrated with quantitative findings to inform and transform practice The bulk of the book's chapters review qualitative research in diverse areas including pain trauma heart disease COPD and disabling conditions and examine ways of effectively evaluating and applying qualitative data This seismic shift in perception moves the healing professions away from traditional one size fits all thinking and toward responsive patient centered care Among the topics in the Handbook Examining qualitative alternatives to categorical representation The World Health Organization model of health what evidence is needed Qualitative research in mental health and mental illness Qualitative evidence in pediatrics The contribution of qualitative research to medication adherence Qualitative evidence in health policy analysis The Handbook of Qualitative Health Research for Evidence Based Practice offers health and clinical psychologists rehabilitation specialists occupational and physical therapists nurses family physicians and other primary care providers new ways for understanding patients health related experiences and opens up new ways for developing interventions intended to improve health outcomes

COVID-19 and Existential Positive Psychology (PP2.0): The New Science of Self-Transcendence
Paul T. P. Wong, Claude-Hélène Mayer, Gökmen Arslan, In the era of COVID 19 many people have suffered high levels of stress and mental health problems To cope with the widespread of suffering physical psychological social and economical the positive psychology of personal happiness is no longer the sole approach to examine personal wellbeing Other approaches such as Viktor Frankl's theory of self transcendence provide a promising framework for research and intervention on how to achieve resilience wellbeing and happiness through overcoming suffering and self transcendence The existential positive psychology of suffering complements the positive psychology of happiness which is championed by Martin Seligman as two equal halves of the circle of wellbeing and optimal mental health This Research Topic aims to examine the different approaches to Positive Psychology and their influence on individual wellbeing during the COVID 19 era One of the exciting development in the positive psychology of wellbeing is the mounting research on the adaptive benefits of negative emotions such as shame guilt and anger as well as the dialectical process of balancing negative and positive emotions As an example based on all the empirical research and Frankl's self transcendence model Wong has developed the existential positive psychology of suffering PP2.0 as the foundation for flourishing Here are a few main tenets of PP2.0 1 Life is suffering and a constant struggle throughout every stage of development 2 The search for self transcendence is a primary motive guided by the meaning mindset and mindful mindset 3 Wellbeing cannot be sustainable without overcoming and transforming suffering In this Research Topic we welcome diverse approaches discussing the following points The dialectic process of overcoming the challenges of every stage of development as necessary for personal growth and self transcendence The role of self transcendence in resilience virtue meaning and happiness The upside of negative emotions The new science of resilience based on cultivating the resilient mindset and character How to make the best use of suffering to achieve our potentials mental health

Handbook of Experiential Psychotherapy Leslie S. Greenberg, Jeanne C. Watson, Germain

Lietaer,1998-10-08 Integrating the work of leading therapists the book covers both conceptual foundations and current treatment applications The volume delineates a variety of experiential methods and describes newly developed models of experiential diagnosis and case formulation Psychotherapy Process Research Shake G. Toukmanian,David L.

Rennie,1992-06-16 This intriguing volume offers the latest developments in psychotherapy process research and suggests implications for clinical practice It is unique in that equal weight is given to both the paradigmatic and the narrative approaches to explanation The contributions exemplify relatively pure uses of either approach as well as the joint application of each in the same research endeavor Each mode is seen to be especially suited to explaining a particular aspect of the overall therapeutic process consequently the question arises as to whether or not the two approaches can be integrated At various points throughout the volume and particularly in the concluding chapter this question is addressed in terms of the implicit assumption supporting each approach Objectives And Outcomes: Questioning The Practice Of Therapy Elton

Wilson, Jenifer,Syme, Gabrielle,2006-10-01 What do clients look for in psychotherapy Do clients and therapists have the same objectives Is the outcome what the client or therapist hoped for This is an essential book for all those who have wondered what the purpose of psychological therapy is the procedures that are involved and the results that are achieved The authors are experienced psychotherapists who share their personal experiences of the therapeutic process and question these in the light of relevant research Practitioners are interested in linking the objectives and outcomes of therapeutic engagement This book provides a critical assessment of how these links can be used creatively to enhance the effectiveness of their practice in a variety of settings and contexts Taking the form of discourse between the authors the book is accessible to all levels of knowledge and practice It is enlivened with dialogue case studies and a mini research project that was carried out with fellow practitioners in a series of workshops Objectives and Outcomesgives practitioners an overview of current knowledge on these important topics and suggests forms of research that therapists might use in their own work
