Rethinking Tradition In Modern Islamic Thought:

Rethinking Tradition in Modern Islamic Thought Daniel W. Brown, 1999-03-04 Questions about the authenticity and authority of sunna have long been of central importance to the study of Islam especially to those concerned with Islamic law In this fascinating study Daniel Brown traces the emergence of modern debates over sunna focusing in particular on Egypt and Pakistan where these controversies have raged most fiercely and assesses the implications of new approaches to the law on contemporary movements of Islamic revival Using the case of modern Islam as a starting point the author considers how adherents of any great tradition deal with change Modernist Islam, 1840-1940 Charles Kurzman, 2002 A major intellectual current in the Muslim world during the 19th and 20th centuries proponents of modernist Islam typically believed that it was imperative to show how modern values and institutions could be reconciled with authentically Islamic ideals This text collects their writings The Ulama in Contemporary Islam Muhammad Qasim Zaman, 2010-12-16 From the cleric led Iranian revolution to the rise of the Taliban in Afghanistan many people have been surprised by what they see as the modern reemergence of an antimodern phenomenon This book helps account for the increasingly visible public role of traditionally educated Muslim religious scholars the ulama across contemporary Muslim societies Muhammad Qasim Zaman describes the transformations the centuries old culture and tradition of the ulama have undergone in the modern era transformations that underlie the new religious and political activism of these scholars In doing so it provides a new foundation for the comparative study of Islam politics and religious change in the contemporary world While focusing primarily on Pakistan Zaman takes a broad approach that considers the Taliban and the ulama of Iran Egypt Saudi Arabia India and the southern Philippines He shows how their religious and political discourses have evolved in often unexpected but mutually reinforcing ways to redefine and enlarge the roles the ulama play in society Their discourses are informed by a longstanding religious tradition of which they see themselves as the custodians But these discourses are equally shaped by and contribute in significant ways to contemporary debates in the Muslim public sphere This book offers the first sustained comparative perspective on the ulama and their increasingly crucial religious and political activism It shows how issues of religious authority are debated in contemporary Islam how Islamic law and tradition are continuously negotiated in a rapidly changing world and how the ulama both react to and shape larger Islamic social trends Introducing previously unexamined facets of religious and political thought in modern Islam it clarifies the complex processes of religious change unfolding in the contemporary Muslim world and goes a long way toward explaining their vast social and political ramifications Modern Muslim Intellectuals and the Qur'an Suha Taji-Farouki, Institute of Ismaili Studies, 2006-01-26 This volume examines the writings of ten Muslim intellectuals working in the Muslim world and the West who employ contemporary critical methods to understand the Qur'an Their work points to a new trend in Muslim interpretation characterised by a direct engagement with the Word of God while embracing intellectual modernity in a global context The volume situates and evaluates their work and responses to it among Muslim and non Muslim audiences Reformation of Islamic Thought Naṣr Ḥāmid Abū Zayd,2006 After September 11 Islam became nearly synonymous with fundamentalism in the eyes of Western media and literature However widely held this view may be it is at odds with Islam s rich political history Renowned Egyptian scholar Naṣr Ab Zayd here considers the full breadth of contemporary Muslim writings to examine the diverse political religious and cultural views that inform discourse in the Islamic world Reformation of Islamic Thought explores the writings of intellectuals from Egypt to Iran to Indonesia probing their efforts to expand Islam beyond traditional and legalistic interpretations Zayd reveals that many Muslim thinkers advocate culturally enlightened Islam with an emphasis on individual faith He then investigates the extent of these Muslim reformers success in generating an authentic renewal of Islamic ideology asking if such thinkers have escaped the traditionalist trap of presenting a negative image to the West A fascinating and highly relevant study for our times Reformation of Islamic Thought is an essential analysis of Islam s present and future Books on Turkey ,2005

J South Pacific L Islam Jacques Waardenburg, 2008-08-22 This book presents some twenty essays on different aspects of Islam in history and the present. These essays are grouped into eight larger sections. The first, 'The Beginnings', deals with the transition from pre-Islamic understandings and reasons an essential part of the Quranic message. The next two sections deal with Islam specifically as a religion with its particular signs and symbols. The question of rules of interpretation in Islam and its structural features is discussed here. Sections four and five deal with ethics in Islam including Muslim identity and human rights and certain social functions of Islam. Section six introduces some 19th and 20th century reform movements with special attention given to developments in Saudi Arabia and the puritan characteristics of present day Islamic revival movements. The final two sections discuss contemporary issues: Islamization processes and policies; Islamic ideologies; the ideologization of Islam; and the political uses of religion. Throughout the book the author shows the links between the religious and other interpretations and uses made of Islam and the contexts in which they are made. The Introduction signals some important developments in Islamic studies since World War II.

New Topics in Feminist Philosophy of Religion Pamela Sue Anderson, 2009-12-05 Having enjoyed more than a decade of lively critique and creativity, feminist philosophy of religion continues to be a vital field of inquiry. New Topics in Feminist Philosophy of Religion maintains this vitality with both women and men from their own distinctive social and material locations contributing critically to the rich traditions in philosophy of religion. The twenty contributors open up new possibilities for spiritual practice while contesting the gender bias of traditional concepts in the field; the old models of human and divine will no longer simply do. A lively current debate develops in reimagining and revaluing transcendence in terms of body space and self/other relations. This collection is an excellent source for courses in feminist philosophy, phenomenology, hermeneutics and literature.
