The Life and Letters of Lewis Carroll Stuart Dodgson Collingwood, 2017-10-16

This biography, subtitled The Original Scandalous Biography by Carroll's nephew, was written by Carroll's nephew and published only 11 months after his death in December 1898. It accidentally started the entire image of Lewis Carroll as a pedophile by deliberately suppressing all the evidence for his sometimes unconventional relationships with women, explaining that some of those women had been little girls. The Victorians had no concept of our modern idea of pedophilia. In fact, a man who loved pre-pubescent girls was considered especially saintly and innocent, and this was why Collingwood over-emphasized this aspect of his uncle's character so much.

Stuart Dodgson Collingwood 1870-1937 was an English clergyman and headmaster. He wrote two books about his uncle Lewis Carroll National Magazine, 1914

The Autograph, 1911 James Boswell's 'Life of Johnson' James Boswell, 2020-07-06

James Boswell's Life of Johnson: An Edition of the Original Manuscript in Four Volumes, Vol. 4, 1780-1784. This volume is the final in the Yale Boswell Editions manuscript edition of the Life of Johnson, a four-volume sequence designed to stand as a research supplement to the Hill-Powell version of the Life. The first volume, edited by Marshall Waingrow and covering the years 1709-1765, appeared in 1994, and the second, 1766-1776, edited by Bruce Redford with Elizabeth Goldring, in 1998. The third, 1776-1780, edited by Thomas F. Bonnell, was published in 2012. This fourth volume traces Boswell's processes of composition from first draft to final publication It restores much deleted material and passages lost or overlooked at proof and revision stage It also corrects a host of errors from compositorial to misreadings that have stood in all editions of Boswell s biographical masterwork

Thomas Bonnell s annotation clarifies a range of textual issues and sheds revealing light on Boswell s processes of selection and deletion The Self in the Cell Sean C. Grass,2014-01-27 Michel Foucault s writing about the Panopticon in Discipline and Punish has dominated discussions of the prison and the novel and recent literary criticism draws heavily from

Foucauldian ideas about surveillance to analyze metaphorical forms of confinement policing detection and public scrutiny and censure But real Victorian prisons and the novels that portray them have few similarities to the Panopticon Sean Grass provides a necessary alternative to Foucault by tracing the cultural history of the Victorian prison and pointing to the tangible relations between Victorian confinement and the narrative production of the self The Self in the Cell examines the ways in which separate confinement prisons with their demand for autobiographical production helped to provide an impetus and a model that guided novelists explorations of the private self in Victorian fiction The First Years of Yangyi Commune
