Rebellious Hearts:

Help! My Teen is Rebellious Dave Coats, Judi Coats, 2016-12-30 A small book offering Biblical counsel to parents of rebellious teenagers Dave and Judi Coats were stunned when their teenage daughter said to them "You are not going to tell me what to do." Struggles with their teens drove them to their knees in prayer and to the Word of God for answers about teenage rebellion. Here they share the truths they discovered, the practical advice that helped, and the hope they found in the power of the gospel and God's grace to change.

Eat Your Heart Out Peta Mathias, 2019-11-05 In a world of hate, let's serve up some love. Peta Mathias has encountered many a lovelorn tale on her gastronomic travels around the world. Searching further, she has unearthed more stories: the heart-warming and heart-rending, the passionate and poignant, the macabre and merry, and in these retellings brings them all to life. With her characteristic wit and colour, she also dishes up many of the ingredients of love: intriguing courtship rituals such as bundling and the apple slice dance, poetry penned by those with their own stories to tell, and of course romantic recipes, purported aphrodisiacs, and alluring delicacies. Entertaining, hilarious, and informative, this book is a smorgasbord of love.

The Oxford Handbook of Jewish Music Studies Tina Frühauf, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of Jewish Music Studies is the most comprehensive and expansive critical handbook of Jewish music published to date. The chapters form a first truly global look at Jewish music, including studies from Central and East Asia, Europe, Australia, the Americas, and the Arab world. The Handbook provides a resource that researchers, scholars, and educators will use as the most important and authoritative overview of work within music and Jewish studies.

Fatal Women of Romanticism Adriana Craciun, 2002-12-12 Incarnations of fatal women or femmes fatales recur throughout the works of women writers in the Romantic period. Adriana Craciun demonstrates how portrayals of femmes fatales or fatal women played an important role in the development of Romantic women's poetic identities and informed their exploration of issues surrounding the body, sexuality, and politics. Craciun covers a wide range of writers and genres from the 1790s through the 1830s. She discusses the work of well-known figures including Mary Wollstonecraft as well as lesser-known writers like Anne Bannerman. By examining women writers' fatal women in historical, political, and medical contexts, Craciun uncovers a far-ranging debate on sexual difference. She also engages with current research on the history of the body and sexuality, providing an important historical precedent for modern feminist theory's ongoing dilemma regarding the status of woman as a sex.

Hope and Restoration Hei Yin Yip,2021-04-19 The first twenty four chapters of the book of Ezekiel are characterised by vehement declarations of judgement This observation leaves the impression that Ezekiel 1 7 is devoid of references to hope and restoration However there is a redactional stratum in this section that supplemented the texts with material that conveys restoration and hope for the future In Ezekiel 1 7 many of these additions focus on priestly topics The motif of restoration in the redactional material of Ezekiel 3 5 is expressed by the reinstatement of Ezekiel in his priestly role This editorial emphasis on Ezekiel as priest in the redactional material suggests that the redaction was influenced by Zechariah 3 a text that depicts the reinstitution of the exiled Zadokite priesthood Moreover the redactional material of Ezekiel 6 7 drew inspiration from the Law of the Temple in Ezekiel 43 46 as the redactors sought to enhance Ezekiel s priestly role The study provides new insights into how redactors who may have been associated with the Zadokite priesthood inserted the message of hope and restoration into the literary unit Ezekiel 1 7 during the post exilic period Eyes to See the Revelation T.
