Sermons: Bearing on Subjects of the Day Blessed John Henry Newman, Aeterna Press, THOUGH God created the heavens and the earth in six days and then rested yet He rested only to begin a work of another kind for our Lord says My Father worketh hitherto and He adds and I work And at another time He says concerning Himself more expressly I must work the works of Him that sent Me while it is day the night cometh when no man can work And when that night came He said I have finished the work which Thou gavest Me to do It is finished And in the text we are told generally of all men Man goeth forth unto his work and to his labour until the evening The Creator wrought till the Sabbath came the Redeemer wrought till the sun was darkened and it was night The sun ariseth and man goeth forth and works till the evening when the keepers of the house tremble and the strong men bow themselves and those that look out at the windows are darkened and desire fails because man goeth to his long home and the mourners go about the streets when the silver cord is loosed and the golden bowl is broken and the dust returns to the earth as it was and the spirit returns unto God who gave it Aeterna Press

The Performative Ground of Religion and Theatre David V. Mason,2018-10-26 Religious practitioners and theatregoers have much in common So much in fact that we can say that religion is often a theatrical phenomenon and that theatre can be a religious experience By examining the phenomenology of religion we can in turn develop a better understanding of the phenomenology of theatre That is to say religion can show us the ways in which theatre is not fake This study explores the overlap of religion and theatre especially in the crucial area of experience and personal identity Reconsidering ideas from ancient Greece premodern India modern Europe and the recent century it argues that religious adherents and theatre audiences are largely themselves the mechanisms of their experiences By examining the development of the philosophy of theatre alongside theories of religious action this book shows how we need to adjust our views of both Featuring attention to influential notions from Plato and Aristotle from the Natyashastra from Schleiermacher to Sartre Bourdieu and Butler and considering contemporary theories of performance and ritual this is vital reading for any scholar in religious studies theatre and performance studies theology or philosophy      The Ground and Goal of Human Life Charles Gray Shaw,1919
