Rebirth In Washington The Christian Impact In The Nations Capital:

Rebirth in Washington Wallace Henley, 1977-01-01 The End of Empathy John W. Compton, 2020-07-01 When polling data showed that an overwhelming 81% of white evangelicals had voted for Donald Trump in the 2016 presidential election commentators across the political spectrum were left aghast Even for a community that had been tracking further and further right for decades this support seemed decidedly out of step How after all could an amoral twice divorced businessman from New York garner such devoted admiration from the most vociferous of values voters That this same group had not a century earlier rallied national support for such progressive causes as a federal minimum wage child labor laws and civil rights made the Trump shift even harder to square In The End of Empathy John W Compton presents a nuanced portrait of the changing values of evangelical voters over the course of the last century To explain the rise of white Protestant social concern in the latter part of the nineteenth century and its sudden demise at the end of the twentieth Compton argues that religious conviction by itself is rarely sufficient to motivate empathetic political behavior When believers do act empathetically championing reforms that transfer resources or political influence to less privileged groups within society for example it is typically because strong religious institutions have compelled them to do so Citizens throughout the previous century had sought membership in churches as a means of ensuring upward mobility but a deterioration of mainline Protestant authority that started in the 1960s led large groups of white suburbanites to shift away from the mainline Protestant churches There to pick up the slack were larger evangelical congregations with conservative leaders who discouraged attempts by the government to promote a more equitable distribution of wealth and political authority That shift Compton argues explains the larger revolution in white Protestantism that brought us to this political moment Subject Catalog, 1979 Library of Congress, 1979 Worthy of the Nation United States. National Capital Planning Commission, Frederick Gutheim, Antoinette J. Lee, 2006-11-19 Illustrated with plans maps and new and historic photographs the second edition of Worthy of the Nation provides researchers and general readers with an appealing and authoritative view of the planning and evolution of the federal district The Nation's Capital Brewmaster Mark Elliott Benbow, 2017-10-23 Christian Heurich 1842 1945 was not only Washington D C s most successful brewer he was the world s oldest with 90 years experience He walked across central Europe learning his craft survived a shipboard cholera epidemic recovered from malaria and worked as a roustabout on a Caribbean banana boat all by age 30 Heurich lived most of his life in Washington becoming its largest private landowner and opening the city s largest brewery He won a beer war against his rivals and his beers won medals at World s Fairs He was trapped in Europe while on vacation at the start of both World Wars once sleeping through an air raid and was accused of being a German spy plotting to assassinate Woodrow Wilson A notably odd episode when they began to tear down his old brewery to build the Kennedy Center the wrecking ball bounced off the walls Drawing on family papers and photos the author chronicles Heurich s life and the evolving beer industry before and

Kruse,2015-04-14 The provocative and authoritative history of the origins of Christian America in the New Deal era We re often told that the United States is was and always has been a Christian nation But in One Nation Under God historian Kevin M Kruse reveals that the belief that America is fundamentally and formally Christian originated in the 1930s To fight the slavery of FDR s New Deal businessmen enlisted religious activists in a campaign for freedom under God that culminated in the election of their ally Dwight Eisenhower in 1952 The new president revolutionized the role of religion in American politics He inaugurated new traditions like the National Prayer Breakfast as Congress added the phrase under God to the Pledge of Allegiance and made In God We Trust the country s first official motto Church membership soon soared to an all time high of 69 percent Americans across the religious and political spectrum agreed that their country was one nation under God Provocative and authoritative One Nation Under God reveals how an unholy alliance of money religion and politics created a false origin story that continues to define and divide American politics to this day The Congregationalist ,1892

Katrina and the Need for Revival in the American Church Jerry Bass,2014-05-06 What is it going to take to revive the American church and usher in a spiritual awakening in the country The author was trapped in a downtown hospital in New Orleans during Hurricane Katrina From that experience Jerry Bass believes that God allowed this disaster in order to wake up the church from its spiritual lethargy This book was written with an overwhelming conviction that revival in the American church is needed Endorsements Reading Jerry s book brought about different emotions in me My first emotion was painful memories of a very difficult time in my life living in a city that was destroyed by Hurricane Katrina My second emotion was one of hope as Jerry called for revival in our city state and nation Ladies and gentlemen WE NEED REVIVAL in America and it MUST start in our churches Fred Luter Jr pastor Franklin Avenue Baptist Church New Orleans Louisiana president Southern Baptist Convention Ive never seen the need for revival in the Church like I see it now I pray for revival every day I did not pray for revival before I read this book nor understand the difference between a revival and evangelization I have also realized that 2 Chronicles 7 14 is directed to Gods people that includes me and not to unbelievers I believe that many American Christians will be touched by Gods Spirit as they read this book and glean from it that revival must start first with them Bob Leaman LSU Health Director of Continuing Dental Education
