Poulenc Roger Nichols, 2020-04-14 An authoritative account of the life and work of Francis Poulenc one of the most prolific and striking figures in twentieth century classical music Francis Poulenc is a key figure in twentieth century classical music as well as an unorthodox and striking individual Roger Nichols draws upon Poulenc's music and other primary sources to write an authoritative life of this great artist Although associated with five other French composers in what came to be called Les Six Poulenc was very much sui generis in personality and in his music where he excelled over a wide repertoire opera songs ballet scores chamber works piano pieces sacred and secular choral works orchestral works and concertos This book fully covers this wide range while also describing the vicissitudes of Poulenc's life and the many important relationships he had with major figures such as Satie Ravel Stravinsky Diaghilev Cocteau and others

Music, Movies, Meanings, and Markets Morris Holbrook, 2012-01-25 Music Movies Meanings and Markets Cinemajazzmatazz focuses on macro marketing related aspects of film music in general and on the cinemusical role of jazz in particular After a review of other work on music in motion pictures the book explores and illustrates the ways in which on screen jazz performances contribute to the development of dramatic meanings in various films many of which address the art versus commerce theme as a central concern

The Ashgate Research Companion to Minimalist and Postminimalist Music Keith Potter, Kyle Gann, 2016-03-23 In recent years the music of minimalist composers such as La Monte Young Terry Riley Steve Reich and Philip Glass has increasingly become the subject of important musicological reflection research and debate Scholars have also been turning their attention to the work of lesser known contemporaries such as Phill Niblock and Eliane Radigue or to second and third generation minimalists such as John Adams Louis Andriessen Michael Nyman and William Duckworth whose range of styles may undermine any sense of shared aesthetic approach but whose output is still to a large extent informed by the innovative work of their minimalist predecessors Attempts have also been made by a number of academics to contextualise the work of composers who have moved in parallel with these developments while remaining resolutely outside its immediate environment including such diverse figures as Karel Goeyvaerts Robert Ashley Arvo Pärt and Brian Eno Theory has reflected practice in many respects with the multimedia works of Reich and Glass encouraging interdisciplinary approaches associations and interconnections Minimalism's role in culture and society has also become the subject of recent interest and debate complementing existing scholarship which addressed the subject from the perspective of historiography analysis aesthetics and philosophy The Ashgate Research Companion to Minimalist and Postminimalist Music provides an authoritative overview of established research in this area while also offering new and innovative approaches to the subject The Sonneck Society Bulletin ,1995 Seventies British Cinema Robert Shail,2019-07-25 Seventies British Cinema provides a comprehensive re evaluation of British film in the 1970s The decade has long been written off in critical discussions as a doldrums period in British cinema perhaps because the industry facing near economic collapse turned to unacceptable low culture genres such as sexploitation comedies or extreme horror The contributors to this new collection argue that 1970s cinema is ripe for reappraisal giving serious critical attention to populist genre films they also consider the development of a British art cinema in the work of Derek Jarman and Peter Greenaway and the beginnings of an independent sector fostered by the BFI Production Board and producers like Don Boyd A host of highly individual directors managed to produce interesting and cinematically innovative work against the odds from Nicolas Roeg to Ken Russell to Mike Hodges As well as providing a historical and cinematic context for understanding Seventies cinema the volume also features chapters addressing Hammer horror the Carry On films Bond films of the Roger Moore period Jubilee and other films that responded to Punk rock heritage cinema and case studies of key seventies films such as The Wicker Man and Straw Dogs In all the book provides the final missing piece in the rediscovery of British cinema's complex and protean history Contributors Ruth Barton James Chapman Ian Conrich Wheeler Winston Dixon Christophe Dupin Steve Gerrard Sheldon Hall I Q Hunter James Leggott Claire Monk Paul Newland Dan North Robert Shail Justin Smith and Sarah Street
