

A photograph of two golden shoe lasts (molds) placed on a large, textured, grey rock. The rock is positioned diagonally across the frame, with its peak towards the top left. The shoe lasts are positioned on the upper part of the rock, one slightly higher and further back than the other. They are both facing towards the right. The background is a plain, light grey wall. The lighting is soft, creating subtle shadows on the rock's surface.

Despite the steady rise in adaptations of Samuel Beckett s work across the world following the author s death in 1989 Beckett s afterlives is the first book length study dedicated to this creative phenomenon The collection employs interrelated concepts of adaptation remediation and appropriation to reflect on Beckett s own evolving approach to crossing genre boundaries and to analyse the ways in which contemporary artists across different media and diverse cultural contexts including the UK Europe the USA and Latin America continue to engage with Beckett The book offers fresh insights into how his work has kept inspiring both practitioners and audiences in the twenty first century operating through methodologies and approaches that aim to facilitate and establish the study of modern day adaptations not just of Beckett but other multimedia authors as well Rebecca Horn Armin Zweite, Katharina Schmidt, Rebecca Horn, Doris von Drahten, 2006

This book is the first publication devoted to a previously largely overlooked group of works by the internationally acclaimed artist Rebecca Horn her rich and diverse graphic oeuvre The drawings completed by Rebecca Horn since the sixties include preliminary studies for sculptures works produced in conjunction with her sculptures and installations and entirely autonomous pieces Many of these diagrams scores technical designs and evidently spontaneous drawings are enriched with collaged objects printed words and lines of poetry BOOK JACKET
