Reality Of Aid 199697:

The Reality of Aid 1995 Tony German, Judith Randel, 1996 PART II COUNTRY PROFILES The Reality of Aid 1998-1999
Judith Randel, Tony German with Deborah Ewing, 2013-11-05 NOW IN ITS SIXTH ANNUAL EDITION The Reality of Aid has for the first time analysed the fair share of bilateral aid for basic social services basic education basic health reproductive health nutrition clean water and sanitation that should come from each donor an analysis which shows only two donors meeting their fair share and the G7 nations Canada France Germany Italy Japan UK US falling behind by over US 5 billion This year and next The Reality of Aid focuses on basic education as a right and not a privilege and its role in development cooperation and poverty elimination A key feature of The Reality of Aid 1998 1999 is the ten chapters offering analysis of development cooperation from the perspective of southern NGOs Many of these focus on basic education and raise issues around transparency gender and civil society If policies were programmes and promises were dollars The Reality of Aid could report great progress on the road to eradicating global poverty this year But at a time when donors acknowledge that ending poverty is possible it seems that commitments are being offered instead of resources and real change From the Summary Part I presents a useful Summary highlighting the steps that donors could take now to make progress towards poverty eradication and reviews the trends in development cooperation debt relief measures targeted towards the new millennium and commitment to the goal of ensuring basic education for all Part II gives a full report on the overseas aid performance of OECD country aid donors and the European Union over the last year Part III sets out a Southern perspective on development cooperation Part IV provides at a glance comparisons of donors aid outlook and commitment to development cooperation in the 21st Century poverty eradication gender and public support Part V contains handy reference material Throughout the book information is presented in easily interpreted diagrams and graphs The Reality of Aid has established itself as a unique source of independent evaluation and comment on aid policies and development It is indispensable for all in the field whether in the official or voluntary sectors Indispensable it gives you most of the hard facts you need to know about the major issues New Internationalist The most comprehensive and rigorous independent analysis of the aid and development policies of the world's wealthiest nations Essential reading Charity World The Reality of Aid remains an essential purchase by the libraries of development institutions and an invaluable reference for development practitioners Development Change A reliable watchdog for anyone interested in this important aspect of international relations ORBIT An accessible reference it encompasses many key issues and stimulates further research Commonwealth Comparative Politics Originally published in 1998 Contending Theories on Development Aid Leslie O. Omoruyi, 2017-09-20 This title was first published in 2001 This thorough and comprehensive examination of the nature and pattern of post Cold War aid to sub Saharan Africa provides incisive comparative case studies of the motivations behind the foreign aid policies of key members of the Development Association Committee DAC In one of the most rigorous contemporary efforts to evaluate the adequacy of the dominant theories of international relations on an important subject like foreign aid Dr Omoruyi eschews easy answers to the problem of Africa's marginalization in the international system He provides thoughtful innovative suggestions for promoting a new development partnership between industrialized countries and Africa using a sophisticated quantitative method of inquiry making this text a valuable contribution to social science literature on research methods Aid and Ebb Tide David R. Morrison, 2006-01-01 Aid and Ebb Tide A History of CIDA and Canadian Development Assistance examines Canada's mixed record since 1950 in transferring over 50 billion in capital and expertise to developing countries through ODA It focuses in particular on the Canadian International Development Agency CIDA the organization chiefly responsible for delivering Canada's development assistance Aid and Ebb Tide calls for a renewed and reformed Canadian commitment to development co operation at a time when the gap between the world's richest and poorest has been widening alarmingly and millions are still being born into poverty and human insecurity Aid to Africa Carol Lancaster, 1999-04-15 5 The United States HIV/AIDS Resources Marion L. Peterson, 1995 The Reality of Aid, 1996-97 Tony German, Judith Randel, 1996 This work provides an evaluation of the aid policies of the major donors and their effectiveness in fulfilling their official purpose of relieving poverty and assisting development It concentrates on small scale community based projects analyzing the performance of 24 major donors Japan's Official Development Assistance Japón. Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores, 2001 World Disasters Report, 1996 The East Timor Question Stephen McCloskey, Paul Hainsworth, 2000-08-11 Originally colonized by the Portuguese East Timor was brutally invaded and occupied by Indonesian military forces in 1975 According to the UN this resulted in the death of about a third of the population through massacres starvation and disease Subsequent events in Indonesia however have given rise to expectations of a fundamental change in its position on East Timor Considering the potential for change against a backdrop of growing popular and political support for the Timorese cause this book addresses its emergence as an issue of global importance The authors set out to show how local grassroots individual organizational and campaign initiatives have contributed to this state of affairs in the context of an increased international relations emphasis on ethics international morality and human rights ACFOA Development Dossier, 1996 Humanitarian aid, genocide and mass killings Jean-Hervé Bradol, Marc Le Pape, 2017-01-06 Throughout the 1990s Médecins Sans Frontières MSF faced challenges posed by the genocide of Rwandan Tutsis and a succession of outbreaks of political violence in Rwanda and in its neighbours This book recounts the experiences of the MSF teams working in the field EU development cooperation Karin Arts, Anna Dickson, Anna K. Dickson, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license It is increasingly recognised that EU development cooperation policy has failed to meet its stated aims In this book Arts and Dickson ask the obvious and important question if the policy doesn't work why bother with it The authors assess why EU development policy has become largely ineffective citing among the external causal factors the liberalisation of trade and the growing influence of US and international actors such as the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund upon EU policy. It also considers contributing factors within the EU such as the enlargement of its membership and the resulting shifts in priorities. It is this analysis of internal and external factors affecting the decline of EU development policy that makes this study both innovative and unique. It brings together an impressive range of contributors from different disciplines resulting in a thorough and intelligent assessment of the debate. This study will appeal to advanced level undergraduates and academics of European politics in general, EU integration, development studies and International Relations.

Will to Live João Biehl, 2021-10-12
Will to Live tells how Brazil, against all odds, became the first developing country to universalize access to life-saving AIDS therapies, a breakthrough made possible by an unexpected alliance of activists, government reformers, development agencies and the pharmaceutical industry. But anthropologist João Biehl also tells why this policy, hailed as a model worldwide, has been so difficult to implement among poor Brazilians with HIV/AIDS who are often stigmatized as noncompliant or untreatable, becoming invisible to the public. More broadly, Biehl examines the political economy of pharmaceuticals that lies behind large-scale treatment rollouts, revealing the possibilities and inequalities that come with a magic bullet approach to health care. By moving back and forth between the institutions shaping the Brazilian response to AIDS and the people affected by the disease, Biehl has created a book of unusual vividness, scope and detail. At the core of Will to Live is a group of AIDS patients, unemployed, homeless, involved with prostitution and drugs, that established a makeshift health service. Biehl chronicled the personal lives of these people for over ten years, and Torben Eskerod represents them here in more than one hundred stark photographs. Ethnography, social medicine and art merge in this unique book, illuminating the care and agency needed to extend life amid perennial violence. Full of lessons for the future, Will to Live promises to have a lasting influence in the social sciences and in the theory and practice of global public health.

Regional and Global Regulation of International Trade Francis Snyder, 2002-07-05
The processes of legal and economic integration at a regional and global scale have created powerful legal and economic dilemmas. They challenge the paradigms of constitutionalism, including the State's monopoly of constitutionalism, the autonomy of national political communities and the traditional forms of participation and representation. The phenomena of globalisation and regional forms of governance have promoted the interdependence of national political communities and destroyed the artificial boundaries upon which national constitutional democracies are found and from which they derive their legitimacy. Furthermore, it is inevitable that the development of international trade and economic integration will raise claims for some form of global distributive justice to complement the wealth maximisation arising from free trade. This will come from the gradual development of global forms of political discourse and law-making, challenging State constitutionalism and requiring some of the instruments and theories of constitutionalism. The essays in this collection, written by leading scholars in international trade law, argue the pros and cons of greater regional and global regulation. They conclude that whatever the final framework for international trade, the critical decisions about institutional form and content will be decided in an emerging global political arena They help to identify this political arena who governs it and according to which rules and identify the different institutional alternatives in that global political arena

Stakeholders Ian Smillie, 2013-11-05 This unique study from the OECD Development Centre presents a comprehensive review by independent experts of the relationships and division of responsibility between the 22 member governments of the OECD Development Assistance Committee DAC and NGOs from these donor countries working in international development Additional chapters cover the roles of the European Union and the World Bank Among other themes the book looks at two very significant issues First at the way in which an overemphasis on evaluation may be leading NGOs to focus purely on measuring their output thus choosing activities which are easily accountable Second it examines the important impacts of the evolution in the funding relationship between governments and NGOs from matching grants to contracts where NGOs must increasingly compete for contracts

Access to Justice in Africa and Beyond, 2007 Mayo Internal Medicine Board Review, 1996-97 Udaya B. Prakash, 1996 New Labour, New Hope? Paul Whittingham, 1998 Nation Today, 1992
