critical insight for creating cultural contexts for learning conducive to effective cross cultural and cross racial teaching Chapters in the first section explore white women s role in establishing and maintaining school environments that cater to Eurocentric sensibilities and white racial preferences for learning and social interaction Authors in the second section discern the implications of white images whiteness and white racial identity formation for preparing and professionally developing white women teachers to be effective educators Chapters in the third section of the book emphasize the centrality of race in negotiating academic interactions that demonstrate culturally responsive teaching Each chapter in this book is written to investigate the intersectionality of race cultural responsive pedagogies and teaching identities as it relate to teaching in multiethnic environments In addition the book offers solution oriented practices to equip white women and any other reader to respond appropriately and adequately to the needs of racially diverse students in American schools
