Reason Violence:

Religion in Reason Tarek R. Dika, Martin Shuster, 2022-11-30 This book presents critical engagements with the work of Hent de Vries widely regarded as one of the most important living philosophers of religion Contributions by a distinguished group of scholars discuss the role played by religion in philosophy the emergence and possibilities of the category of religion and the relation between religion and violence secularism and sovereignty Together they provide a synoptic view of how de Vries's work has prompted a reconceptualization of how religion should be studied especially in relation to theology politics and new media The volume will be of particular interest to scholars of religious studies theology and philosophy

A Democratic Enlightenment Morton Schoolman, 2020-04-03 In A Democratic Enlightenment Morton Schoolman proposes aesthetic education through film as a way to redress the political violence inflicted on difference that society constructs as its racialized gendered Semitic and sexualized other Drawing on Voltaire Diderot and Schiller Schoolman reconstructs the genealogical history of what he calls the reconciliation image a visual model of a democratic ideal of reconciliation he then theorizes through Whitman's prose and poetry and Adorno's aesthetic theory Analyzing The Help 2011 and Gentleman's Agreement 1947 Schoolman shows how film produces a more advanced image of reconciliation than those originally created by modernist artworks Each film depicts violence toward racial and ethnic difference while also displaying a reconciliation image that aesthetically educates the public about how the violence of constructing difference as otherness can be overcome Mounting a democratic enlightenment the reconciliation image in film illuminates a possible politics for challenging the rise of nationalism's violence toward differences in all their diversity

Freedom and Democracy in an Imperial Context Robert Nichols, Jakeet Singh, 2014-03-26 Freedom and Democracy in an Imperial Context Dialogues with James Tully gathers leading thinkers from across the humanities and social sciences in a celebration of and critical engagement with the recent work of Canadian political philosopher James Tully Over the past thirty years James Tully has made key contributions to some of the most pressing questions of our time including interventions in the history of moral and political thought contemporary political philosophy democracy citizenship imperialism recognition and cultural diversity In 2008 he published Public Philosophy in a New Key a two volume work that promises to be one of the most influential and important statements of legal and political thought in recent history This work along with numerous other books and articles is foundational to a distinctive school of political thought influencing thinkers in fields as diverse as Anthropology History Indigenous Studies Law Philosophy and Political Science Critically engaging with James Tully's thought the essays in this volume take up what is his central and ever more pressing question how to enact democratic practices of freedom within and against historically sedimented and actually existing relationships of imperialism

Faith, Reason and Common Sense Paul M. Roddick, 2010-05 Have you ever wondered where religion is concerned what you really believe In FAITH REASON COMMON SENSE the interdependence of religion and culture is examined with care and insight Readers with strong religious convictions may be surprised to discover that the history of religion every religion is both a chronicle of heresy and a reconfiguration of belief In his examination of the relationship between Faith and Reason the author rejects the familiar premise that a life guided by one must exclude the other Although he stresses the importance of examining the faith of our fathers he is respectful of those who in a world dominated by science find guidance and reassurance in their religion Far ranging and insightful drawing on a wealth of sources and opinions there is something for everyone in this challenging and though provoking study Labor-management Disputes in Michigan, Indiana, Ohio: Clinton, Mich., Oct. 15-16; St. Joseph, Mich., Oct. 20-22, Dowagiac, Mich., Oct. 23-24; Michigan City, Ind., Oct. 28-29; Galion, Ohio, Oct. 30-31; Washington, D.C., Nov. 14 and 19, 1947 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor, 1948 Victimhood, Memory, and Consumerism Katja Franko, David Rodríguez Goyes, 2023 Victimhood Memory and Consumerism documents the story of the drug violence in Medellín in the 1980s and 1990s and critically examines the position of its victims Drawing on unique empirical material the book addresses the consequences of commercial exploitation of Medellín's violent past for its victims and for the nature of the city today Regeneration of Values Sushmita Bhowmik, 2025-03-22 A Comparative Study of the Thoughts of Mahatma Gandhi and Sri Aurobindo reflects upon the different concepts of social moral political and religious values philosophized and propagated by Mahatma Gandhi and Sri Aurobindo Both these two great thinkers of nineteenth twentieth century India tried to reconstruct the social moral political and spiritual life of the entire mankind through the revival of the ancient social and cultural values of India However the means adopted by them towards such regeneration of values were different in many respects Here an attempt has been made to make a comparative study of their concepts of the different values as well as the approaches taken by them Making Sense of Radicalization and Violent Extremism Mitja Sardoč, 2022-04-19 This volume brings together interviews with leading scholars to discuss some of the most important issues associated with radicalization violent extremism and terrorism The overall aim of these interviews is to move beyond the conventional wisdom over radicalization and violent extremism best represented by many of its well known slogans metaphors aphorisms alongside various other thought terminating clichés A vast range of topics are tackled in these conversations including issues as diverse as the genealogy of radicalization and violent extremism the rhetoric of emergency politics the language of fear the ethics of securitization mutual radicalization the challenges arising out of the relationship between cognitive and behavioural radicalization Islamism bias in research on radicalization the ethics of espionage as an integral element of the war on terror the epistemic dimension of radicalization the application of the just war conceptual framework to terrorism and the ethics of exceptional means when addressing security related issues to name a few The unifying assumption of the interviews in the volume is the complex nature of radicalization violent extremism and conflicting diversity as well as their interwoven relationship While radicalization has become one of the great buzzwords of the intelligence and security industry pleas for its very abandonment as a useful analytical category have also started to emerge

This book will be of much interest to students of terrorism studies radicalisation violent extremism security studies and International Relations in general Understanding Global Development Research Gordon Crawford, Lena Kruckenberg, Nicholas Loubere, Rosemary Morgan, 2017-01-26 For experienced and inexperienced researchers and practitioners alike this engaging book opens up new perspectives on conducting fieldwork in the Global South Following an inter disciplinary and inter generational approach Understanding Global Development brings into dialogue reflections on fieldwork experiences by leading scholars along with accounts from early career researchers Contributions are organised around six key issues Meaningful participation in fieldwork Working in dangerous environments Gendered experiences of fieldwork Researching elites Conducting fieldwork with marginalised people Fieldwork in development practice The experience led discussion of each of the topics conveys a sense of what it actually feels like to be out in the field and provides readers with useful insights and practical advice A relational framework highlights issues relating to power identity and ethics in development fieldwork and encourages reflection on how researcher engagement with the field shapes our understanding of global development Power John Scott, 2014-04-03 This far reaching study gives a concise and coherent overview of the debates surrounding the analysis of social power The concept of power is outlined and its main dimensions are explored through consideration of various facets command pressure constraint discipline protest and interpersonal power The book examines both the theoretical debates that have arisen and the kinds of empirical materials relevant to them Topics covered include the nature of the contemporary state global economic power world systems business governance professional power social movements and family dynamics Power will be an indispensable introduction for students and researchers in sociology politics and the social sciences generally Comprehensive Crime Control Act of 1983 United States. Bunker, 2016-02-11 This anthology the second of an initial two volume set specifically covers Small Wars Journal writings on Al Qaeda and the Islamic State spanning the years 2012 2014 This set is meant to contribute to U S security debates focusing on radical Islamist global insurgency by collecting diverse SWJ essays into more easily accessible formats Small Wars Journal has long been a leader in insurgency and counterinsurgency research and scholarship with an emphasis on practical applications and policy outcomes in furtherance of U S global and allied nation strategic interests The site is able to lay claim to supporting the writings of many COIN counterinsurgency practitioners This includes Dr David Kilcullen whose early work dating from late 2004 Countering Global Insurgency helped to lay much of the conceptual basis focusing on this threat and as a result greatly helped to facilitate the writings that were later incorporated into these Al Qaeda and Islamic State focused anthologies This volume is composed of sixty six chapters divided into sections on a radical Islamist OPFORs opposition forces and context and b U S allied policy and counter radical Islamist strategies The work also contains a preface by Matt Begert a foreword by Dr Daveed Gartenstein Ross and Bridget Moreng an introduction a postscript an extensive notes section and editor and contributor biographies on sixty four individuals as well as an acronyms listing and an initial About SWJ and foundation section

The Politics of Piety Megan C. Armstrong, 2004 The Politics of Piety situates the Franciscan order at the heart of the religious and political conflicts of the late sixteenth century to show how a medieval charismatic religious tradition became an engine of political change The friars used their redoubtable skills as preachers intellectual training at the University of Paris and personal and professional connections with other Catholic reformers and patrons to successfully galvanize popular opposition to the spread of Protestantism throughout the sixteenth century By 1588 the friars used these same strategies on behalf of the Catholic League to prevent the succession of the Protestant heir presumptive Henry of Navarre to the French throne This book contributes to our understanding of religion as a formative political impulse throughout the sixteenth century by linking the long term political activism of the friars to the emergence of the French monarchy of the seventeenth century Megan C Armstrong is assistant professor of early modern Europe in the History Department of the University of Utah

Embodying Forgiveness L. Gregory Jones, 1995-08-31 In an engaging and interesting style that draws on a wide variety of literature as well as on Scripture and theological texts Jones shows how the practices of Christian forgiveness are richer and more comprehensive than often thought

Bombs and Ballots Dr Krista Wiegand, 2013-03-28 Eventually most terrorist and guerrilla groups are defeated by governments or gradually die off

sometimes becoming political parties democratically participating in the non violent governance of their states Yet some terrorist and guerrilla groups maintain military capabilities using violence and democratic participation simultaneously Here Krista E Wiegand examines the different political strategies that Islamist terrorist and guerrilla groups use to achieve their political objectives Focussing on Hezbollah in Lebanon and Hamas in Palestine Wiegand skilfully reveals the factors that determine why Islamist militant groups become involved in governance as political parties how mainstream governments may or may not accept them as legitimate why some groups like al Gama a al Islamiya in Egypt renounce guerrilla tactics and how some groups govern whilst employing political violence Bombs and Ballots is a valuable contribution to the study of state society relations in the Middle East exposing the blurred line between terrorist activity and governance The Palgrave Handbook of Philosophy and Public Policy David Boonin,2018-10-08 This book brings together a large and diverse collection of philosophical papers addressing a wide variety of public policy issues Topics covered range from long standing subjects of debate such as abortion punishment and freedom of expression to more recent controversies such as those over gene editing military drones and statues honoring Confederate soldiers Part I focuses on the criminal justice system including issues that arise before during and after criminal trials Part II covers matters of national defense and sovereignty including chapters on military ethics terrorism and immigration Part III which explores political participation manipulation and standing includes discussions of issues involving voting rights the use of nudges and claims of equal status Part IV covers a variety of issues involving freedom of speech and expression Part V deals with questions of justice and inequality Part VI considers topics involving bioethics and biotechnology Part VII is devoted to beginning of life issues such as cloning and surrogacy and end of life issues such as assisted suicide and organ procurement Part VIII navigates emerging environmental issues including treatments of the urban environment and extraterrestrial environments Homicidal Ecologies Deborah J. Yashar,2018-12-06 Why has violence spiked in Latin America s contemporary democracies What explains its temporal and spatial variation Analyzing the region s uneven homicide levels this book maps out a theoretical agenda focusing on three intersecting factors the changing geography of transnational illicit political economies the varied capacity and complicity of state institutions tasked with providing law and order and organizational competition to control illicit territorial enclaves These three factors inform the emergence of homicidal ecologies subnational regions most susceptible to violence in Latin America After focusing on the contemporary causes of homicidal violence the book analyzes the comparative historical origins of weak and complicit public security forces and the rare moments in which successful institutional reform takes place Regional trends in Latin America are evaluated followed by original case studies of Central America which claims among the highest homicide rates in the world The Highway of Despair Robyn Marasco,2015-03-24 Hegel s highway of despair introduced in his Phenomenology of Spirit is the tortured path traveled by natural consciousness on its way to freedom Despair the passionate residue of Hegelian critique also indicates fugitive opportunities for freedom and preserves the principle of hope against all hope Analyzing the works of an eclectic cast of thinkers Robyn Marasco considers the dynamism of despair as a critical passion reckoning with the forms of historical life forged along Hegel's highway The Highway of Despair follows Theodor Adorno Georges Bataille and Frantz Fanon as they each read resist and reconfigure a strand of thought in Hegel's Phenomenology of Spirit Confronting the twentieth century collapse of a certain revolutionary dialectic these thinkers struggle to revalue critical philosophy and recast Left Hegelianism within the contexts of genocidal racism world war and colonial domination Each thinker also re-centers the role of passion in critique Arguing against more recent trends in critical theory that promise an escape from despair Marasco shows how passion frustrates the resolutions of reason and faith Embracing the extremism of what Marx in the spirit of Hegel called the ruthless critique of everything existing she affirms the contemporary purchase of radical critical theory resulting in a passionate approach to political thought
