

I don't have to try too hard to please you or impress you.

You have accepted my flaws with open arms and still think I am imperfectly perfect.

I skip a heart beat every time I look at you.

Even a simple 'I Love You' sounds so good coming out of your mouth.

You are always quick to make up after fights, and genuinely put in efforts.

You always know how to make me laugh even in the most serious of situations.

We both tend to act super crazy and weird at times without judging each other.

You fill me up with positivity when I am feeling down.

You have great respect and patience for people around you.

The way you talk about me to your friends.

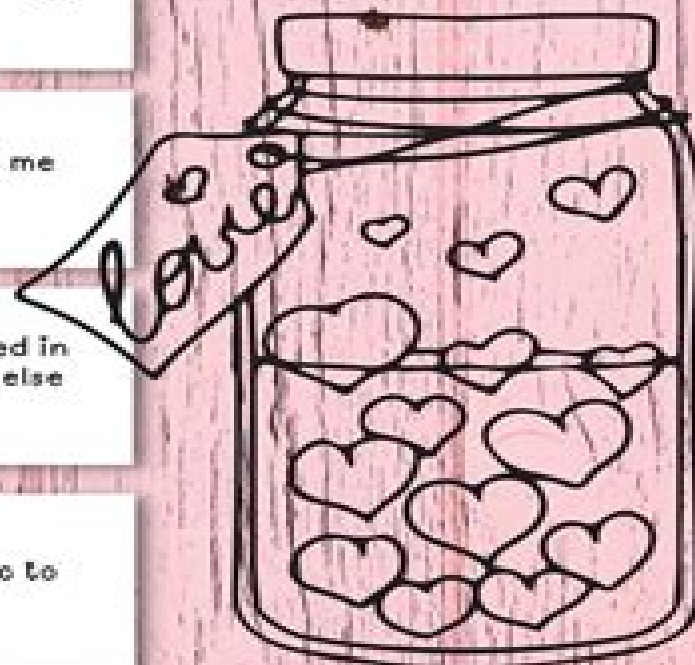

You just don't make me, but also my heart smile.

You have always believed in me, even when nobody else did.

You are the first person I want to share good news with and turn to when times are bad.

Your voice is like music to my ears.

The Rationality of Love Hichem Naar, 2022-10-03 Love has been the subject of much fascination It is indeed one of those things which elude us in many ways The long lasting disagreement over love's nature is unsurprising In light of this a piecemeal approach to love is in order Instead of asking what love is down the line we might need to investigate its various features and its connection to other things The Rationality of Love addresses the question whether love belongs paradoxically enough to the realm of reason whether love belongs to the class of responses such as belief and action that admit of norms of justification and rationality Are there normative reasons to love someone Can it be an appropriate or fitting response to an individual Can it be rational Or is love like perceptual experiences sensations and urges the sort of thing we just have and for which we cannot be rationally criticizable Hichem Naar provides a sustained defense of the rationality of love There are reasons to love others reasons provided by the unique value of each individual This will in turn rule out popular accounts of love which deny love's rationality and vindicate those accounts that make room for it Drawing on various domains of philosophical inquiry such as the philosophy of mind the philosophy of normativity and epistemology Naar provides a careful assessment of the various positions in the debate over reasons for love and develops his own answer to the normative question about love

Marriage and Cohabitation Alison Diduck, 2017-03-02 The law has long been interested in marriage and conjugal cohabitation and in the range of public and private obligations that accrue from intimate living. This collection of classic articles explores that legal interest while at the same time locating marriage and cohabitation within a range of intimate affiliations. It offers the perspectives of a number of international scholars on questions of how, if at all, our different ways of intimacy ought to be recognised and regulated by law.

Christodoulidis, 2013-12-01 Law is the great concealer and law is everywhere Or so claimed Marxists once upon a time Law was imbricated within the mode of production and productive relations themselves it intruded brusquely within alien categories re appearing bewigged and gowned in the form of ideology it was an arm of politics and politics was one of its arms it was an academic discipline subjected to the rigour of its own autonomous logic it contributed to the definition of the self identity of both the rulers 1 and the ruled Does the old critique of domination still hold any sway Apparently not Or so even scholars of the far Left keep reminding us in their eagerness to embrace law and proclaim their allegiance to the new constitutional politics of civil society Old Marxists now describe popular sovereignty as co original with and democracy internally linked to 2 constitutional rights and find it hard to remember what it was they once disagreed with liberals about No tension left between emancipatory politics and oppressive law instead we have reciprocal constitution simultaneous realisation In the Left s embracing of the new constitutionalisms its old critique of law the critique of the law s concealment of class inequality class conflict and class action is left behind      The Burning Flame of Love Jean Maalouf, 2017-08-17 Nothing is neither fuller nor better in heaven and earth Every authentic love story is in its essence a journey toward God and every time we truly love we unveil the face of God because God is love 1 John 4 16 No wonder Thomas Kempis affirmed that nothing is sweeter than love nothing stronger nothing higher nothing wider nothing more pleasant nothing fuller nor better in heaven and earth because love is born of God and cannot rest but in God above all things But if it is so why in the world do we find ourselves very often dissatisfied with our love life and why do we have so many dysfunctional relationships with our families neighbors and others Why do we seem to love to hate each other and make enemies rather than friends not only with individuals and groups but also with other nations as well What is missing from our earthly love What has happened to love To these questions and to many more Dr Maalouf whose focus is one of gentle revolution in human development as leading critics said when describing his prolific works Is suggesting here a different way of seeing the reality of love Although it is based on psychological sociological philosophical and theological principles this adopted way conveys the message through a poetic contemplative and mystical method in the style of Meister Eckhart and St John of the Cross This is not intended to be a comprehensive study on love but a fresh awakening to the existential deeper and richer level of consciousness of the living love for the love of one another John 13 34 is not just a commodity for social arrangement but the evidence of our divine origin and destiny and the critical condition for our very survival Thus a book like this should be read meditatively the way one listens to a great symphony or perceives a masterpiece in an art museum and comprehensively for it is not just the total sum of its paragraphs as a symphony and a painting are not the total sum of their different notes and colors Then wonder of wonders one will realize that there is nothing more mysterious more magical more life changing than love It is indeed the philosophers stone that converts whatever it touches into a golden reality Then everything will start to make sense for nothing not even all the money in the
