Magowan, 2007-02-13 Beginning in the early 1980s readers advisory services were a widely discussed topic in North American public libraries By 2005 almost every public library in the United States and Canada offered some form of readers advisory service The services offered have changed significantly in ways perhaps disadvantageous to adult North American library patrons This book provides a critical history of readers advisory philosophy and offers a new perspective on the evolution of the service The book analyzes the debate that shaped readers advisory and discusses how the service has assumed its present form The study follows readers advisory through its three prominent stages of development beginning with the period 1870 to 1916 when the service was still a subject of much crucial debate about its meaning and purpose During the second phase 1917 to 1962 readers advisory systematically committed itself to meaningful adult education through serious and purposeful reading The book argues however that during the most recent phase of readers advisory from 1963 until the present contemporary public libraries have turned their backs on the rich heritage of readers advisory services by valorizing the reading of entertainment oriented and commodified genre titles and bestsellers Historical analysis case studies and statistical charts augment the book's central argument Journal of Library History, Philosophy, and Comparative Librarianship, 1984 ALA Publications Checklist American Library Association.

Headquarters Library,1988 Public Libraries ,1985 Reference Quarterly ,1987 Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf,Karen Coats,Patricia Enciso,Christine Jenkins,2011-04-27 This multidisciplinary handbook pulls together in one volume the research on children s and young adult literature which is currently scattered across three intersecting disciplines education English and library and information science Resources in Education ,2000-10 Literacy and Reading Programmes for Children and Young People: Case Studies from Around the Globe Patrick Lo,Stephanie H. S. Wu,Andrew J. Stark,Bradley Allard,2022-01-26 Literacy and Reading Programmes for Children and Young People Case Studies from Around the Globe presents interviews with over 40 librarians from around the world who tell of their library programs The volumes are arranged geographically with Volume 1 offering interviews from library professionals from the USA and Europe and with Volume 2 sharing programs from Asia Africa Australia and the Middle East The volumes highlight the diversity of the types of programs catering to the varying needs of children and young adults throughout the world Case studies featured in this book outline the details of programs events and activities provided by over 40 organizations in the context of social capital and social inclusion Each interview chapter discusses the contributions made to literacy development and community building of children and teens With the many variations and examples of best practice librarians and educators can glean new ideas for their own programs The interviews reveal the challenges and issues faced and the work being achieved in vastly different environments in many geographic areas and in diverse economic social and cultural contexts The programs include those of national and state libraries public libraries and mobile libraries carried out by public libraries NGOs and commercial organizations in both developed and developing countries They also feature programs of multicultural libraries libraries for indigenous people and libraries for refugees This publication complements the range of initiatives and activities carried out by IFLA s Libraries for Children and Young Adults Section that supports library services and reading promotion initiatives catering to children and young adults around the world These volumes are rich in variety and will provide much food for thought for creating unique and successful library programs American Reference Books Annual Bohdan S.
