he revival of the bronze statuette popular in classical antiquity stands out as an enduring achievement of the Italian Renaissance. These small sculptures attest to early modern artists' technical prowess, ingenuity, and desire to emulate or even surpass the ancients. From the studioli or private studies of humanist scholars in fifteenth-century Padua to the Fifth Avenue apartments of Gilded Age collectors, viewers have delighted in the mysteries of these objects: how they were made, what they depicted, who made them, and when. This catalogue is the first systematic study of The Metropolitan Museum of Art's European Sculpture and Decorative Arts collection of Italian bronzes. The collection includes statuettes of single mythological or religious figures, complex figural groups, portrait busts, reliefs, utilitarian objects like lamps and inkwells, and more. Stunning new photography of celebrated masterpieces by leading artists such as Antico Riccio and Giambologna, enigmatic bronzes that continue to perplex, quotidian objects, later casts, replicas, and even forgeries show the importance of each work in this complex field. International scholars provide in-depth discussions of 200 objects included in this volume, revealing new attributions and dating for many bronzes. An Appendix presents some 100 more, complete with provenance and references. An essay by Jeffrey Fraiman provides further insight into Italian bronze statuettes in America, with a focus on the history of The Met's collection, and Richard E. Stone, who pioneered the technical study of bronzes, contributes an indispensable text on how artists created these works and what their process conveys about the object's maker. A personal reminiscence by James David Draper, who oversaw the Italian sculpture collection for decades, rounds out this landmark catalogue that synthesizes decades of research on these beloved and complex works of art.

European Furniture in The Metropolitan Museum of Art Daniëlle O.

Kisluk-Grosheide, Wolfram Koeppe, William Rieder, 2006-05-30

This beautifully produced volume is the first to survey the Metropolitan Museum's world-renowned collection of European furniture. One hundred and three superb examples from the Museum's vast holdings are featured. They originated in workshops in England, France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Austria, Russia, or Spain and date from the Renaissance to the late nineteenth century. A number of them belonged to such important historical figures as Pope Urban VIII, Louis XIV, Madame de Pompadour, and Napoleon. The selection includes chairs, tables, beds, cabinets, commodes, settees, and sofas, bookcases, and standing shelves, desks, fire screens, armoires, coffer chests, mirrors, and frames, showcases, and lighting equipment. There is also one purely decorative piece: a superb vase made for a Russian noble family who, according to one awestruck viewer, owned all the malachite mines in the world. The makers of some of the objects are unknown, but most of the pieces can be identified by label, documentation, or style as the work of an outstanding European designer, craftsman, such as André Charles Boulle, Thomas Chippendale, David Roentgen, or Karl Friedrich Schinkel.

The Art of Vase-Painting in Classical Athens Martin Robertson, 1992

In his new book, Professor

Martin Robertson author of A History of Greek Art CUP 1975 and A Shorter History of Greek Art CUP 1981 draws together the results of a lifetime's study of Greek vase painting tracing the history of figure drawing on Athenian pottery from the invention of the red figure technique in the later archaic period to the abandonment of figured vase decoration two hundred years later The book covers red figure and also work produced over the same period in the same workshops in black figure and other techniques especially that of drawing in outline on a white ground The book is intended as a companion volume to Sir John Beazley's The Development of Attic Black figure originally published in 1951 by California University Press and as an examination and defence of Beazley's methods and achievements This book is a major contribution to the history of Greek vase painting and anyone seriously interested in the subject whether scholar student curator collector or amateur will find it essential reading
