Duncan Lyall Burn, Barbara Epstein, 1972-01-01 Evaluation in the Post-Truth World Mita Marra, Karol Olejniczak, Arne Paulson, 2024-04-16
Evaluation in the Post Truth World explores the relationship between the nature of evaluative knowledge the increasing demand in decision making for evaluation and other forms of research evidence and the post truth phenomena of antiscience sentiments combined with illiberal tendencies of the present day Rather than offer a checklist on how to deal with post truth the experts found herein wish to raise awareness and reflection throughout policy circles on the factors that influence our assessment and policy related work in such a challenging environment Journeying alongside the editor and contributors readers benefit from three guiding questions to help identify specific challenges but tools to deal with such challenges How are policy problems conceptualized in the current political climate What is the relationship between expertise and decision making in today s political circumstances How complex has evaluation become as a social practice Evaluation in the Post Truth World will benefit evaluation practitioners at the program and project levels as well as policy analysts and scholars interested in applications of evaluation in the public policy domain Chapters 6 and 11 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at http www taylorfrancis com under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Realities of Free Trade: Two Industry Studies Burn, Duncan Lyall, Atlantic Trade Study Programme, Barbara Epstein, Trade Policy Research Centre, 1972 The Political Economy of Underdevelopment Amiya Kumar Bagchi, 1982-03-31

The nine papers in this volume were written for a conference on research in international trade and finance held at Princeton University in March 1973 Each author was asked to survey research on one major topic with a view to answering three questions What have we learned from recent empirical research What are the major gaps in present knowledge How should we go about filling those gaps When answering the second question authors were urged to look at the practical requirements of those who must make policy concerning the international economy and at the opportunities and insights offered by recent developments in pure theory When answering the third they were urged to look at developments in econometric technique newly available data and work in progress in related fields Developing Countries as Exporters of Technology Sanjaya Lall, 1982-06-18 Towards an Open World Economy F.S.

McFadzean,1972-06-18 International Integration, Market Structure and Prices Yves Bourdet,2024-11-01 Originally published in 1988 this study focusses on international economic integration in relation to the passenger car industry and market in the West European car making countries Germany France Italy Sweden and the UK in the second half of the 20th Century when the revival of protectionism was a key feature of the international trading system The book illustrates the interaction between international integration market structure and firm conduct and the political sphere at the national as well as the supranational level Unlike previous analyses of international integration this book concentrates on a single industry over a significant period Invisible Barriers to Invisible Trade Brian Griffiths,1975-06-18 Mixed Economy Eric Roll,1984-06-18 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1976 Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress,1976 A cumulative list of works represented by Library of Congress printed cards Public Affairs Information Service Bulletin ,1925 Dangerous Peace Alpo M Rusi,2021-11-28 Alpo Rusi provides a broad vision of the strategic landscape for the coming century warning against dangers inherent in the emerging world order He predicts a more complex and potentially hostile multipolar system based on four or five rival trading blocs Despite the centrality of trade rivalries the role of military force will not vanish Although he considers superpower conflict unlikely he expects that lower level conflicts will become more prevalent Consequently Rusi believes that the trading blocs will have to actively pursue security arrangements that will safeguard the traditional role of the nation state Examining the international system from a geopolitical and geoeconomic perspective Alpo Rusi provides a broad vision and bold forecast of the emerging strategic landscape for the coming century An asymmetrical world system is emerging The United States is now the sole true world power it forms the core of a unipolar order characterized by an uneven division of world power and economic resources Rusi argues however that this postCold War order will not survive into the next century Rusi suggests that the power vacuum in the former Soviet empire will be filled by China in Asia and by the European Union in Eastern Europe Russias disintegration and decline in world power status will continue but may have reached its bottom line economically and Islam will gain strength in various parts of the world embracing a new international role He also predicts that the world will be split into four or five distinct trading blocs A European bloc formed around the European Union an East Asian bloc potentially strong interventionist and even aggressive formed around China and the Singapore economic region Japan as a strong and still competitive economic power and a Pan American bloc also strong but potentially isolationist formed around the United States One of the question marks will be the future ability of an orthodox Russia to facilitate conditions for an economic space According to Rusi these trading blocs will develop new political or geopolitical interests For example the European bloc will extract fossil fuels from the former Soviet Union instead of the Middle East thereby changing the existing global trade system Each bloc will have certain internal problems the Europeans will be linked to the unstable successors to the Soviet Union the East Asian Bloc will have to contemplate whether Chinas economic growth and geopolitical expansions will create a new bipolar world in the early twenty first century and the Pan American bloc will struggle with continuing political and economic instability in South and Central America Finally Rusi warns that it is crucial for the European and Pan American blocs to build upon the traditional Euro Atlantic relationship Without it he argues a truly polarized and potentially hostile bloc system will take root most likely lining the Western pan regions against Chinas expansiveness
