blonds So Mary withdrew and turned to books and a world of make believe However there are happy times too Once a month the Martins and Jeffersons go on a picnic to a local park where the children play on the playground equipment and go for exciting boat rides Another time they attend a war bond rally where The Sons of the Pioneers along with Roy Rogers and his horse Trigger are the main attraction And theres the Fourth of July picnic where one of the rockets went astray and caused all kinds of excitement Theres also travel One Christmas four families of the Martin relatives caravan by automobile to Texas to spend the holidays with the rest of the family Along the road they run into all types of excitement rain wind snow ice flooded roads and even a cattle drive Finally they reach their destination and its a whirlwind of new experiences for Mary The cousins join in building a snowman and then proceed to have a snowball fight Its a rare treat since there is no snow in

take courage spirit and science to save it      Oldest Living Confederate Widow Tells All Allan Gurganus, 2010-09-08 Allan Gurganus's Oldest Living Confederate Widow Tells All became an instant classic upon its publication. Critics and readers alike fell in love with the voice of ninety-nine year old Confederate widow Lucy Marsden, one of the most entertaining and loquacious heroines in American literature. Lucy married at the turn of the twentieth century when she was fifteen and her husband was fifty. If Colonel William Marsden was a veteran of the War for Southern Independence, Lucy became a veteran of the war with a unique perspective on Southern history and Southern manhood. Lucy's story encompasses everything from the tragic death of a Confederate boy soldier to the feisty narrator's daily battles in the home, complete with visits from a mohawk-coiffed candy striper. Oldest Living Confederate Widow Tells All is a marvel of narrative showmanship and proof that brilliant emotional storytelling remains at the heart of great fiction.
